A SCRAP OF BIOGRAPHY.

A California Cook Becomes a Cornell Professor.

Some years ago Maybury Davis, a very prominent citizen of Colusa county, residing on the Butte county side of the river, some twelve or fifteen miles west of Biggs, had contract for levee building or some work of the kind, which made it necessary for him to have a large number of men in his employ, among whom was a young man employed as book-keeper, who afterwards became a prominent editor in this county.

HOW A CANNON IS BORED.

The Way the Bit Cut Through the Steel From Mizado to Beach.

At last the cannon is turned down and is ready to be bored inside, says S. Nichols. In this operation it must be bored so straight and true that the boring tool, entering an exact center of the small end of the cannon, will come out precisely at the center of the large end and seven feet away.

TWO YEARS IN A LIBRARY.

Novel Scheme of a Criminal to Escape Punishment and Hood-wink Justice.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 22.—Much surprise was occasioned here this morning by the announcement of the reappearance of W. C. T. Grossman, who some years ago robbed his employers and was thought to be in Canada. Grossman up to January 1, 1887, was employed as a book-keeper by the firm of Johnson & Swartz of this city.

A WOMAN CONDUCTOR.

She Understands Her Business, Got Married, and is Happy.

"Talk about woman suffrage," said a veteran railroad conductor to a Memphis Appeal reporter. "I can relate to you a phase of woman that few people have seen in this country."
