ASHLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1908

Penneyer is the people's man, and the vote thoroughly demonstrates this fact.
Governor Hill, of New York, is desirous of becoming a United States Senator.

The Examiner says Lake county is Democratic by at least five majority.
It cast 814 votes this election against 782 in 1906.

The Lakeview Examiner says: If the state central committee knew how Dr. Loonis came near voting the straight democratic ticket here Monday, his salary would be reduced.

Don't get excited and lay Thompson's defeat on the wrong folks. There were a whole lot of people camping on his trail, something like 42,500 of them being voters.—[Statement, Rep.]

One year's interest (43000) will have been squandered before Ashland gets a spirit from the new water works. But then this will be made up by digging it out of the stomachs of the workmen. This is called "financing."

Although Josephine accepted the smiles and blandishments of the Republicans, she could not refuse putting Chas. K.
Chandler on her list. Charley has been too clever and accommodating an official to throw off on.

Joe Simon and Jim Lotan, the republican bosses of Portland, will try their mettle at the city election this month. Joe wants to knock the city council from under Boss Lotan.

The Democracy of Jackson county is now in better shape for victory at the next election than ever. With a ticket selected to make the strongest run, and the leaders fighting the republicans in place of fighting one another, the republicans will be routed the next time.

"Women, white or black," said Mr.
Stanley recently, "I regard as far above us. They are more humane, they are more prompt with sympathies, they are more laudable in new ideas, than we of the opposites."

The Corvallis Times remarks: In an interview with an Oregonian reporter yesterday, D. P. Thompson attributes his defeat partly to treachery, and then goes on to say, "The current was changing in our favor. Penneyer lost heavily in the last three weeks of the campaign." Perhaps Thompson is right, but if he is, how do you suppose he must have been with the people three weeks ago.

It is reported that Chris Buckley, the blind white devil who is the political boss of San Francisco, is thinking of moving to New York to take the job of "bossing" Tammany Hall. We believe they call Buckley a Democrat, but nevertheless it has been the conviction of the Records that he is a d— rascal. Such men as he rise up in all cities. In some places they are classed as "good Republicans," and in others as "good Democrats." Whatever party they profess to belong to, it is a fact they are of no use to the public good.

Governor Penneyer, in answer to the assertion made by Congressman Heermann, in a diatribe in Sunday's Oregonian, to the effect that during the campaign he was silent on the tariff question, most emphatically denied it. He said:
In my speech at Lebanon, which was published in the Oregonian, I denounced those twin sisters of monopoly—protective tariff and subsidy grants—while in every full speech I made during the campaign I even went beyond my party platform and favored the imposition by congress of an income tax, by which the wealth of the country would be contributed to help bear the burdens of the government, as well as the removal of all tariff taxation from the necessities of life."

Furniture Store Moved.
Smith & Dodge, the furniture dealers, this week moved their place of business and stock of goods into new quarters in the Ganiard opera block. They occupy two store rooms—one fronting on Main street with McConnell & Eubanks' grocery and the other on First avenue. The new quarters give them a chance to show off their wares—the finest stock to be found in the interior, to splendid advantage.

Sunnyside Fruit Farms.
Salem continues to grow, and the building industry never was so actively pushed in that city before. This activity extends to the section surrounding, and each contributes to the other prosperity. This condition of affairs gives added value to those 10-acre fruit farms at Sunnyside, four miles south of Salem, and renders them increasingly desirable to those who wish to engage in any farm specialty. For sale by the Oregon Land Co., of Salem and Portland.

Miner's, speaking of the young conqueror says: "He is like a young hound (chien de chasse), that barks at everybody that smells of anything, that touches everything, and that ends by getting completely exhausted in the room in which he is, no matter how large it may be."

who has a sorrel mare and a lot of wine in the lackroom, Dixon, Solano county, Cal.

The crown of the late Sultan of Persia is to be sold at auction at Singapore. It is of pure gold, set with one thousand diamonds. It's sale is necessary to pay the Sultan's tailor bill. He put so much in his crown that he could not pay for his trousers.

Mr. Carlisle is said to owe his senatorship, as well as his former political advancement, largely to the energy and popularity of his clever and ambitious wife.

Woodland, Cal., June 4.—One hundred boys and girls to-day organized the Boys' and Girls' Cooperative Fruit Canning and Drying association in Woodland, and elected officers. The members are from 12 to 19 years old. The organization is to contract with fruit men to supply labor on picking and packing fruit, and next year to add silk culture to the work.

The Examiner has the following:
The Oregon election will be likely to have considerable effect in the East. It will strengthen the hands of those republicans that have been resisting the McKinley march toward the system responsible for the Chinese and Japanese immigration. The ailing infant tariff bill is likely to have a considerably harder time in the senate than it would have had if Penneyer had been beaten by 7000 majority.

The Bulletin says a claim in Hawthorne district bears the following: "We claim delegations from the law of American Congress and of united states begin at these notion and run fifteen hundred feet to the first day of January, B. Range 10."

The closest shave any candidate had for office in the election was that of P. A. Con-democratic candidate for Sheriff of Baker county. He was victorious over his Republican competitor, J. D. Smith, by a one vote. It is apparent that the entire Smith family voted for the republican candidate, thereby making it quite warm for Mr.
Conde, but he "got there" nevertheless.

The election in Nova Scotia, on Wednesday, May 21st, resulted in a decisive victory for the republican ticket. The republican majority for the party that favor annexation to the United States. Commercial interests and the republican party were and was loudly advocated by the successful candidate. Everywhere the spirit of union, free trade, peace and good will among men is gaining ground.

Historian of the Hour.
Webster called the newspaper "the palladium of liberty." Henry Ward Becher referred to it as "the winged encyclopedia," and Chamberlain Dwyer has just characterized it as "the historian of the hour." Most people seem to regard it as the free park horse of the community—something that may be ridden at pleasure by every individual who has a selfish end to accomplish.—[Chico Enterprise.]

They know how to cure rheumatism in Pennsylvania. J. F. Meighan, a Pittsburg cigar dealer awoke one morning with an attack of rheumatism in his right arm.
Working around the store during the forenoon made it worse. By noon the pain was so severe that he could not hold his hand to his head and had to carry his arm in a sling. One of his customers, on learning the fact, persuaded the cigar dealer to try it. It eased the pain and reduced the swelling so that by the next morning he could use his arm and by the second morning was entirely well. This is only one of the many succeful cases of rheumatism that have been cured by this valuable remedy.
