We wish to announce to the parilla cleanses and enriches the blood, and gives a new impetus to life. Sold by T. K. ty that the C. O. D. Empori-There is a report in circulation that as a result of Thompson's visit, $3500 was left with a citizen of Medford. Whether this is for the whole county or not is not known. At any rate there is considerable speculation among the brethren as to who have the strings to the "sack."

The articles we carry are too numerous to mention. We saim to keep everything. Plug-uglies and calif-numpian parades have occupied very little attention in Ashland celebrations heretofore. This year the committee will resurrect this line of fun and one of the members leaves soon for California to procure the most ridiculous outfits to be had.
