POLITICAL NOTES.
The only sure way to enforce the Exclusion Act is to re-elect President Cleveland.

CHEAP whisky or cheap necessities of life which? Let your vote decide this question.

WHAT is the difference in principle between free hides and free wool?
The Republicans made hides free.

THE Republicans put hides on the free list in 1872. The exports of hides that year were $74,331. In 1888 the exports amounted to more than $10, 000,000.

It is now the Roorback season.
During these last days of the campaign the judicious man will not believe all he reads in the organs.—Examiner.

EVERS Russia proposes to admit grain sacks free, in which to ship this year's crop. The senate tariff bill proposes to make the California and Oregon farmers pay a tax on grain sacks.

STEEL rails sell in Scotland for $17 per ton, in this country for nearly double that amount. The tariff duty is about the difference in price. Who pays the tax if the American people do not?

The Republicans are making contrivances, to be sure. Supt. Downing fired Bill Watkins, who has been a guard at the penitentiary, and Bill will, in consequence, vote for Harrison and Morton. He has been in the penitentiary for a long time and is now at the bottom of the hill.

HORATIO SMOYER on being asked what the farmers most needed at the hands of the government, replied, Relief from some of the burdens of taxation." To the inquiry "What was their next greatest need" he replied "Relief from some more of the burdens of taxation."

EX-U. S. MINISTER TAYLOR, of Labria, who is conducting the negro Democratic headquarters in New York, says that 240,000 colored men in the Northern States will vote the Democratic ticket this year. Sixteen leading colored organs are supporting Cleveland.

WHEN wheat was going lower last March the N. Y. Tribune told the farmers that the Democratic policy "offers the only explanation." Now that a short crop and speculation have sent the price booming the Tribune remarks to the farmer that the additional price of the loaf is the natural consequence of the Democratic policy."

MR. MORTON exclaims in his letter of acceptance that "Protection reserves America for Americans. And yet a few months ago it was shown in a Congressional investigation that the Republican Yule-Tide resolutions had been importing contract laborers from Europe to work his farm, and this in face of a law strictly forbidding that kind of business.

REV. EDWARD CORNET, a prominent Methodist preacher of Long Branch, who heretofore has voted the Republican ticket, will vote for President Cleveland's retention at the head of the Government. Mr. Cornet said:
"I consider Grover Cleveland the best President the United States has had since Lincoln. In my opinion he has lived up to his pledge and the spirit of the platform on which he was elected as nearly as any human being could."

THE Republicans are playing "good Lord and good Devil" with the liquor issue in the Empire State. While shouting publicly for high license and saloon restriction, they are circulating copies of the St. Louis Tribune among the Germans, who declare that the Republican party is not in the "least affected by the temperance mania."

THE Mills bill, by taking taxes off the necessities of life, leaves the average import tax at 42.68 per cent. The Senate bill, by relieving the luxuries of taxes, makes the rate 42.23 per cent, or still lower than the Democratic bill. And yet the monopolists have the assurance that the Mills bill a "free trade" measure.

THE report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office Stockholders, made a short time since, shows that the number of acres of land reposed to the public domain under President Cleveland has been 83,158,990 acres, and that in addition 65,020,538 have been recommended for restoration.
This princely gift to the American people is the fruit of Democratic reform. Who believes that if Blaine had been elected one single acre would have been recovered from the railway corporations, or that if Harrison is chosen anything better can be expected from his administration?

THE total wealth of the country is estimated at $45,000,000,000. There are five American citizens with net fortunes averaging $500,000,000 each, fifty with $100,000,000, 100 with $5, 000,000, 200 with $3,000,000, 500 with $1,000,000 and 1,500 with $500,000.
In other words, 1,500 persons own $30, 000,000,000, or more than twice as much as all the actual money in the country. A less number of men, not to exceed 1,000—railway magnates, princely bankers and heads of vast protected corporations—have absolute control, equivalent almost to actual ownership, of $25,000,000,000 more.
Less than 3,000 men have in their hands $28,000,000,000 of the $45,000, 000,000 of wealth in the country. Such is the result of a high tariff system which gives Andrew Carnegie $1,500, 000 a year and his laborers sixty cents a day. It breeds millionaires and tramps, monopolists and beggars.

THIS IS UNANSWERABLE.

H. W. Scott in Oregonian.]
Advocating protection, the Dalles Times says: The wool growers (of Eastern Oregon) know fully that protection guarantees a good price for their clip, while free trade strikes at the very life of industry. If this assertion were true, still it would not prove the protective policy to be a just and wise one. High prices for wool make high prices for woolen goods, and there are twenty persons who wear woolen goods to one who produces wool. Why should the twenty be taxed for the benefit of the one?
Oregon is boasted as a wool growing state, and so it is; and yet, even in Oregon, there are twenty persons who want cheap clothes to one who produces wool. Here, in a dozen words of one syllable, is a complete and overwhelming answer to all the elaborate arguments ever made in the effort to show the alleged importance of "protecting" the wool grower. But even the small wool grower himself—he who has a few sheep and whose annual clip is a few hundred pounds of wool —loses money by the enhanced cost of clothing to himself and family that he gains through the higher price for wool; so that the actual beneficiaries of the system are the great wool growers and the monopolist manufacturers.
There is no phase of protection that will bear examination. Every part of the system is as weak as the argument for the protection of wool. The system is, throughout, a superficial and short sighted game of greed—except for the monopolists whom it creates and supports. With them it is a studied and profound game of greed, part of which is to make large classes suppose they are favored and protected by a system which either does not protect them at all, or actually robs them.

THE SENATE FREE-TRADE BILL

Mr. Claus Spreckels proposes to start the best sugar industry in this state on a large scale, and hopes that he will presently be able to supply the United States with sugar. His factory at Watsonville is progressing rapidly. If any industry in the state ought to be protected, or could be benefited by protection it is his. Yet the Senate tariff bill reduces the duty on sugar 41.02 per cent. The only industry in California which has a claim to protection, and which might perhaps be assisted by protection, is obviously uncovered, while the Senate bill increases the protective duty on metals 0.81 per cent, on cotton goods 0.60 per cent, on linen goods 3.87 per cent, on woolen goods 4.75 per cent. Wherever protection would help California the Senate reduces it; wherever it would merely burden California it increases it.
—[S. F. Examiner.]

THE COBLEN CLUB AT WORK.

A number of imported bandannas were seen in the possession of the Democrats last night. —[S. F. Examiner.] A lot of beautiful silk campaign badges of the finest English make was held for undervaluation at the Custom-house yesterday. Half of them bore woven likenesses of Harrison and Morton, and in spite of their English origin they were lettered with the sentiment, "No Free Trade, but Protection for America." —[N. Y. Herald, Oct. 17.]

THE OLD ROMAN.

From Thurman's Letter of Acceptance.] I approve the platform of the St. Louis convention and I cannot too strongly express my dissent from the heretical teachings of the monopolists, that the welfare of the people can be promoted by a system of exclusive taxation in excess of the wants of the government. The idea that people can be enriched by heavy and unnecessary taxation; that a man's condition can be improved by taxing him on all he wears, and all that his wife and children wear, on all his tools and implements of industry, is an obvious absurdity. To fill the vaults of the treasury with an idle surplus of the circulating medium, is no benefit to the community, and no legiti-mate use and to thereby deprive the people of the currency needed for their business and daily wants, and to create a danger and anxiety unnecessary to the welfare of the government, is a policy of extravagance and corruption. The necessities of the government seem to me to be a policy at variance with every sound principle of government and of political economy. The necessity of reducing taxation to prevent such an accumulation of surplus revenue and the consequent depletion of the circulating medium, is so apparent that no party dares to deny it; but, when we come to consider the modes by which the reduction may be made, we find a wide antagonism between our party and the monopolists. We seek to reduce the necessities of life; our opponents seek to increase the necessities of life. The question is, whether he should stand in the controversy? Can any well informed man be deceived by the false promises of a system so unreasonable and unjust as to be the benefit of laboring men?

PROSECUTING TRUSTS.

The proposed action of the Tammany Society in the prosecution of the American Sugar Refinery, incorporated under the laws of California, for joining the New York Sugar Trust, has created considerable interest in commercial circles. The question will be tested in this state, as it is being tested in New York, whether the state courts are effective to protect the people against the cornering of the necessities of life by illegal combinations.

That manufacturers' combines, known as trusts, are against public policy is a fundamental doctrine of the Democratic party, and the local Tammany Society is prepared to test its efficacy against Mr. Blaine's opinion that trusts are mostly private affairs with which the Government (that is, the courts) has no concern. In the test case selected for trial here the trust refinery is held in check by the open competition of the California Refinery, which is not in the combine.
Therefore it has not been able to cinch the consumers. But the admission of the American Refinery to the sugar trust gives the latter the absolute control of two-thirds of the sugar producof the Hawaiian islands for the next four years, and in this way greatly strengthens the combination. In other words, the advantage which the American people should derive from the importation of free Hawaiian sugar is absorbed by the Eastern sugar trust, the members of which fought the Hawaiian treaty up to the date of its renewal.—Examiner.

The impression prevails that the powerful Southern Pacific corporation is lending its mighty hand in aiding the election of Harrison and Morton, and the great "railroad show" held at Sacramento yesterday is one of the indicators. The people of California know that the S. P. Company do not want Harrison merely for love.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

LAKE COUNTY.
Bob Bagley is lying sick at the Lakeview house.
Dolph Cheesman and family have returned from Rogue River valley.
G. W. Mages sent $50 of his Warner valley beef steers to market last week.
Oscar Loftus came from Ashland Sunday, with a load of household goods.
A drawing card for Lakeview is her $12-000 school house. Strangers like her collectors of civilization.
The Yalnah Indians are taking salmon from Sprague river in large numbers, and drying them for winter use.
Troop M, under command of Lieutenant Sargent, passed through town Monday on its way from Fort Bidwell to Walla Walla.
Frank Lane is to give a grand champagne supper if Cleveland is elected. We shall feel sorry if Frank misses his guess.
D. C. Herrin, the photographer, left for Bonanza, Monday. He did some good work while here, and if he should return more patronage awaits him.
W. K. Barry, stock inspector, has inspected 30,000 sheep already this fall. He calculates that there are 200,000 sheep in Lake county at present.
Mrs. Fine returned from Washington, D.
C., last week, and thinks her land matters will come out all right. Major returned from Rogue river a few days ago.
The agent at Ager, H. M. Force, informs us, that a party of S. P. civil engineers have left Edgewood, Siskiyou county, to run a line in the direction of this county.
Our representatives from this county to the legislature should not forget that the stock inspector's salary is entirely too low.
Also, the sheriff's fees should be raised.
As near as we can learn (there is no regular market) the prices for vegetables and grains are as follows: Barley $1 per 100 lbs; oats $1.50; potatoes $1.25; cabbage $3; onions $1; beef $5.—[Examiner.]

THAT POOR OLD LION.

Is there never going to be any rest for that poor old beast, the British lion? A little while ago he was going to devour us in the shape of free trade; when the Mills bill turned out to be quite a respectable protectionist measure, he was sent back to his cage for a while; but now he is devouring us again, with Lord Sackville as his rider.
The theory is that the American people are so stupid and so narrow-minded that if you can only persuade them that England wants a thing, they are sure to do the opposite. What a pitiful opinion the authors of this theory must entertain of their countrymen! Fancy sixty-three millions of intelligent half-educated Englishmen to make them go in one direction by telling them to go in the other! What a compliment to pay to Americans to imply that they are like the pigs, which can always be made to go to Limerick by having their tails pulled in the direction of Tipperary.—[Examiner.]

DISOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP.

The following incident occurred at New Canaan, Conn.:
The wife of James Davana, a Democrat and a shoemaker, is a tailoress. A clothing manufacturer, a rampant Republican, met Davana on the street and, after a discussion, told him how the Republican party protected the American workingman, and declared that if the tariff was reduced, the country would go to the devil.
When he got a chance Jim said:
"My boy went to your clothing store the other day to buy a pair of pants, didn't he?"
"Yes," replied the manufacturer. "They were all wool and a fine pair."
"I know that," replied Davana. "but my wife made the same pair of pants for you for 31 cents. Now, I'd like to know where the other $10 goes to."
The manufacturer said nothing, but left suddenly.

The sequel to the tale of the Van-out off at the depot is very touching.

A hungry dog happened to come by saw the toes lying by the side of the track, and without waiting to inquire whether they were Caucasian or Mongolian, proceeded to make his dinner off them, thus saving Ah Sin the trouble of burying them, who sagely remarked: "Dog eat Chinaman's toes

The dry cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the lookout for it, and be prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. Croup never comes without warning: a day or two before the attack the child will become hoarse, and that symptom is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided; it has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. For sale by T. K.
