

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. G. D. Emporium.

Miss Lucinda Shideler of Medford is visiting at Cole's, Cal.

Linsey Sismore is home from the Portland business college.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Bloom's.

Peter Henderson has located at Salem and purchased a barber shop.

Ashland will pick feathers from the big bird's tail on the glorious 4th.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

Ira Purdin is clerking in S. Rosenthal's clothing establishment at Medford.

If the Prince of Wales ever becomes king, in the opinion of many he's going to be a trump.

The Courier says D. H. Burroughs has left Grants Pass and his address is unknown.

Hert Whitman of Medford is engaging the fruit crop to be shipped from that station.

D. T. Lawson now has charge of the Mitchell-Lewis implement house at Medford.

John A. Hanley has shipped in 1,000 head of sheep, which he bought in Douglas county.

G. H. Jones of Tolo is buying up chickens in that end of the county, for shipment abroad.

W. P. Miller, the Klamath cattle man, stopped off in the valley recently, while en route to Portland.

T. F. Attebery and son Henry, of Beaville, have gone to Butte county, Cal., with five head of horses.

Several wagons have come over the Ft. Klamath-Rogue river road. There is still some snow on the divide.

Hon. Chas. Hughes and J. D. Glidden represented the Kerbyville lodge in the Masonic convention at Portland.

Mrs. Bessie Baling of Seattle is home to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Hooper of Astoria.

J. H. Storey of Galla creek has a fine garden and the other day picked three strawberries that weighed 4 1/2 ounces.

J. E. Swinder was married to Miss Lucie Kuhl at the residence of the bride's parents on Appleton street.

Chas. Prim and J. H. Huffer, Jr., have been admitted to the bar. Mr. Prim will practice with his father, Judge P. P. Prim.

It is Chas. W. Walters and not Ed. Workman and Frank Galloway who is on H. B. Reed's bond, as mentioned recently.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

F. D. Rowe, administrator of the estate of Inis Elliot, sold his timber land claim on Rogue river to J. C. Solstrom for $500.

Geo. W. Mitchell is acting as W. K. F. express vice-president. Tom Wright, injured at the train ditching in Shasta county last week.

The railroad company makes a reduction of two-thirds on return fare to those attending the football camp meeting at the fair grounds.

H. Trullitt, the popular host of the Shovel creek springs hotel, is a fine violinist and is to give a 4th of July ball in his new quarters.

Timber land speculators will keep their eyes peeled for July 3d, when the sheriff of Jackson county will sell 18 timber claims in Jenny creek section for taxes.

Hon. John A. Fairchild, the State Sen., Cal., stockman, has just graduated in one of the leading colleges of California.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. G. store.

P. A. Getz, principal, and Misses Fobes, Colburn, Ewan, McKinley, Reynolds and Oink have been re-elected as teachers in the Ashland public schools the coming year.

Dr. Minkle and Dr. Terry of Central Point attended the state pharmaceutical convention at Portland last week. Dr. Terry has put in a drug store at the Point.

Peter Applegate has commenced his medical land survey, with Albert Fankoy, Martin Applegate, Peter Applegate, Marcus Rowe and J. S. Brown as assistants.

F. Heck, an experienced barrel maker, has moved to Gold Hill from Portland with his family. He is engaged making barrels for the Gold Hill Lime Co. and averages 40 barrels per day.

People who think Philadelphians are a slow, old fogey lot, have not been reading the way several dignified gentlemen have been behaving of late. Vines don't grow up the legs of the average Rocky City politician or banker.

E. J. DeHart and W. A. Buchanan, the proprietors of the R. R. V. R. R., were out from Portland last week and examined the route of the proposed extension to Eagle Point, also viewing the Applegate section of country.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure. -B. F. M., reeks, Denver.

Jacksonville is to make the American eagle screen on the 4th. Geo. E. Bloomer, C. S. Price, Chas. Nickell, L. L. Jacobs and D. Cronmuller are the enterprising executive committee who have the celebration in charge.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.30 per pair, at O. H. Bloom's.

Hose Co. No. 3 has elected the following officers: Oley Thornton, president; Matt Potter, vice-president; Roscoe Potter, foreman; Guy Stone, assistant foreman; Frank Hammond, secretary; Tom Chapman, treasurer; Albert Roach, sergeant-at-arms.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. G. Co. store.

Strange to say, President Harrison's son's name in his mother's name is Harrison, administration is what President Harrison has given the people." Had this come from any other source we wouldn't have believed it. But Russell "is in a position to know."

Nadams' Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Roscoe's block, Ashland.

Grants Pass Courier: W. H. Heald, government bank examiner for Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho, called upon the First National Bank of Southern Oregon Saturday and complimented Cashier R. A. Booth very highly in the way he was handling the affairs of the bank.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Bloom's.

The report supposed to have been started by President Harrison's boy regarding Mr. Blaine's falling into the well calls the famous remark of President Lincoln when somebody told him that General Grant was frequently under the influence of liquor. "All that Mr. Lincoln desired to know was where General Grant got his whiskey. He wanted to introduce it among the other generals."

Are you married? If not, send your address to the American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 613, Clarksville, W. Va.

There are no new developments in the mines. Jillson & Co. are cleaning up with good returns. Capt. Wilbourn has two men driving his tunnel in blue gravel by contract. Clary & Smith are cleaning up their ground in Rocky gulch, where they struck off this spring, but can't give the result yet. A Harvey has a crew of men working on his big reservoir which, when completed, will cover about three acres of ground. -Hornbrook cor, Siskiyou Telegram.

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. G. D. Emporium.

Miss Lucinda Shideler of Medford is visiting at Cole's, Cal.

Linsey Sismore is home from the Portland business college.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Bloom's.

Peter Henderson has located at Salem and purchased a barber shop.

Ashland will pick feathers from the big bird's tail on the glorious 4th.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

Ira Purdin is clerking in S. Rosenthal's clothing establishment at Medford.

If the Prince of Wales ever becomes king, in the opinion of many he's going to be a trump.

The Courier says D. H. Burroughs has left Grants Pass and his address is unknown.

Hert Whitman of Medford is engaging the fruit crop to be shipped from that station.

D. T. Lawson now has charge of the Mitchell-Lewis implement house at Medford.

John A. Hanley has shipped in 1,000 head of sheep, which he bought in Douglas county.

G. H. Jones of Tolo is buying up chickens in that end of the county, for shipment abroad.

W. P. Miller, the Klamath cattle man, stopped off in the valley recently, while en route to Portland.

T. F. Attebery and son Henry, of Beaville, have gone to Butte county, Cal., with five head of horses.

Several wagons have come over the Ft. Klamath-Rogue river road. There is still some snow on the divide.

Hon. Chas. Hughes and J. D. Glidden represented the Kerbyville lodge in the Masonic convention at Portland.

Mrs. Bessie Baling of Seattle is home to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Hooper of Astoria.

J. H. Storey of Galla creek has a fine garden and the other day picked three strawberries that weighed 4 1/2 ounces.

J. E. Swinder was married to Miss Lucie Kuhl at the residence of the bride's parents on Appleton street.

Chas. Prim and J. H. Huffer, Jr., have been admitted to the bar. Mr. Prim will practice with his father, Judge P. P. Prim.

It is Chas. W. Walters and not Ed. Workman and Frank Galloway who is on H. B. Reed's bond, as mentioned recently.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

F. D. Rowe, administrator of the estate of Inis Elliot, sold his timber land claim on Rogue river to J. C. Solstrom for $500.

Geo. W. Mitchell is acting as W. K. F. express vice-president. Tom Wright, injured at the train ditching in Shasta county last week.

The railroad company makes a reduction of two-thirds on return fare to those attending the football camp meeting at the fair grounds.

H. Trullitt, the popular host of the Shovel creek springs hotel, is a fine violinist and is to give a 4th of July ball in his new quarters.

Timber land speculators will keep their eyes peeled for July 3d, when the sheriff of Jackson county will sell 18 timber claims in Jenny creek section for taxes.

Hon. John A. Fairchild, the State Sen., Cal., stockman, has just graduated in one of the leading colleges of California.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. G. store.

P. A. Getz, principal, and Misses Fobes, Colburn, Ewan, McKinley, Reynolds and Oink have been re-elected as teachers in the Ashland public schools the coming year.

Dr. Minkle and Dr. Terry of Central Point attended the state pharmaceutical convention at Portland last week. Dr. Terry has put in a drug store at the Point.

Peter Applegate has commenced his medical land survey, with Albert Fankoy, Martin Applegate, Peter Applegate, Marcus Rowe and J. S. Brown as assistants.

F. Heck, an experienced barrel maker, has moved to Gold Hill from Portland with his family. He is engaged making barrels for the Gold Hill Lime Co. and averages 40 barrels per day.

People who think Philadelphians are a slow, old fogey lot, have not been reading the way several dignified gentlemen have been behaving of late. Vines don't grow up the legs of the average Rocky City politician or banker.

E. J. DeHart and W. A. Buchanan, the proprietors of the R. R. V. R. R., were out from Portland last week and examined the route of the proposed extension to Eagle Point, also viewing the Applegate section of country.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure. -B. F. M., reeks, Denver.

Jacksonville is to make the American eagle screen on the 4th. Geo. E. Bloomer, C. S. Price, Chas. Nickell, L. L. Jacobs and D. Cronmuller are the enterprising executive committee who have the celebration in charge.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.30 per pair, at O. H. Bloom's.

Hose Co. No. 3 has elected the following officers: Oley Thornton, president; Matt Potter, vice-president; Roscoe Potter, foreman; Guy Stone, assistant foreman; Frank Hammond, secretary; Tom Chapman, treasurer; Albert Roach, sergeant-at-arms.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. G. Co. store.

Strange to say, President Harrison's son's name in his mother's name is Harrison, administration is what President Harrison has given the people." Had this come from any other source we wouldn't have believed it. But Russell "is in a position to know."

Nadams' Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Roscoe's block, Ashland.

Grants Pass Courier: W. H. Heald, government bank examiner for Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho, called upon the First National Bank of Southern Oregon Saturday and complimented Cashier R. A. Booth very highly in the way he was handling the affairs of the bank.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Bloom's.

The report supposed to have been started by President Harrison's boy regarding Mr. Blaine's falling into the well calls the famous remark of President Lincoln when somebody told him that General Grant was frequently under the influence of liquor. "All that Mr. Lincoln desired to know was where General Grant got his whiskey. He wanted to introduce it among the other generals."

Are you married? If not, send your address to the American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 613, Clarksville, W. Va.

There are no new developments in the mines. Jillson & Co. are cleaning up with good returns. Capt. Wilbourn has two men driving his tunnel in blue gravel by contract. Clary & Smith are cleaning up their ground in Rocky gulch, where they struck off this spring, but can't give the result yet. A Harvey has a crew of men working on his big reservoir which, when completed, will cover about three acres of ground. -Hornbrook cor, Siskiyou Telegram.

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. G. D. Emporium.

Miss Lucinda Shideler of Medford is visiting at Cole's, Cal.

Linsey Sismore is home from the Portland business college.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Bloom's.

Peter Henderson has located at Salem and purchased a barber shop.

Ashland will pick feathers from the big bird's tail on the glorious 4th.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

Ira Purdin is clerking in S. Rosenthal's clothing establishment at Medford.

If the Prince of Wales ever becomes king, in the opinion of many he's going to be a trump.

The Courier says D. H. Burroughs has left Grants Pass and his address is unknown.

Hert Whitman of Medford is engaging the fruit crop to be shipped from that station.

D. T. Lawson now has charge of the Mitchell-Lewis implement house at Medford.

John A. Hanley has shipped in 1,000 head of sheep, which he bought in Douglas county.

G. H. Jones of Tolo is buying up chickens in that end of the county, for shipment abroad.

W. P. Miller, the Klamath cattle man, stopped off in the valley recently, while en route to Portland.

T. F. Attebery and son Henry, of Beaville, have gone to Butte county, Cal., with five head of horses.

Several wagons have come over the Ft. Klamath-Rogue river road. There is still some snow on the divide.

Hon. Chas. Hughes and J. D. Glidden represented the Kerbyville lodge in the Masonic convention at Portland.

Mrs. Bessie Baling of Seattle is home to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Hooper of Astoria.

J. H. Storey of Galla creek has a fine garden and the other day picked three strawberries that weighed 4 1/2 ounces.

J. E. Swinder was married to Miss Lucie Kuhl at the residence of the bride's parents on Appleton street.

Chas. Prim and J. H. Huffer, Jr., have been admitted to the bar. Mr. Prim will practice with his father, Judge P. P. Prim.

It is Chas. W. Walters and not Ed. Workman and Frank Galloway who is on H. B. Reed's bond, as mentioned recently.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

F. D. Rowe, administrator of the estate of Inis Elliot, sold his timber land claim on Rogue river to J. C. Solstrom for $500.

Geo. W. Mitchell is acting as W. K. F. express vice-president. Tom Wright, injured at the train ditching in Shasta county last week.

The railroad company makes a reduction of two-thirds on return fare to those attending the football camp meeting at the fair grounds.

H. Trullitt, the popular host of the Shovel creek springs hotel, is a fine violinist and is to give a 4th of July ball in his new quarters.

Timber land speculators will keep their eyes peeled for July 3d, when the sheriff of Jackson county will sell 18 timber claims in Jenny creek section for taxes.

Hon. John A. Fairchild, the State Sen., Cal., stockman, has just graduated in one of the leading colleges of California.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. G. store.

P. A. Getz, principal, and Misses Fobes, Colburn, Ewan, McKinley, Reynolds and Oink have been re-elected as teachers in the Ashland public schools the coming year.

Dr. Minkle and Dr. Terry of Central Point attended the state pharmaceutical convention at Portland last week. Dr. Terry has put in a drug store at the Point.

Peter Applegate has commenced his medical land survey, with Albert Fankoy, Martin Applegate, Peter Applegate, Marcus Rowe and J. S. Brown as assistants.

F. Heck, an experienced barrel maker, has moved to Gold Hill from Portland with his family. He is engaged making barrels for the Gold Hill Lime Co. and averages 40 barrels per day.

People who think Philadelphians are a slow, old fogey lot, have not been reading the way several dignified gentlemen have been behaving of late. Vines don't grow up the legs of the average Rocky City politician or banker.

E. J. DeHart and W. A. Buchanan, the proprietors of the R. R. V. R. R., were out from Portland last week and examined the route of the proposed extension to Eagle Point, also viewing the Applegate section of country.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure. -B. F. M., reeks, Denver.

Jacksonville is to make the American eagle screen on the 4th. Geo. E. Bloomer, C. S. Price, Chas. Nickell, L. L. Jacobs and D. Cronmuller are the enterprising executive committee who have the celebration in charge.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.30 per pair, at O. H. Bloom's.

Hose Co. No. 3 has elected the following officers: Oley Thornton, president; Matt Potter, vice-president; Roscoe Potter, foreman; Guy Stone, assistant foreman; Frank Hammond, secretary; Tom Chapman, treasurer; Albert Roach, sergeant-at-arms.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. G. Co. store.

Strange to say, President Harrison's son's name in his mother's name is Harrison, administration is what President Harrison has given the people." Had this come from any other source we wouldn't have believed it. But Russell "is in a position to know."

Nadams' Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Roscoe's block, Ashland.

Grants Pass Courier: W. H. Heald, government bank examiner for Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho, called upon the First National Bank of Southern Oregon Saturday and complimented Cashier R. A. Booth very highly in the way he was handling the affairs of the bank.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Bloom's.

The report supposed to have been started by President Harrison's boy regarding Mr. Blaine's falling into the well calls the famous remark of President Lincoln when somebody told him that General Grant was frequently under the influence of liquor. "All that Mr. Lincoln desired to know was where General Grant got his whiskey. He wanted to introduce it among the other generals."

Are you married? If not, send your address to the American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 613, Clarksville, W. Va.

There are no new developments in the mines. Jillson & Co. are cleaning up with good returns. Capt. Wilbourn has two men driving his tunnel in blue gravel by contract. Clary & Smith are cleaning up their ground in Rocky gulch, where they struck off this spring, but can't give the result yet. A Harvey has a crew of men working on his big reservoir which, when completed, will cover about three acres of ground. -Hornbrook cor, Siskiyou Telegram.

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. G. D. Emporium.

Miss Lucinda Shideler of Medford is visiting at Cole's, Cal.

Linsey Sismore is home from the Portland business college.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Bloom's.

Peter Henderson has located at Salem and purchased a barber shop.

Ashland will pick feathers from the big bird's tail on the glorious 4th.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

Ira Purdin is clerking in S. Rosenthal's clothing establishment at Medford.

If the Prince of Wales ever becomes king, in the opinion of many he's going to be a trump.

The Courier says D. H. Burroughs has left Grants Pass and his address is unknown.

Hert Whitman of Medford is engaging the fruit crop to be shipped from that station.

D. T. Lawson now has charge of the Mitchell-Lewis implement house at Medford.

John A. Hanley has shipped in 1,000 head of sheep, which he bought in Douglas county.

G. H. Jones of Tolo is buying up chickens in that end of the county, for shipment abroad.

W. P. Miller, the Klamath cattle man, stopped off in the valley recently, while en route to Portland.

T. F. Attebery and son Henry, of Beaville, have gone to Butte county, Cal., with five head of horses.

Several wagons have come over the Ft. Klamath-Rogue river road. There is still some snow on the divide.

Hon. Chas. Hughes and J. D. Glidden represented the Kerbyville lodge in the Masonic convention at Portland.

Mrs. Bessie Baling of Seattle is home to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Hooper of Astoria.

J. H. Storey of Galla creek has a fine garden and the other day picked three strawberries that weighed 4 1/2 ounces.

J. E. Swinder was married to Miss Lucie Kuhl at the residence of the bride's parents on Appleton street.

Chas. Prim and J. H. Huffer, Jr., have been admitted to the bar. Mr. Prim will practice with his father, Judge P. P. Prim.

It is Chas. W. Walters and not Ed. Workman and Frank Galloway who is on H. B. Reed's bond, as mentioned recently.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

F. D. Rowe, administrator of the estate of Inis Elliot, sold his timber land claim on Rogue river to J. C. Solstrom for $500.

Geo. W. Mitchell is acting as W. K. F. express vice-president. Tom Wright, injured at the train ditching in Shasta county last week.

The railroad company makes a reduction of two-thirds on return fare to those attending the football camp meeting at the fair grounds.

H. Trullitt, the popular host of the Shovel creek springs hotel, is a fine violinist and is to give a 4th of July ball in his new quarters.

Timber land speculators will keep their eyes peeled for July 3d, when the sheriff of Jackson county will sell 18 timber claims in Jenny creek section for taxes.

Hon. John A. Fairchild, the State Sen., Cal., stockman, has just graduated in one of the leading colleges of California.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. G. store.

P. A. Getz, principal, and Misses Fobes, Colburn, Ewan, McKinley, Reynolds and Oink have been re-elected as teachers in the Ashland public schools the coming year.

Dr. Minkle and Dr. Terry of Central Point attended the state pharmaceutical convention at Portland last week. Dr. Terry has put in a drug store at the Point.

Peter Applegate has commenced his medical land survey, with Albert Fankoy, Martin Applegate, Peter Applegate, Marcus Rowe and J. S. Brown as assistants.

F. Heck, an experienced barrel maker, has moved to Gold Hill from Portland with his family. He is engaged making barrels for the Gold Hill Lime Co. and averages 40 barrels per day.

People who think Philadelphians are a slow, old fogey lot, have not been reading the way several dignified gentlemen have been behaving of late. Vines don't grow up the legs of the average Rocky City politician or banker.

E. J. DeHart and W. A. Buchanan, the proprietors of the R. R. V. R. R., were out from Portland last week and examined the route of the proposed extension to Eagle Point, also viewing the Applegate section of country.

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure. -B. F. M., reeks, Denver.

Jacksonville is to make the American eagle screen on the 4th. Geo. E. Bloomer, C. S. Price, Chas. Nickell, L. L. Jacobs and D. Cronmuller are the enterprising executive committee who have the celebration in charge.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.30 per pair, at O. H. Bloom's.

Hose Co. No. 3 has elected the following officers: Oley Thornton, president; Matt Potter, vice-president; Roscoe Potter, foreman; Guy Stone, assistant foreman; Frank Hammond, secretary; Tom Chapman, treasurer; Albert Roach, sergeant-at-arms.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. G. Co. store.