Fined $50—Skips

The fireman on the steamer Brooklyn, a foreigner whose name it has been impossible to obtain was arrested in Bandon yesterday morning on a charge of selling liquor. He was taken before Justice C. R. Wade and plead guilty, whereupon he was fined $50 and costs. According to information from the sheriff's office he was then turned loose without bail to secure the money with which to pay his fine. Since that time the authorities have seen nothing of him. The Brooklyn sailed last night, but whether the fireman was aboard or not is not known. Sheriff Johnson went to Marshfield this morning on the chance of picking up some trace of the elusive fireman.

Deer Season Opens

The deer season opened an hour before sunrise this morning and the woods probably contained more hunters than deer. One story comes in of 23 hunters who trapped over three of the burns north of town, covering perhaps one square mile of territory. One hunter killed a crow, another a chipmunk and a third turned his high power on an empty beer bottle. But the deer that may inhabit those burns are all still safe.

Mail Coach Catches Fire

Sparks from the engine of the Eugene-Powers train set fire to the mail coach Sunday evening when the train was just west of the creamery. As soon as the train reached the depot all the mail was thrown out and the fire extinguisher brought into play. It was not, however, until more extinguishers were brought from the boats at the dock that the blaze was controlled. No great amount of damage was done.

From Boulder Creek

Geo. Musiek was in the city from Boulder creek, yesterday, where he has been putting up a small saw mill for the Boulder Creek Mining Co. to be used for sawing flume lumber etc. The mill is finished, but the water supply is now too small to furnish the required power until the rains commence. Mr. Musiek was making a flying trip to secure some blacksmith work and some of his tools which he needed.

Shadybrook Items

Mrs. Chas. Bothwell and daughter went to Gold Beach Saturday.
