ANOTHER YEAR.
 With this issue the VALLEY RECORD commences the third year of its career. It may be interesting to its patrons and readers to know that the Record has prospered from its inception, and its subscription list never was the same for any one month, steadily swelling larger each succeeding month, and at times taking a sort of special boom. The publisher feels from the steadily increasing strength of the Record's business that an outspoken, fearless and conscientious newspaper is appreciated in this section. The three Democratic nominees for representatives are successful farmers and in thorough harmony with the state ticket.
 Tacoma the Washington Republican stronghold gives a sweeping Democratic victory. The party of the people rises triumphant and eternal as truth.
 Col. Robert A. Miller's candidacy for congress is progressing nicely. The press throughout the state report good turn-outs to hear him and Prof. Le Roy.
 In these times of political discussions do not forget the Fourth of July celebrations. Ashland is arranging for the grandest blowout yet introduced in Southern Oregon.

The Oregon City Courier, published in D. P. Thompson's old home, says: "It is one of the standing jokes in Oregon City that when D. P. Thompson resided here he moved beyond the city limits a few feet in order to escape the city taxes. Dave has always viewed with the dog salmon in popularity."
 This is an "off year" in politics, and the man that does the scratching is the one that will produce the result. This means that Pennoyer, of the Democratic ticket at least, will be elected. It means also in county and district offices that fitness and just claims for public position, will be the order of the day.

The Australian ballot system was introduced in the St. Paul city election on the 9th and achieved another distinguished point. The city heretofore heavily republican, went democratic by a big majority. The Australian ballot system is death to the political parties who control politics with their "boodle."
 The Corvallis Times, a strictly independent paper politically, says although the masses are apt to favor favors and their friends and are too often swayed by the influence of the politicians and the money power, Gov. Pennoyer should be re-elected. "We believe Sylvester Pennoyer is the people's friend. He has governed in their interest during the past four years and we believe is entitled to their consideration now."
 Our school system is one of the cornerstones of good government and officers ought to be elected irrespective of political preferences. The schools of a county are under special charge of a superintendent, who ought to be acquainted with the work and qualified for the position, if we expect to keep the system up to its high educational standard. Prof. C. S. Price, the democratic nominee, is competent and able to fill its duties acceptably. A vote for him is a vote for a good administration.

The partisan who undertakes to work on the prejudices of the people may be safely set down as a tricker and under no circumstances can you trust him. The reliable man, in whatever calling or position, always looks for a cause of action which is right and results equitably in every relation of men toward each other, or to the public. The partisan habitually has the confidence to bank any in which the people feel no interest and avoid actual, living issues, will hereafter find little encouragement among men who are capable of thinking, and those who honestly seek the general welfare.
 —Salem State Democrat.

THOMPSON OWNS UP.
 At a meeting in Portland last Thursday, the Oregonian reports Thompson to have said:
 "The Democratic party of Oregon seems to have adopted a new watch word. You hear them talk about it in their state convention, in their knots of politicians discuss it on the streets. It is the simple question—water. All know what it means, and as I had something to do with it myself, I will explain its significance.
 The Bull Run water bill as introduced in the last legislature, had some objectional features, which I attempted to have removed. I said then, that if I was not successful in my efforts, I would vote for the bill anyway. I did vote for it, and I voted for it six times. [Applause.] I was present at every meeting and voted, and all knew how I voted."
 So far as G. A. R. representation is concerned, the democratic ticket can supply a better article; one that has not been used for political trickery, than the republican ticket. Prof. Le Roy can disconcert Prof. McElroy on that line; Capt. O'Brien lays in the shade all the rest of the republican ticket, while we have one of the noblest Romans of all left in the person of Hon. W. M. Townsend. There is no man for these fellows to bank any longer on that capital. The democrats have enough of the same sort to give them odds.—Portland World.

THE TICKET.

Where to commence at a review of the democratic ticket nominated at the recent county convention is a puzzle. The usual manner was to commence with senator and then work up. The convention, it seems, commenced at sheriff and worked down towards senator. Why this distinguished position, known more for its honor than for its emoluments, slundered and fell on this occasion seems a dark and unfathomable mystery. Like many of our practices that have sprung and cannot be explained, it circumscribes the head and heart in no mystery and superstition to attempt to ferret it out. But by the great shades of democracy, we swear that this unexpected fall means something. Not being a prophet, or any kind of prophets, the god of democracy only knows the forebodings of this sign. To pure democracy this mysterious occurrence seems one of suchness and perhaps of candidate. But the convention says sheriff.

For this position the candidate is Hon. W. K. Price, of Tolo. Mr. Price is a farmer, an honest, conscientious democrat and a good citizen, and has a peculiar disposition that makes him popular with everybody that he has anything to do with. He is a good business man and if elected, which it looks most likely he will be, the people will be assured that the duties of the sheriff's office will be attended to carefully, and that nothing will be left undone to guard the interests of the county.

For county clerk Thos. E. Nichols of Eagle Point, is the candidate. Mr. Nichols has held the position of assessor for Jackson county, and retired after his second term with a record fit that capacity that was as neat and clean as has yet ever been wound up by a county official. Politically, he is a consistent democrat, and in his business transactions is prompt and reliable. The clerk's office could not be placed in safer hands.

For recorder, the nominee is Wm. M. Holmes. He is a clever young man, and if it was not for the fact that he is compelled to carry a lot of dead weight about the county would stand a good chance of getting there.

The candidate for state senator is Chas. Nickell. The people of this county know him. Do you want him?
 The candidates for representatives—Messrs. Furry, Mings and Stewart—are all successful farmers. Samuel Furry has represented this county in the legislature before and made an honorable record. Conrad Mings, of Ashland, is a thoroughly honest man and there will be no crooked work attached to any legislation that he fathers. J. H. Stewart, the Medford orchardist, is said to have been a member of the Illinois legislature, before coming to this county.
 For county commissioner, Ben. Haymond has held the position before, is exceptionally well qualified to fill his duties and as the bridge hagbo is not now in the way of humbugging the people, he will doubtless be elected.
 W. J. Rodgers of Sam's Valley, the candidate for county assessor, is the county commissioner of this county, an honest old line Democrat and a good citizen.
 Prof. C. S. Price, of Ashland precinct, for the office of school superintendent, is eminently fitted for the position, and will be elected by a handsome majority.

G. Elksat, of Medford, for surveyor is said to be competent, and Dr. E. B. Pickel of same place, for coroner is spoken of as being able to conduct the office of coroner successfully.

The Roseburg Railroad Boom.
 Roseburg, Or., May 8.—Cooks county has raised her share of the subsidy for the Roseburg and Coos Bay railroad, and Roseburg has received a handsome majority. Property here is double in value, and the boom has come. The real estate transfers to-day aggregate $40,000.
 Marshfield, Or., May 8.—George Holcomb arrived here to-day and will plant East Marshfield at once and commence building wharves and a twenty thousand dollar hotel on the terminus of the Drain & Coos Bay railroad, opposite Marshfield.
 Coos Bay is developing into one of the liveliest points in Southern Oregon, and there will be nothing but good for it as equal Portland in size and prosperity.

Governor Pennoyer spoke at Silverton Thursday afternoon and made a splendid impression on his audience. Four old-line republicans came out boldly for him. A striking contrast this, however, the methods pursued by the governor and those of Mr. Thompson. One goes before the people like a man, with his record and long years of faithful service and gives honest, logical reasons why the people should support him. Mr. Thompson makes no public speeches, but sits back, relying on a party majority and the fact that with his enormous wealth and backed by the banking interest he can get the office. If narrow party prejudice could be torn away, Pennoyer would be elected by the biggest majority ever cast in this state.—Appeal.

A RIGHTIOUS JUDGEMENT.

Some time ago E. J. Kaiser, editor of the Ashland Record, becoming tired of what appeared to him as corrupt practices in the courts of the First District, proceeded to publish a criticism of Judge Webster who bears the judicial emblems on the bench of that district, whereupon the latter judge had the recalcitrant editor dragged before him and fined him $50 and imprisoned him in the county jail for 15 days for "contempt of court." This Judge Webster, who with the earnest disapproval of Mr. Kaiser, the editor, who promptly appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and the decision of Webster's court was of course, promptly reversed. Mr. Kaiser's to be congratulated that in his personal freedom of the press has been judicially vindicated. Judge Webster will learn from this that men who do the judicial emblems are subject to criticism the same as other officials are when they get out of the line of honest public duty.

The editor of the Crescent City News is a lawyer. He says:
 Hon. H. K. Hanna of Jacksonville attorney for E. J. Kaiser, defendant in the contempt proceedings instituted by an irate Judge, has filed a brief in the Supreme Court of Oregon that will let the bottom out of Judge Webster's proceedings. It is well enough that it should. Roselarg Review.]
 The contempt case of the State vs. E. J. Kaiser was last week decided in favor of the defendant by the Oregon supreme court, the finding of the lower court being reversed. That so-called judge, Webster, will know more next time.

Wake Up.
 If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, take Simmons' Liver Regulator. It cures the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

George Francis Train, accompanied by S. W. Wall, of Tacoma, who has traveled with him on his tour around the world, have left Queenstown on the steamer for New York, 22 days on the trip. Train expects to make the full journey in 62 days, beating Nip by ten days.
 Delays are dangerous. Like Simmons' Liver Regulator in time, dyspepsia, biliousness and all diseases of the liver. A big supply of cutting cloth at Hunsaker's.
