

VARNISH the Shabby Woodwork

Varnished surfaces will get shabby. Window sills become rough, floors show worn spots, furniture and woodwork become scuffed, scratched and worn. These shabby surfaces can be easily made like new by using

ACME QUALITY

VARNISHES

There's a special Acme Quality Varnish for every surface. Floors, window sills, furniture, woodwork, doors, etc., each require varnishes made to meet their peculiar needs.

Ask for a free copy of the Acme Quality Painting Guide Book which tells what to use, how much and how it should be applied.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Robinson, accompanied by Misses Myrtle DeLong and Eva Schroeder and Judge James Watson, motored to Ten Mile Sunday and spent the day trolling for trout on the lakes. Judge Watson says it was mostly trolling for, because the party only took seven fish in the entire day and that but five of them were real fish. However, he says he enjoyed the boatribe very much indeed and may go again—next year.

Captain C. E. Edwards, of Allegany, came over last week with the registration books of Allegany No. 5 precinct and while here paid the Herald office a pleasant call. Captain Edwards feels a kindly interest in the old paper because of the fact that he is (or was) the possessor of the very first copy of this paper which was turned off the press. The copy in question was in his possession until a year ago when it was destroyed in a fire which also burned his home. Captain Edwards was one of the pioneer river boatmen on the Coquille and is well known among the older residents of this city.

Carpenters started the work of remodeling the new hospital building at the corner of First and Hall streets yesterday morning and the work will be pushed to a speedy completion. Dr. Hamilton stated this morning that unless some unexpected contingency arises the hospital will be ready for patients by a week from today, and possibly sooner. The entire building will not be finished at that time but sufficient of the rooms will be remodelled and furnished to accommodate any emergency cases which may come. Mr. Hartson says he will have nearly all the rooms furnished before the end of this week but that some of the furniture will not arrive in time for installation at the time the rest of the building is ready.
