

GUARANTEED TEN YEARS

The extra strength of the Rex Typewriter can be seen.

The type-bars are of 1-16 inch thickness, instead of the usual 1-32. The type-bar-bearing surface is, on the average, four times greater than on any other typewriters of standard design. In every part there is extra strength.

The Rex is built to outlast all others. Factory tests show an equivalent of 25 years' daily service.

The manufacturers consider 10 years a reasonable guarantee.

Why buy a typewriter of less strength?

Extra Capacity
Letter writing is not all a typewriter should do.

The carriage on the Standard Rex Model is 11 inches instead of 9. It is built for writing on wide blanks, insurance policies, deeds, abstracts, contracts, etc.

Why buy a typewriter that only writes letters?

It writes on cards, labels, tags. It prints in two colors without changing ribbon—serves as a check-protector. It is made ready for stencil-cutting without removing ribbon. It manifolds from 5 to 20 carbon copies at one writing.

The tabulator and back-spacer are operated by keys. They are in-built—not added attachments.

When the end of the line is reached, the Rex locks automatically.

The Rex is a full visible writer—not necessary to move any part of the typewriter to see all you are writing and have written.

Why buy a typewriter that lacks any of these features?

Extraordinary Price
$57.50, f. o. b. factory, would be a low price for any standard typewriter. For a typewriter of extra strength, extra capacity, extra features, it is an extraordinary price.

Why pay more and receive less? Compel those who ask more to give more.

Monthly Payments
For a little more the Rex can be had on monthly payments. It will pay for itself from earnings.

Ask for Demonstration
Make us prove our claims of superiority; if we fail you lose nothing; if we succeed you save about 40%.

Motion Picture Notes

Items of Interest to Those Who Are Interested in Motion Pictures—Information of Coming Attractions and Comments on Pictures

The Scenic has several announcements to make that will please its patrons and that will assure them some very pleasing entertainment to come.

Perhaps the most important of these is the commencing of the Billie Burke serial, "Gloria's Romance," on Monday, Oct. 23rd. It is hardly necessary to say anything about Billie Burke. The way Coquille people crowded the Scenic on the first presentation of "Peggy," as well as the good house greeting its repetition recently, show that the charming little lady is well known here. The serial, of 20 two-reel chapters, is put out by Geo. Kleine, and that is sufficient guarantee of its quality. It should be appreciated that this photo-novel is being shown in Co-ing or dead. We will now have Lillian and Dorothy Gish, Mae Marsh and Norma Talmadge, as well as other stars with whom we are not yet so well acquainted, in the Fine Arts-Triangle pictures. The more you know about pictures the better you will appreciate this announcement. The manager of the Scenic has faith that the Coquille fans will appreciate the Triangle pictures when they learn how good they really are.

The Girl and The Game serial will hereafter come on Thursday night instead of Wednesday. The Mutual Masterpieces, Edition de Luxe, will not be seen after this week. We have been badly disappointed in those pictures and will not inflict them on you any longer.

The Blue Bird features have been discontinued temporarily until another night than Saturday could be given them. We have now requested that the service be resumed next week, showing the pictures on Friday. The Blue Bird photoplays have been well liked here. They are not world-beaters, but they are cracking good stories, well presented in every way and of a kind that every one can like. There are a few weak ones, but they are very few, and they are all clean and interesting. No one will be disappointed in seeing a good show if he comes to see a Blue Bird.

On Sunday nights a mixed program from the General Film Co. will be presented.

On Thursday, Oct. 26th, "The Escape," a great Griffith special feature will be shown. This is a "states right" picture which must be shown at an advanced price. The use of it will profit the Scenic but very little, but we wish to show you the best that is in the market.

We are now negotiating for the use of the Paramount feature, "Tess of the Storm Country." You have all heard of this. It is one of Mary Pickford's very best pictures, if not the best. If our proposition is accepted, this will be shown early in November. Geo. Beban in "The Alien" will come about a month later. We are also promised a chance to show "The Birth of a Nation" before the year is out.

Next Friday and Saturday the two Cuban girls, Signora Pauline and sister will appear at the Scenic in singing and dancing acts which have been making a hit in other houses of the county, an entire change of program being made for the second night. They use special electrical effects and their act is spoken of in the highest terms by those who have seen it.

Next Tuesday the Nashville Players will present the Comedy Drama, "Who's a Fool," at the Scenic. This is a full evening play and no pictures will be shown.

The Scenic manager desires to express his appreciation of the good patronage given to the serial completed last night, "The Iron Claw," and to say that as to the question asked so often, he knew who the laughing mask was every once in awhile—until something occurred to make him think it must be someone else.

Another important announcement is only held up pending completion of the arrangements and fixing of dates.

Henry C. Dixey, Star in the Mutual Masterpiece, De Luxe Edition, "The Alien."

At The Scenic Thursday

quille immediately on the completion of its first showing in Portland. We are not waiting six months or a year. To get the picture now is costing an extra price and more is being paid for this serial than has been paid for any other ever shown here. Remember the date of the opening chapter, Monday, Oct. 23.

After running one Triangle feature a week and finding it did not pay, the Scenic recently canceled the service. Then last week a representative blew in and signed the Scenic up with a contract to use two features a week, on Wednesday and Saturday, commencing tomorrow. Those who have seen Triangle pictures know that the Triangle program, consisting of a five-reel feature and a two-reel Keystone comedy is the best there is in the market, bar none. In the one-program-a-week service heretofore used, the features all came from the Thomas H. Ince corner of the triangle. Hereafter we will have the Ince features on Wednesday and those from the studio of D. H. Griffith on Saturdays. No picture fan needs to be told about D. H. Griffith, the man who made the old Biograph company, and the greatest director liv-

Prompt Action Saves Frosted Silo Corn

"Thousands of acres of Oregon corn, even though it has been frosted can be safely and economically put into the silo if harvested and stored promptly," says G. R. Hyslop, head of the Crops department of the Agricultural College.

"Usually early frost this year caught a great deal of corn intended for the silo, before it reached the best silo stage. Much of the corn, even the early varieties, was hit by the frost when it was in the milk and soft dough stage. This corn can be safely put into the silo and will make good silage well worth having and using even though its quality is not equal to that of corn that had reached the advanced hard dough stage. The important thing is to get the frosted corn into the silo as promptly as possible in order to avoid souring, should a period of hot weather follow the freeze. We must also avoid, as far as possible, the whipping off of the dry leaves with a resulting loss of nutritive value.

"Where there are prospects of getting an ensilage cutter within a very short time the frozen corn should be cut and laid down in bundles at once. If there is danger of a prolonged wet spell, the corn should be stood up in shocks until the cutter is available.

"Usually, if immature corn is put into the silo within a short time after the frost it will contain sufficient moisture to keep it properly. If considerable time elapses, a week or ten days of drying after a hard killing frost, it is then usually necessary to apply sufficient water to bring it up to the proper moisture content for safe keeping."

See the Royal Family!

By Ellis O. Jones

See and behold the Royal Family! Yes. What a scrumptious, effulgent and wretchedly useless Royal Family it is. What is the Royal Family doing?

The Royal Family is regaling itself with a certain form of mortal combat called war. That is to say, the Royal Family is fighting.

Oh, but you must remember that the Royal Family does not engage in the fight in propria persona.

Ah, but is it not unseemly and altogether infra dig for the Royal Family to fight?

No? How can that be?

The Royal Family would no more think of doing its own fighting than of shining its own shoes or carrying its own horses or running its own automobile or buttoning itself up the back.

How then does the Royal Family get its fighting done?

By the use of a carefully selected body of men called soldiers and sailors.

Whenever a Royal Family picks a quarrel with some other Royal Family, it is only necessary to order out these carefully drilled soldiers and sailors and have them shoot each other with great zeal, vigor and diligence.

But isn't it rather difficult to get men to engage in such a dangerous occupation?

Not at all. It is very easy. Of all the occupations under the sun, that of soldiers and sailors is the poorest paid and they are usually ill treated to the

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Coos Johanne K. Jensen, Plaintiff, vs. Jorgen L. Jensen, Defendant.

To Jorgen L. Jensen, the above named defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, in which Johanne K. Jensen is plaintiff and you are defendant within six weeks from the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within six weeks from the 12th day of September, 1916, the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear or answer on or before the 12th day of October, 1916, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order of publication, judgment for or against you will be taken against you, and plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows:

1st: That the marriage contract heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and held for naught.

2nd: That the plaintiff have judgment against the defendant for her costs and disbursements herein.

3rd: That the plaintiff be permitted to resume her maiden name, Johanne K. Olsen.

4th: That the court grant such other and further relief as shall seem meet and equitable in the premises.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance to an order by the Honorable G. F. Skipworth, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the Second Judicial District, Coos County, dated the 6th day of September, 1916, directing the pub-

If you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.
