			Engel 1	gns.
VALLEY RECORD. ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY. N. A. JACOBS. JACOBS & KAISER. Publishers and Proprietors. SUBSCRI TION PATES. One ye r	ALLEY	REC	CORD	).	VALLEY RECORD. Published at Ashland, in the fourishing Rogue River Valley. The leading town of Southern Dregon, population 1,800, junc- tion of O. & C. and S. P. R. R. Leading industries—fruit raising, mining, manufacturing, stock-
Picture     Picture       Three smooths     7       Three smooths     7       Terms, in sed rance.     7       VOL. I.       Oak Street,       Between Main and Sprinz,       ASHLAND,     ORETON.	red With morning. angles of the dangerous twenty good minutes had	and the quiet ong treacher- he projecting s rocks. For i fought that	THE BOWSER FAMILY. They Celebrate the Fourth in the Good Old Way and Have a High Time. I knew by the way Mr. Bowser looked across the supper table at me	the Bowser family didn't have hold be rope when the old Liberty bell its notes of freedom pealing forth be world, and he wouldn't answer. aned up his torn shirt and inquired	WORTHLESS MANUSCRIPTS. WORTHLESS MANUSCRIPTS. How Publishers Dispose of Most of the Works Submitted to Them. Of the vast multitude of manuscripts offered to book publishers every year,
Mrs. W. C. OBER: Proprietress Board and Lodging. S5 per week single Meals, 25c. Single Bods, 25c. First cluse accommodicions afforded the public. The best Exting House in town. Central House Mitrons Oxide Gas administered for the publices extraction of te th. Office over the bank. E. DePEATT. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Ashiand, Oregon.	I sighed that merry Spring was forced to go, And doff the wreaths that did so well become her: But whilst I murmure i at her absence, lo! 'Twas gummer. I mourned because the dafodils were killed By burning skies that scorched my early posies: But whilst for these I pined my hands were filled With roses. I sighed that merry Spring was forced to go, her: 'Twas gummer. I monarch of the brook be turned his burnished, qupward and surrendered- a mangey, refuse-eating swamps, dining on its de richness! It was more stand, and I advanced up legious brute with murde I am sorry to confess tha	times after that I started to leave that muvering side and here was the for the dicate, savory than I could on the sacri- tr in my heart. t it didn't get	I also felt certain that his proposition was mixed up with the glorious Fourth. Pretty soon he said: "We are to go on a steamboat ex- cursion to Harsen's Island on the Fourth." "Please don't. We can enjoy our- selves far better right here at home."	re Cornwallis surrendered, but he sed to tell. Even when I told him it was the duty of every good iot to get out on the glorious rth and whoop 'er up and let the e scream, he would not open his th. It was only after we got home he found voice to remark: "Mrs.	probably seventy-five per cent. are worthless, or, at least, are not worthy of publication in book form. It is astonishing how many people there are in the world who imagine they are capable of writing a book. It is still more astonishing how few ever dis- cover the truth of the matter, and ac-
E. K. BRIGTHMAN, Prop. ASHLAND, OREGON. Recovated throughout and newly fur- tiahed. Will practice in all Courts of the State. Office adjoining Well's Fargo & Co.'s Express Office. J. T. BOWDITCH, A FTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT- LAW.	Half-broken hearte 'I bewa'led the end Of triendships than which none had once seemed nearer: But whilst I wept I found a newer friend And dearer. And thus I learned old pleasures are estranged On'y that som thing better may be given; Chill at last we find this Earth exchanged For Heaven. -Good Words.	through him, but I had none, and so my only hope of escape was that the bear would eventually overhaul the dog and pack him snugly and effect- ually away. "The bear, the last time his attempt to let me escape was interferred with by Bruce, had reached the very edge	lought, bled and died that we might be a free people." "Yes." "It is a time when every patriot should show his colors. I propose to go off with a select few and have a good time." "But nothing is select on the Fourth."	Why, dear, what have I done?" Done! Look at me! Who made me wreck I am?" A few select patriots of Harsen's nd." Yes; and how did we come to go re? Just go right away from me! and I must have a settlement to-	knowledge themselves mistaken. Even though their manuscripts may have been rejected by half a score of pub- lishers, they go down to their graves believing themselves the victims of a base conspiracy to crush aspiring genius. Such loyal self-confidence were almost sublime were it not so
A good sample room for commer- ial travelers has been fitted up in connection with the hotel. GRAVES & SONNICHSON, BOOT & SHOE- MAKERS, Ashland, Oregon. Will practice in all Courts of the State. Collections promptly made J. C. PLUMERTH, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER, ASHLAND, OREGON.	A LIVELY TIME. Novel Adventure in the Wilds of Pennsylvania. Y Fisherman's Disagreeable Encounter with a Hungry Bear-How His Dog Helped to Enliven the Occasion. Halped an ugly dash at 1	the one alto- 's estimation, o reconnoiter. I unexpected part he had as the stone I e dog sailed in ttacked Bruin turned and purce down to find the woods. The dog was a little late in starting that time, but he got off. The bear had disappeared in the woods before Bruce got there, and the dog dashed in after him. Time passed. Dog nor bear appeared in the open. Hope grew so strong in me that I let myself out of the tree and flew. I reached my friend Finnegan's in safe- ty. I was there two days afterward.	whether we are slaves or freemen!" he hotly exclaimed. "Yes, I do."ver B can rap."Then get ready for the excursion. Only a select few are going. We shall have a nice, cool ride, a basket-lunch on the island, and return in time for the fireworks in the evening." "But if any thing happens you'llver B	w last." at I think he will forgive me. He save the teoth and the eye is ddly getting better.—Detroit Fre. s. RMING IN CAPE COLONY. Chare of Agricultural Life and Condi- tions in South Africa.	ridiculous. There seems to be a widespread be- lief among would-be authors that pub- lishers are their natural enemies, and they take a peculiar, not to say fiendish, delight in rejecting manuscripts and crushing the hopes of those who aspire to the honors of authorship. This is an altogether mistaken idea. Publishers are human, like the rest of
A'l work guaranteed. Repairing neatly one. ILEATHEE MANUFACTORY. They have on hand a stock of better iff skin, grain calf-skin, kip, dongola and nek skin han ever imported to Ashland, hich they offer for sale to the trade of outlern Oreg on at reasonable figures. Highest market price paid for hides and	John Hughes Daly, Esq., of the Vinth ward, caterer to the Criterion Club of this eity, has returned from a few days' outing among the trout streams of Monroe County, Pa., fetch- ing with him a few trout and some nost remarkable tales of adventure. The especially delights in some refui- tions and the bear streams of Monroe County, Pa., fetch- ing with him a few trout and some nost remarkable tales of adventure.	bess and dis- following that bear yet by easy stages, following that bear yet by easy stages, or has served as refreshments for him. I incline to believe that the latter is true, and I fondly hope it is."-Ed. Mott, in New York Mail and Express. UNPARDONABLE CRUELTY. A Species of Torture to Which Invalids	"Any thing happen? Lay it to you? Mrs. Bowser, do you know who you are talking to?" "But you'll say I dragged you off, and that it was all my fault." "I will, eh? Very well. You and our wall-eyed infant can stay right here! I'm going on the excursion!" I vided the point after the start in the the start of the start of the start in the start of the start of the start of the start of the start in the start of the start	summer-after Sallie, our little ir maid-of-all-work, has brought to n of us, while in bed, the matatinal of coffee, without which no Cape ther, British or Dutch, begins the , one of our number rises and goes he adjacent kraal to count the ts as they issue forth in charge of r Kaffir herds to pasture on the	us. They follow the business for the money there is in it, and they are quick to take up a good thing when they have the opportunity. Nothing pleases a publisher more than to secure a really valuable book for pub- lication, especially if he thinks it will sell well. He is glad to recognize the ability of the author, though the latter
<ul> <li>Shop on Main Street, opposite plaza.</li> <li>ASHLAND, OREGON.</li> <li>H. S. EVANS,</li> <li>House, Sign and Carrish and Carrish and short solide,</li> <li>riage Painter.</li> <li>CHITECT,</li> <li>Is now prepared to give estimates to complete all kinds of buildings, and to furnish all labor, material, plans, specifications and details for the same, upon reasonable terms and short notice,</li> <li>Residence, West Ashland Hillside.</li> </ul>	the border of the extraordinary. "You remember that fine collie dog, druce, of mine?" remarked Mr. Daly at the club last night. "Well, you'll never see him again. If I am not very much mistaken, he now lines the stomach of an interesting member of the bear family that honored me with in interview one day. I had been ishing at the head waters below the store of the bear preparator ishing at the head waters with aggravating rapidit gradually acted as Bob A arguing to myself that probability now had it too is the bear family that honored me with in interview one day. I had been ishing at the head waters with aggravating rapidit ishing at the head waters the bear family retreat w	The horrible brutal speeches to in- valids that are made by visitors appar- ently friendly and apparently sane are inexcusable. Some of them are so hor- rible that one must laugh at the very remembrance of them. To a dear old gentleman who had been confined to the house for some time came the cheerful inquiry: "Does	was agreed apon. We were ready and on time, and it did seem as if we were contain of enjoying ourselves until we got to the boat. Then Mr. Bowser's indicate few" thread out to be a mob of four hundred people of all sorts, sizes and colors, and we had scarcely found while cats when a man came up, slapped him familiarly on the back and called ney.	ng, lithe Kaffir from Galekaland, i e commonly known as John, has ghtered at the back of the house ingle-storied, brick-built messuage, roofed and white-washed, and ched high on the mountain side r a perennial fountain) the goat ch each day is sacrificed for the als of our household, and the kid- s, fry and a chop or two are grilled	may be utterly unknown to fame, for henceforth their interests are mutual, so far as that book is concerned. Neither will the author have any diffi- culty in securing recognition from other literary men. There is no "charmed circle" in literature which an author of genuine merit may not enter. Publishers are generally correct in their judgment of manuscripts. Long
All Work Guaranteed. SHOPIn rear of Wilson's Furni- re store on Main street. C. A. NUTLEY, Post-office box 113. C. W. AYERS, ARCHITECT AND BUILDER, MANUFACTURER AND WOOD WORKEE.	of the Big Bushkill, and, having filled my creel with big rout, was thinking about returning to he farm house of my friend Finnegan, with whom I was spending my little vacation. Bruce was with me and had wandered off into the brush. I was winding my line on my reel, when I heard the dog barking and snarling in peculiar way, and I went into the brush to see what he had run up	A lady sorely and dangerously afflicted with dropsy, unable to breathe except in a sitting position, worn out by sleeplessness and suffering, was thus comforted by a sympathetic neigh- bor after viewing her with eager curi- osity: "Well. Mrs. —, you do look awfully! I do hope you will die before you burst!"	"Hello! old rutabaga, did you bring your iung-pad along?" MA Bowser turned very red and then very white, and I had to talk to him. I told him that this one loafer had slipped in by accident, and that no one should notice him. He must re- member Washington, Paul Jones, Put- nam and the host of other patriots. (the	the of marmalade. Breakfast over, of us rides off to the shallow kloof to us rides off to the shallow kloof to marmalade. Breakfast over, of us rides off to the shallow kloof to miles further away in the mount- to, where our horses and mules are under the care of Tobias, our ch servant. Another of us busies self marking goats, whilst a third are are three of us—one married)	experience enables them to see their merits or demerits almost at a glance. A page here and there will give them a key to the general style and character of the work and will reveal to them feults the existence of which the writer has never even suspected. The manu- eript is returned with a polite note "regretting that the present depressed state of the book trade compels us to de-
Produce & Commission Merchant, Main Street, Ashland, Or. All kinds of fruit bought and sold on	ugainst. The sight that met my eyes would doubtless have carried joy to a bear hunter, but it froze my blood, and my blood was at fever heat at that. A bear that seemed to me to be towering up into the air at least ten feet, stood on his haunches and kept dashing at Bruce as the dog circled about him. When Bruce saw me he ran to me and	bear and fol- lowed Bruce. ely one. The trout, didn't e might have a long struggle with disease, and feeble, yet very anxious to recover, came this cheerful observation: "Dear me, how you have failed lately! Why, you're as white as a sheet! Your blood is all turning to water! You can't last long." By the bedside of a sensitive woman	When the boat finally got away it was loaded down and every body was smoking cheap eigars and feeling good natured. Even the dozen fellows who had had their heads punched or their eyes blacked while waiting seemed to forget it as patriotism bubbled up. I was looking around for the "select few" when a young man who didn't	es on his back a dead kid well ned with strychnine pills, meaning eposit it in a small kloof across the ey for the benefit of one of the herous leopards which infest our n. This is the only method of ping down these night marauders, ch do cruel execution on our flocks foals. Then attention must be	cline its publication," etc. This, with a few words commending the good points of the book (if there are any) serves to sugar-cont the bitter pill of disap- pointment. Publishers are kind-hearted as a rule, though their kindness is not always appreciated. In rejecting an unworthy book the publisher does the author a real favor, though the latter soldom has the perception to see it or.
Also DYSTER & ICE CREAM PARLOR Oven every day except Sunday. Next door to Postoffice. Ashland Market Stair building a specialty. All work guaranteed to be first-class and of latest design	vantage ground he barked and snarled with renewed vehemence. This dis- play of cowardice on the part of my dog appeared to embolden the bear, for he came slashing right toward me like a locomotive. It wasn't me he seemed to want, though, for he had evidently set his mind, head at the first the bear was dead onto	ed heels over nd over and nout making a y remarkable ned to confuse around in the hing he knew him. There	old enough, crowdod along to us and s: 2 to Mr. Bowser: "Shay, ole toan, we licked 'om, didn't 've?" Mr. Bowser turned red, but I touched hyn with my foot. "Shny, ole man, give us a little Fo'th Shuly speech, will you?" con- tinued the petriot.	he dry river-bed, where we grow leient grain for our wants, and odd a have to be done. A gun or rifle sually carried; for game, feathered furred, is plentiful, and is ever a come change from the monotony of t-fesh. Meanwhile the wife of the edict amongst us is busy superin- ling the washing, cooking and	the maniposes to acknowledge it. What greater favor can one man do another than to prevent his making a fool of himself before the public? Very often a man's best friends are those who save him from himself over his own protest. There are two essential points in writing a successful book—the writer
HOSLEY & PELTON, Prop's. Who esale and retail dealer in H. JUDGE, HARNESS AND SADDLE MANUFACTURER,	I could see by the way Bruin glared at the dog alone. A slight of that kind I was willing to overlook, as I was out for pleasure and did not want any feeling of selfishness or jealousy to mar the harmony. But the bear had his mouth open, all the same, and while I loved my dog I was not above	anglement of the diversion never climbed sn't the whisk ing up that one, turned to take wer happened, ged to disen- bear, and was	him by the elbow. "Sho you won't speech, eh? Then you are an eld Tory, you are! I'll git er boys and pitch you overboard, I will !" I had to talk with Mr. Bowser. I had to tell him how Washington suf- fered at Valley Forge—how the true	as the education of her little -haired girl, our pride and delight. je, our cook, a yellow lady of ed race (Hottentot, Kaffir and hman intermingled), attends to baking of our 'cookies,' cakes of eavened meal which usurp the se of bread, and which are baked	must have something to tell and he must know how to tell it. As to the first, of course every one who under- takes to write a book thinks he has something worth telling. Nine times in ten this is not true; and this mistake on the part of authors accounts in a large measure for the failure of so many books. When the book fails to command the attention and respect of
Cured Meats constantly on hand. Terms Cash. Pass-book accounts pay- able monthly. ENTIRE SATISFACTION. Repairing neatly and promptly done, and at low rates.	taking to his heels, and that the bear would do the next best thing and take to my legs. So I anticipated the re- treat of the dog and retreated hastily, but in good order, myself. The talent Bruce developed in sharing my re- treat, but at the same time maintain- ing his position between my legs,	g great gaps self and Bruin. my trout had r for his day's en that in the bim and the reloped points ar, but which- Bruin stopped	hungered -how we fought on until victory came at last, and by and by I quieted him down. He had just got his patriotism back when a middle- aged man, who had always felt very sorry that he didn't see Cornwallis surrender at Yorkton, came along and chucked me under the chin and said: "Shay, sis, got yer fel'r 'long? pas	the ground, heated in the native tion. If we do not make money radays as we did a few years since, on the railways were being built, live in a rude plenty; meat in indance is ours, dried fruits— nees and peaches, excellent when wed—bought from the Boers who is us occasionally with wagonloads	command the attention and respect of the reading public, it is uscless for the writer to rail at the public for the fault is pretty sure to lie at his own door. The man who has something worth telling and knows how to tell it is sure of an audience. A great deal depends on this second point—knowing how to tell a thing. There is a certain tact in the use of
New Butcher Shop. The undersighed has opened a new intcher shop in ASHLAND, On Main street, under the McCall Hall, Irst door north of Masouic building. I propyse to supply the public with the best of freeb	sorbed in other things, have excited my greatest admiration. "Under existing circumstances it an- noyed me, especially as the heart of the bear was still set on the dog, and his legs were extremely ready in fol- towing the promptings of that heart. Consequently, I was compeled to extend to Bruce the assurances of	e dog, cast a aching in the d then turned rd the brush. lay the slight- of the bear's ho had stopped d suddenly to control of the	<sup>1</sup> Cause if yer got yer fel'r 'long I kin lick him in two mizzen by er watch! Hooway! I'm forefazzer, I am! I shed 'er blood, I did!" I held a conversation with Mr. Bow- ser. It was about how we whipped the British and gained our indepen- dence, and why, for that reason, every true patriot should go off on a Fourth	produce; oranges and grapes in son from the irrigated farms of rs out beyond the Poort, whence emerge from our mountain home, porridge of pounded mealies and k occasionally. Goat's milk we e in plenty, but no butter or am, for cows and oxen do not flour- upon our zuur veldt. Game	language that is indespensable. Usually this tact is gained only by years of ex- perience, and by many it is never gained at all. Very few people have it intuitively. This tact teaches what not to say as well as what to say. It is a valuable accomplishment to be able to express one's thoughts both briefly and clearly. The gods favor but few
BEEF, PORK OR MUTTON In season. A liberal share of the pat- onage of the people of Ashland and definity respectfully solleited. All Orders Promptly Filled. Having purchased the old stable on Main strest near the bridge, and assumed the management of the same I am pre-	the kick sent me sprawling on the ground, and the impetus it had given the dog gave him a good start of the bear, and he never looked around, but tore wildly into the brush. The bear,	after that re- madn't had ex- already to sat- ved. The bear ruce's advance about it, for it nipped him in hat he turned.	time, and he was in pretty good humor when the boat landed. Circumstances were against me, however. We had scarcely got seated in the shade when Mr. Bowser discovered that some one had changed lunch baskets with us. The one we had contained only two sandwiches and a euchre-deck. When	t several kinds of antelope—the springer, rhebok of two sorts, vail rooi (gray and red), duykerbok, an occasional koodoo; the latter of the noblest of the South African na, carrying magnificent spiral ns and weighing from four hun- d to five hundred pounds."—St.	mortals thus. There is no royal road to successful authorship, unless one is born a king —that is to say, a genica. Is it any wonder that so many aspirants fail to secure the coveted recognition from publishers? Unless you are very confident that you have something of great import- ance to tell, and that you know how
DAVID PAYNE. Ashiaud, Oregon Southern Pacific Co.'s LINES. THE THE	was worth any quantity in the bush, hushed the promptings of his heart for Bruce and set it beating wildly for me. At least I interpreted the situation to mean that when I glanced over my shoulder and saw Bruin steering straight for me. I didn't wait for his arrival, but scrambled to my feet. The bear stood a moment the dog, as if undecide with him. Then he see made up his mind that to do would be to settle to dog once and for all, an after Bruce at a rate	ward my tree d gone away. t gazing after d what to do emed to have the best thing the pestiferous and he started of speed that	But he didn't. I interested him in the revolution, and finally made him realize it was his duty as a true pa- triot, to make sacrifices. Washington had staked his all that we might breathe the air of liberty. Couldn't	She Was Merely Joking. hey were on their bridal tour, and said, gaily: Now, Fred, we don't want every- y in the car to know that we are thy married, and have them all	to tell it, don't tempt the fates by put- ting your ideas between the covers of a book. "If a man could be sure That his life would endure At least for a thousand years," you might possibly live to get over the disappointment; otherwise, not.—Indi-
Mount Shasta Route! California Express Trains Run Daily Between Portland and San Francisco LEAVE ABRIVE Portland 4:00 p m   Ashland 5:00 am SanFrancisco06:00 pm   Ashland 5:10 pm Ashland 5:10 pm   Portland 10:40 am	away. Scarcely knowing what I did, I jerked the strap of my creel off my shoulder and turned on the advancing bear, and, swinging the creel, weighted with its twenty pounds or so of trout. I brought it down on the head of that bear with all the force I was capable of. It fell on that ponderous skull with a sickening thud. The bear	a race-horse. l upon a posi- as a safe and b bear quickly an in a circle tree, and the east five min- t up. The bear l upon a posi- as a safe and b control to the satested record of 30,3184 pounds for a year. A brief study of how much a cow must eat to produce such a yield as this is interesting.— Washington Critic. A Curious Instrument. It is a curious thing that the Italian ocarina, or earth-flute, has not received	their hats on their ears. He saw the point and we ate the two sandwiches, drank some river water and sat and lought mosquitoes for three hours. We were not left entirely to ourselves, however. On several different occa- sions some of Mr. Bowser's "select few" approached us and sought to in-	pillow, too, and I guess I'll go to pp for three or four hours. You we me when we come to the dinner tion. Spread that shawl over me,  O, I don't care who knows that	-A California paper relates that as a train was pulling out from Salida a wild steer rushed upon the engine and a moment later was lifted by the cow- catcher and landed squarely on the platform. The steer hooked the head- light into pieces and then climbed on top of the locomotive. It fooled awhile with the bell, and then tried to put loose the whistle. The engineer
PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS. Tomprint Microping Cars for Accommon dation of Mercond Class Passen- gers Attached to Express Trains. The O & C. R. R. Ferry makes connec fon with all the regular trains on the East Side Div. from foot of F street. Carbon foot of F street.	<ul> <li>pen, and in a second the ground was strewn with my crimson-spotted trophies of the rod and fly. I noted it with a pang, but hastily concluding that the pang would be as aothing compared with the one that would follow the meeting of the bear's jaws with my person, sadly, but without delay, I turned and hastened away.</li> </ul>	wasn't at all t last the bear and stopped. had his wits re had Bruce ing so fast that ruin's rear be- ashock of the ack about ten	terest us in the proceedings. They called him by such familiar terms as "old man," "old bow-legs," "bald head" and "sawed off," and they ad- dressed me as "Hey, Susan," "Ah! there!" and "Your gal." At every such attempt to draw out our patriot- ism Mr. Bowser would rebel, and I would have to talk to him of the suf- ferings endured by our forefathers un-	-Something new in the line of di- tory information is included in the of names of the inhabitants of Plym- h. Octogenarians and older peo- generally have their age stated as a their calling and residence.	had enough presence of mind to stop the train quickly, and the shock tumbled the steer off into a ditch. By dhe time the train was started the maddened animal had regained his feet and was following with the evi- dent intent of trying an attack in the rear. but the train was too fast for him. —An Albany physician says Amer-
Weat Bide Division Between Portland and Corvallis. Mail Train. LEAVE ARRIVE Portland 7:30 a m Corvallis 1:2:25 p m Corvalits 1:30 p m Portland 6:15 p m At Albany and Corvallis connect with Mail Corvallis connect with	ran two or three rods before looking suck. I then threw my eye over my shoulder. You will remember that I mentioned that when I first caught sight of the bear that day, my blood froze. Well, when I caught sight of him as I was hastening away from him my blood thawed instantly, and not	ar exactly un- the dog had nade a safe re- lafter him and started back wu and watched ar with appar- nad got a good	A climax finally came. A double distilled, full-jeweled, diamond- mounted patriot, who had perhaps taken out his first papers the day be- fore, threw a biscuit and hit me on the ear, and Mr. Bowser went over to interview him about it. When he came back he had a black eve, his nose was	sumably this is done "by consent parties." In fact, they probably it, for it is a weakness of man d sometimes of woman) when he ches a certain age to brag of his ars. -In tracing the gradual opening up the African continent, during the thundred years, geologists find that days of pioneer exploration are	icans suffer more generally from Bright's disease and nervousness than any other people because they sit down so persistently at their work. While
Express Train. LEAVE ARRIVE Portland 4:50 pm M'Minnvilles: 0 pm McMinnville 5:4 am Portland 9:00 am For information regarding rates, maps. etc., apply to company's agent. R. KOEHLER, E. P. ROGERS.	Ing heat. The bear's heart had in turn proved untrue to me and was now firm- ly fixed on the scattered contents of my creel. Bruin was lunching on my trout, and I stopped and gazed in in- dignation. As I gazed the bear raised	nor any elaborate fingering to embar- rass one. The North Italian peasants use it constantly in the fields, and when you hear one of their peculiar melodies from a practiced quartet you wonder such simple means can pro- duce so beautiful a result.— Chicago	out of "true," and some of his teeth were loose. He had met the enemy, and he was theirs. I took him down to the boat, got a state-room, and we locked ourselves in. I felt like talking, but he dign't. When I had washed his still	yet over. A few patches of the face have been surveyed with some e, of others we have a general owledge, and in others lines of travel be been run through, but there are il great regions—as in parts of the g-traveled Sahara even—that are	tension of the muscles of the back. The result is that the muscles sur- rounding the kidneys become soft and flabby. They lose their vitality. The kidneys themselves become weak and debilitated. If business men would walk more and stand instead of sitting at their desks their health would be much improved.

