Study Food Values

Food provided for the family table deserves the careful thought of every housewife. Do you use thought when buying baking powder?

The quality of cake, biscuits and all quickly raised flour foods depends largely upon the kind of baking powder used.

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar derived from grapes. It is absolutely pure and has proved its excellence for making food of finest quality and wholesomeness for generations.

Royal Baking Powder contains no alum nor phosphate.

R. B. Murdock and Sheriff All Johnson were two Coquille people who returned from the Bay on yesterday morning's train.

Some of you people who "never read the ads" are going to miss a chance to buy some home-canned fruit cheaper than you can make it yourself, this week.

Remember the Coosonian Band dance December 30th at Hazellet hall.

The Loyal Order of Moose are making great preparations for the second annual dance which will be given Monday night and which promises to be a very successful affair.

The Coosonian Band have their announcements out for a New Year's dance to be given a week from Saturday night. The Coosonian dances have a reputation that insures them a good crowd whenever given.

The dance of the season will be given at Hazellet hall Dec. 30, by the Coosonian band.

Dr. C. F. Cropp, of Salem, arrived here Sunday from Salem to visit for a few days with Dr. V. L. Hamilton and Dr. G. Earl Low, with whom he attended medical school. He expects to leave for Salem again tomorrow.

No pains or expense are being spared by the Coosonian band to make their dance the event of the season, Dec. 30th.

For the convenience of the patrons of the Coquille post office during the remaining days before Christmas, Postmaster Leneve will open the delivery window after the distribution of the incoming mail, so that people can get their Christmas packages without waiting until the next day.

The funeral of N. Lorenz, which was held last Thursday was very largely attended and the resources of both this section and the Bay had been exhausted to furnish flowers. One lady who was in attendance said that it was "the saddest funeral" she had ever attended, and this indicates the feeling in the community at the passing away of one who was so universally respected and loved.

O. C. Sautford is laid up with the grippe, and A. O. Walker is assisting to fill his place in the bank.

County Superintendent Raymond E. Baker gives out the total for the school census this year as 6761, as against 6870 for last year. In Coquille the number of children of school age this year is 531; last year it was 497.

The city council did very little at its session last night except granting the Longston Construction company an extension of time and paying some bills, one of which was for 500 feet of new fire hose at 80 cents per foot.

Dr. V. L. Hamilton returned last night from North Bend where he had been visiting his several patients at Mercy hospital. He reports Mrs. J. E. Norton, who underwent an operation last week as getting along exceptionally well.

W. W. Williams, traveling representative for the Autowriter company, left this morning to continue his work of bringing the little writing device before the schools of the country, after having been in town for several days. Mr. Williams reports that the work of placing the autowriters is going along nicely and he expects the business to increase greatly after the first of the year.

W. H. Lyons gets more "kidding" than any man in town, over the recent duck hunt he and several others were featured in on the bay. He started out hunting the other day and was accosted by about two dozen friends who handed him such remarks as "Got your compass with you?" "Taking sea-sick remedy along?" "Got a life belt on?" "What are the wild waves saying?" "Been dieting yourself for this trip?" etc. etc. But W. H. being a fat man and good natured merely smiled.

H. M. Shaw, M. D., eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be in Coquille at Baxter Hotel Thursday, Jan. 4, 1917. Glasses fitted.

How to Prevent Croup
In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off and all danger and anxiety avoided.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best of all cough remedies. It is the only one that is guaranteed to cure. It is the only one that is sold by druggists everywhere.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation
Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.
