

The grouse hoodeth for spring. Fine coffee, tea and spices at McConnell & Winters.

Anna Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, is losing her mind. Lew Johnson's minstrel troupe played the valley towns last week.

Circuit court for Josephine county convened at Grants Pass Monday.

Radium's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Keener's block, Ashland.

Do the republicans expect General Deffeny to lead them to victory? A hillarist uses chalk on his nose. A fine lady uses her hair curler.

Miller's bill to punish corporations for freight discrimination failed to become a law. Riley Morrison, of Etina, is entertaining his brother S. B., who is just down from Idaho.

During the last storm, Eugene raised over five feet above low water mark near Etina.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 618, Charleston, W. Va.

Medford's haute ton gave a calico ball at that place one evening last week which was a distinguished social success.

Mark Wintonham recently killed a gray eagle on Elk creek that measured eight feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Sir Chas. Dilke, who was retired to private life by a divorce scandal similar to Parnell's, is a candidate for parliament.

Lenox season. All kinds of fish at McConnell & Winters.

The Grand Central Hotel at Medford has discharged the Chinese cook and engaged the services of W. T. Prim, an experienced chef.

Rev. C. H. Wallace of Medford, the minister and preacher, has received a call from a church at Cottage Grove, and has gone thither.

Impeachment proceedings have been commenced against Judge Morris B. Smith, of Port Townsend. "Bucking the tiger" is the principal charge against him.

Hon. C. J. Howard, who has moved from Grants Pass to Medford, will go into the civil engineering and surveying business with his father, Postmaster J. S. Howard.

Dr. McAllister, of Albany, was a guest of D. T. Sears, Esq., at Medford recently, and delivered several lectures there. He is a universalist, and is said to be an excellent talker.

H. F. Wood, the scientific architect and contractor of Medford, will build the new branch railroad depot, his figures being $207. The company is sure of a good, honest job.

Will Yonns is quite ill at Jacksonville. Recently Chas. W. Walters, Peter Henderson and John F. Curry, officers of the Medford Knights of Pythias lodge, made him a visit.

A daughter blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Anderson, of Medford, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday. May she live to the glory of her father, the land, is the wish of their many friends.

Gen. Liah Applegate was in Medford on Wednesday. All heartily enjoyed seeing him and he was continually surrounded by an audience who desired both amusement and instruction.—Medford Mail.

Fred H. Rowe has fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of a relative. Fred is a hard working, industrious and enterprising citizen, and the "wind-fall" could not have fallen into more deserving hands.

Prof. Norwegen has sold his interest in the Rosedale farm at Toledo to his partner Henry Oliver, and has purchased ten acres of land at Medford, where he expects to take the principalship of the public school next year.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is no more potent in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else that is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh, and every ailment in the initial stages of these complaints. Cream Balm prevents the development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh, and all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. Hearn celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his residence in Yreka last Thursday. Out of his seventy-five years, of the '31 period now known to be living in the county, nine were present and took part in the festivities. An elegant repast was served by Mrs. McCarton, of which all partook, and the time was passed by pleasant reminiscences of the "early days." Those who took part in the celebration were as follows: A. J. Reynolds, A. E. Schwartz, John C. Burrows, W. W. Powers, Jacob Hansen, M. Sleeper, W. M. Bishop, L. Swan and Mrs. Hearn, not least, Dr. F. G. Hearn, Yreka Telegram.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but saw none of them seemed to do him any good. Finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that other similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain-Balm. It is for sale here at 30 cents per bottle by our druggists, Chittwood Bros.

The Washington legislature is reminding of some very peculiar fellows. During the senatorial struggle, a member named Metcalfe laid before the body a lot of bribe money he had received from Harry L. Clarke to vote for Galkins. The investigating committee exonerated the bribe giver, and thought Metcalfe should be looked upon as the world as a fool, and society will always have respect for a rascal like Clarke.

Congressman Hermann has written John B. Wisley that his bill providing for the settlement and payment of all claims for property lost by Indian depredations, such as for buildings burned or property taken, will soon become a law. Mr. Wisley, who has labored hard for the republican party for the last quarter of a century, would like to receive a letter from Hermann, Mitchell or Dolph in the first decent recognition of his manifold past services at a time when they are needed. It makes the Republic tired to see a republican join the democratic party and be given office all the remainder of his days and at the same time crowding out, faithful democratic citizens from enjoying the sweets of public recognition. But for rank invertebrate the republican party takes the whole cheese. In this country a handful of pup-suckers have for years been heaving everything that party ever laid its hands on, to the utter exclusion of honest and deserving members of that party.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Yonns, a prominent druggist of Newman and Nelson. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would lower and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last six days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 30 cents bottles for sale by Chittwood Bros., Druggists.

Settle Up. All those having unsettled accounts with the undersigned, will please call immediately and settle the same, either by cash or note. J. M. McCall.

The grouse hoodeth for spring. Fine coffee, tea and spices at McConnell & Winters.

Anna Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, is losing her mind. Lew Johnson's minstrel troupe played the valley towns last week.

Circuit court for Josephine county convened at Grants Pass Monday.

Radium's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Keener's block, Ashland.

Do the republicans expect General Deffeny to lead them to victory? A hillarist uses chalk on his nose. A fine lady uses her hair curler.

Miller's bill to punish corporations for freight discrimination failed to become a law. Riley Morrison, of Etina, is entertaining his brother S. B., who is just down from Idaho.

During the last storm, Eugene raised over five feet above low water mark near Etina.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 618, Charleston, W. Va.

Medford's haute ton gave a calico ball at that place one evening last week which was a distinguished social success.

Mark Wintonham recently killed a gray eagle on Elk creek that measured eight feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Sir Chas. Dilke, who was retired to private life by a divorce scandal similar to Parnell's, is a candidate for parliament.

Lenox season. All kinds of fish at McConnell & Winters.

The Grand Central Hotel at Medford has discharged the Chinese cook and engaged the services of W. T. Prim, an experienced chef.

Rev. C. H. Wallace of Medford, the minister and preacher, has received a call from a church at Cottage Grove, and has gone thither.

Impeachment proceedings have been commenced against Judge Morris B. Smith, of Port Townsend. "Bucking the tiger" is the principal charge against him.

Hon. C. J. Howard, who has moved from Grants Pass to Medford, will go into the civil engineering and surveying business with his father, Postmaster J. S. Howard.

Dr. McAllister, of Albany, was a guest of D. T. Sears, Esq., at Medford recently, and delivered several lectures there. He is a universalist, and is said to be an excellent talker.

H. F. Wood, the scientific architect and contractor of Medford, will build the new branch railroad depot, his figures being $207. The company is sure of a good, honest job.

Will Yonns is quite ill at Jacksonville. Recently Chas. W. Walters, Peter Henderson and John F. Curry, officers of the Medford Knights of Pythias lodge, made him a visit.

A daughter blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Anderson, of Medford, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday. May she live to the glory of her father, the land, is the wish of their many friends.

Gen. Liah Applegate was in Medford on Wednesday. All heartily enjoyed seeing him and he was continually surrounded by an audience who desired both amusement and instruction.—Medford Mail.

Fred H. Rowe has fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of a relative. Fred is a hard working, industrious and enterprising citizen, and the "wind-fall" could not have fallen into more deserving hands.

Prof. Norwegen has sold his interest in the Rosedale farm at Toledo to his partner Henry Oliver, and has purchased ten acres of land at Medford, where he expects to take the principalship of the public school next year.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is no more potent in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else that is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh, and every ailment in the initial stages of these complaints. Cream Balm prevents the development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh, and all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. Hearn celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his residence in Yreka last Thursday. Out of his seventy-five years, of the '31 period now known to be living in the county, nine were present and took part in the festivities. An elegant repast was served by Mrs. McCarton, of which all partook, and the time was passed by pleasant reminiscences of the "early days." Those who took part in the celebration were as follows: A. J. Reynolds, A. E. Schwartz, John C. Burrows, W. W. Powers, Jacob Hansen, M. Sleeper, W. M. Bishop, L. Swan and Mrs. Hearn, not least, Dr. F. G. Hearn, Yreka Telegram.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but saw none of them seemed to do him any good. Finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that other similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain-Balm. It is for sale here at 30 cents per bottle by our druggists, Chittwood Bros.

The Washington legislature is reminding of some very peculiar fellows. During the senatorial struggle, a member named Metcalfe laid before the body a lot of bribe money he had received from Harry L. Clarke to vote for Galkins. The investigating committee exonerated the bribe giver, and thought Metcalfe should be looked upon as the world as a fool, and society will always have respect for a rascal like Clarke.

Congressman Hermann has written John B. Wisley that his bill providing for the settlement and payment of all claims for property lost by Indian depredations, such as for buildings burned or property taken, will soon become a law. Mr. Wisley, who has labored hard for the republican party for the last quarter of a century, would like to receive a letter from Hermann, Mitchell or Dolph in the first decent recognition of his manifold past services at a time when they are needed. It makes the Republic tired to see a republican join the democratic party and be given office all the remainder of his days and at the same time crowding out, faithful democratic citizens from enjoying the sweets of public recognition. But for rank invertebrate the republican party takes the whole cheese. In this country a handful of pup-suckers have for years been heaving everything that party ever laid its hands on, to the utter exclusion of honest and deserving members of that party.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Yonns, a prominent druggist of Newman and Nelson. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would lower and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last six days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 30 cents bottles for sale by Chittwood Bros., Druggists.

Settle Up. All those having unsettled accounts with the undersigned, will please call immediately and settle the same, either by cash or note. J. M. McCall.

The grouse hoodeth for spring. Fine coffee, tea and spices at McConnell & Winters.

Anna Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, is losing her mind. Lew Johnson's minstrel troupe played the valley towns last week.

Circuit court for Josephine county convened at Grants Pass Monday.

Radium's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Keener's block, Ashland.

Do the republicans expect General Deffeny to lead them to victory? A hillarist uses chalk on his nose. A fine lady uses her hair curler.

Miller's bill to punish corporations for freight discrimination failed to become a law. Riley Morrison, of Etina, is entertaining his brother S. B., who is just down from Idaho.

During the last storm, Eugene raised over five feet above low water mark near Etina.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 618, Charleston, W. Va.

Medford's haute ton gave a calico ball at that place one evening last week which was a distinguished social success.

Mark Wintonham recently killed a gray eagle on Elk creek that measured eight feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Sir Chas. Dilke, who was retired to private life by a divorce scandal similar to Parnell's, is a candidate for parliament.

Lenox season. All kinds of fish at McConnell & Winters.

The Grand Central Hotel at Medford has discharged the Chinese cook and engaged the services of W. T. Prim, an experienced chef.

Rev. C. H. Wallace of Medford, the minister and preacher, has received a call from a church at Cottage Grove, and has gone thither.

Impeachment proceedings have been commenced against Judge Morris B. Smith, of Port Townsend. "Bucking the tiger" is the principal charge against him.

Hon. C. J. Howard, who has moved from Grants Pass to Medford, will go into the civil engineering and surveying business with his father, Postmaster J. S. Howard.

Dr. McAllister, of Albany, was a guest of D. T. Sears, Esq., at Medford recently, and delivered several lectures there. He is a universalist, and is said to be an excellent talker.

H. F. Wood, the scientific architect and contractor of Medford, will build the new branch railroad depot, his figures being $207. The company is sure of a good, honest job.

Will Yonns is quite ill at Jacksonville. Recently Chas. W. Walters, Peter Henderson and John F. Curry, officers of the Medford Knights of Pythias lodge, made him a visit.

A daughter blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Anderson, of Medford, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday. May she live to the glory of her father, the land, is the wish of their many friends.

Gen. Liah Applegate was in Medford on Wednesday. All heartily enjoyed seeing him and he was continually surrounded by an audience who desired both amusement and instruction.—Medford Mail.

Fred H. Rowe has fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of a relative. Fred is a hard working, industrious and enterprising citizen, and the "wind-fall" could not have fallen into more deserving hands.

Prof. Norwegen has sold his interest in the Rosedale farm at Toledo to his partner Henry Oliver, and has purchased ten acres of land at Medford, where he expects to take the principalship of the public school next year.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is no more potent in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else that is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh, and every ailment in the initial stages of these complaints. Cream Balm prevents the development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh, and all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. Hearn celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his residence in Yreka last Thursday. Out of his seventy-five years, of the '31 period now known to be living in the county, nine were present and took part in the festivities. An elegant repast was served by Mrs. McCarton, of which all partook, and the time was passed by pleasant reminiscences of the "early days." Those who took part in the celebration were as follows: A. J. Reynolds, A. E. Schwartz, John C. Burrows, W. W. Powers, Jacob Hansen, M. Sleeper, W. M. Bishop, L. Swan and Mrs. Hearn, not least, Dr. F. G. Hearn, Yreka Telegram.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but saw none of them seemed to do him any good. Finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that other similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain-Balm. It is for sale here at 30 cents per bottle by our druggists, Chittwood Bros.

The Washington legislature is reminding of some very peculiar fellows. During the senatorial struggle, a member named Metcalfe laid before the body a lot of bribe money he had received from Harry L. Clarke to vote for Galkins. The investigating committee exonerated the bribe giver, and thought Metcalfe should be looked upon as the world as a fool, and society will always have respect for a rascal like Clarke.

Congressman Hermann has written John B. Wisley that his bill providing for the settlement and payment of all claims for property lost by Indian depredations, such as for buildings burned or property taken, will soon become a law. Mr. Wisley, who has labored hard for the republican party for the last quarter of a century, would like to receive a letter from Hermann, Mitchell or Dolph in the first decent recognition of his manifold past services at a time when they are needed. It makes the Republic tired to see a republican join the democratic party and be given office all the remainder of his days and at the same time crowding out, faithful democratic citizens from enjoying the sweets of public recognition. But for rank invertebrate the republican party takes the whole cheese. In this country a handful of pup-suckers have for years been heaving everything that party ever laid its hands on, to the utter exclusion of honest and deserving members of that party.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Yonns, a prominent druggist of Newman and Nelson. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would lower and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last six days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 30 cents bottles for sale by Chittwood Bros., Druggists.

Settle Up. All those having unsettled accounts with the undersigned, will please call immediately and settle the same, either by cash or note. J. M. McCall.

The grouse hoodeth for spring. Fine coffee, tea and spices at McConnell & Winters.

Anna Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, is losing her mind. Lew Johnson's minstrel troupe played the valley towns last week.

Circuit court for Josephine county convened at Grants Pass Monday.

Radium's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Keener's block, Ashland.

Do the republicans expect General Deffeny to lead them to victory? A hillarist uses chalk on his nose. A fine lady uses her hair curler.

Miller's bill to punish corporations for freight discrimination failed to become a law. Riley Morrison, of Etina, is entertaining his brother S. B., who is just down from Idaho.

During the last storm, Eugene raised over five feet above low water mark near Etina.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 618, Charleston, W. Va.

Medford's haute ton gave a calico ball at that place one evening last week which was a distinguished social success.

Mark Wintonham recently killed a gray eagle on Elk creek that measured eight feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Sir Chas. Dilke, who was retired to private life by a divorce scandal similar to Parnell's, is a candidate for parliament.

Lenox season. All kinds of fish at McConnell & Winters.

The Grand Central Hotel at Medford has discharged the Chinese cook and engaged the services of W. T. Prim, an experienced chef.

Rev. C. H. Wallace of Medford, the minister and preacher, has received a call from a church at Cottage Grove, and has gone thither.

Impeachment proceedings have been commenced against Judge Morris B. Smith, of Port Townsend. "Bucking the tiger" is the principal charge against him.

Hon. C. J. Howard, who has moved from Grants Pass to Medford, will go into the civil engineering and surveying business with his father, Postmaster J. S. Howard.

Dr. McAllister, of Albany, was a guest of D. T. Sears, Esq., at Medford recently, and delivered several lectures there. He is a universalist, and is said to be an excellent talker.

H. F. Wood, the scientific architect and contractor of Medford, will build the new branch railroad depot, his figures being $207. The company is sure of a good, honest job.

Will Yonns is quite ill at Jacksonville. Recently Chas. W. Walters, Peter Henderson and John F. Curry, officers of the Medford Knights of Pythias lodge, made him a visit.

A daughter blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Anderson, of Medford, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday. May she live to the glory of her father, the land, is the wish of their many friends.

Gen. Liah Applegate was in Medford on Wednesday. All heartily enjoyed seeing him and he was continually surrounded by an audience who desired both amusement and instruction.—Medford Mail.

Fred H. Rowe has fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of a relative. Fred is a hard working, industrious and enterprising citizen, and the "wind-fall" could not have fallen into more deserving hands.

Prof. Norwegen has sold his interest in the Rosedale farm at Toledo to his partner Henry Oliver, and has purchased ten acres of land at Medford, where he expects to take the principalship of the public school next year.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is no more potent in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else that is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh, and every ailment in the initial stages of these complaints. Cream Balm prevents the development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh, and all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. Hearn celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his residence in Yreka last Thursday. Out of his seventy-five years, of the '31 period now known to be living in the county, nine were present and took part in the festivities. An elegant repast was served by Mrs. McCarton, of which all partook, and the time was passed by pleasant reminiscences of the "early days." Those who took part in the celebration were as follows: A. J. Reynolds, A. E. Schwartz, John C. Burrows, W. W. Powers, Jacob Hansen, M. Sleeper, W. M. Bishop, L. Swan and Mrs. Hearn, not least, Dr. F. G. Hearn, Yreka Telegram.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but saw none of them seemed to do him any good. Finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that other similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain-Balm. It is for sale here at 30 cents per bottle by our druggists, Chittwood Bros.

The Washington legislature is reminding of some very peculiar fellows. During the senatorial struggle, a member named Metcalfe laid before the body a lot of bribe money he had received from Harry L. Clarke to vote for Galkins. The investigating committee exonerated the bribe giver, and thought Metcalfe should be looked upon as the world as a fool, and society will always have respect for a rascal like Clarke.

Congressman Hermann has written John B. Wisley that his bill providing for the settlement and payment of all claims for property lost by Indian depredations, such as for buildings burned or property taken, will soon become a law. Mr. Wisley, who has labored hard for the republican party for the last quarter of a century, would like to receive a letter from Hermann, Mitchell or Dolph in the first decent recognition of his manifold past services at a time when they are needed. It makes the Republic tired to see a republican join the democratic party and be given office all the remainder of his days and at the same time crowding out, faithful democratic citizens from enjoying the sweets of public recognition. But for rank invertebrate the republican party takes the whole cheese. In this country a handful of pup-suckers have for years been heaving everything that party ever laid its hands on, to the utter exclusion of honest and deserving members of that party.

"One of my customers came in today and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Yonns, a prominent druggist of Newman and Nelson. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would lower and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that remedy does. I have sold four dozen of it within the last six days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 30 cents bottles for sale by Chittwood Bros., Druggists.

Settle Up. All those having unsettled accounts with the undersigned, will please call immediately and settle the same, either by cash or note. J. M. McCall.

The grouse hoodeth for spring. Fine coffee, tea and spices at McConnell & Winters.

Anna Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, is losing her mind. Lew Johnson's minstrel troupe played the valley towns last week.

Circuit court for Josephine county convened at Grants Pass Monday.

Radium's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Keener's block, Ashland.

Do the republicans expect General Deffeny to lead them to victory? A hillarist uses chalk on his nose. A fine lady uses her hair curler.

Miller's bill to punish corporations for freight discrimination failed to become a law. Riley Morrison, of Etina, is entertaining his brother S. B., who is just down from Idaho.

During the last storm, Eugene raised over five feet above low water mark near Etina.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 618, Charleston, W. Va.

Medford's haute ton gave a calico ball at that place one evening last week which was a distinguished social success.

Mark Wintonham recently killed a gray eagle on Elk creek that measured eight feet eight inches from tip to tip.

Sir Chas. Dilke, who was retired to private life by a divorce scandal similar to Parnell's, is a candidate for parliament.

Lenox season. All kinds of fish at McConnell & Winters.

The Grand Central Hotel at Medford has discharged the Chinese cook and engaged the services of W. T. Prim, an experienced chef.

Rev. C. H. Wallace of Medford, the minister and preacher, has received a call from a church at Cottage Grove, and has gone thither.

Impeachment proceedings have been commenced against Judge Morris B. Smith, of Port Townsend. "Bucking the tiger" is the principal charge against him.

Hon. C. J. Howard, who has moved from Grants Pass to Medford, will go into the civil engineering and surveying business with his father, Postmaster J. S. Howard.

Dr. McAllister, of Albany, was a guest of D. T. Sears, Esq., at Medford recently, and delivered several lectures there. He is a universalist, and is said to be an excellent talker.

H. F. Wood, the scientific architect and contractor of Medford, will build the new branch railroad depot, his figures being $207. The company is sure of a good, honest job.

Will Yonns is quite ill at Jacksonville. Recently Chas. W. Walters, Peter Henderson and John F. Curry, officers of the Medford Knights of Pythias lodge, made him a visit.

A daughter blessed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Anderson, of Medford, on Feb. 22nd, Washington's birthday. May she live to the glory of her father, the land, is the wish of their many friends.

Gen. Liah Applegate was in Medford on Wednesday. All heartily enjoyed seeing him and he was continually surrounded by an audience who desired both amusement and instruction.—Medford Mail.

Fred H. Rowe has fallen heir to a considerable fortune by the death of a relative. Fred is a hard working, industrious and enterprising citizen, and the "wind-fall" could not have fallen into more deserving hands.

Prof. Norwegen has sold his interest in the Rosedale farm at Toledo to his partner Henry Oliver, and has purchased ten acres of land at Medford, where he expects to take the principalship of the public school next year.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is no more potent in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else that is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh, and every ailment in the initial stages of these complaints. Cream Balm prevents the development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh, and all other modes of treatment have failed.

Dr. Hearn celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his residence in Yreka last Thursday. Out of his seventy-five years, of the '31 period now known to be living in the county, nine were present and took part in the festivities. An elegant repast was served by Mrs. McCarton, of which all partook, and the time was passed by pleasant reminiscences of the "early days." Those who took part in the celebration were as follows: A. J. Reynolds, A. E