

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. O. D. Emporium.

Rev. Aldridge is attending a camp-meeting at Cottage Grove.

Roseburg city assessment shows $300,000 above all indebtedness.

Miss Mary Waite has returned to Medford from school at Portland.

J. A. Gross, the Albany hotel man, went to Shovel creek Monday.

Mrs. Ipa Phelps and infant of Halsey, are visiting relatives in Medford.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway grazes at Milton, Umatilla county, on the 4th.

J. M. Luark returned Monday from a business trip to Eastern Washington.

Siskiyou county people are tuning their harps to the blue gravel chorus.

John Olwell, who has been attending a college at Portland, is home.

Talent is growing. There is talk of a great mill being constructed this summer.

F. H. Anterieri, who has been as far as Roseburg, returned Monday to Yreka.

Dr. Hearn, the pioneer dentist of Yreka, is paying Hornbrook a professional visit.

Robert Gaskin is behind the counter of G. H. Hallow's drug store at Medford.

Phil Reams is the manager of the Idaho Stage Co.'s new line from Roseburg to Coos Bay.

Judge Hanna, Judge Neil and Judge Webster returned last Thursday from Linkville.

Sherman Stanley in Ashland last week, took back to Linkville with him a load of fruit.

A. J. Barlow and family and Mrs. B.'s mother are again at Gold Hill running the hotel there.

Mrs. Fred Fradenberg was called to Henley, Cal., last week by the dangerous illness of her mother.

Prof. Getz and family and Miss Nellie Ewan are attending the state teachers' association at Rock Point.

A son was born to the wife of S. C. Singletary in Linn county recently. They formerly resided at Rock Point.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 68, Clarkburg, W. Va.

J. K. Green, formerly of Central Point, who was taken ill in Tulare county, is in the insane asylum at Napa, Cal.

The News says Tom Scott has completed a load of brick and residence at Central Point for himself and family.

The Ochoco Review reports a snow snap in Crook county where snow fell to the depth of twelve inches in a few minutes.

The News says the S. P. talks of building a dining room at Burns and make that place an eating station in place of Sisson.

Wm. Bybee has purchased a Cyclone thrasher manufactured at Massillon, Ohio, and it is said to be an immense machine.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

J. D. Whitman has resigned as agricultural commissioner from this district. Gov. Penney will have to appoint a successor.

O. F. Hunt, a carpenter formerly of Gold Hill, was seriously injured by falling from a scaffold on a building at Sisson City, Iowa.

W. L. Waver and wife are visiting various places in the Northwest. Mr. V. is a delegate to the A. O. U. W. convention at Victoria, B. C.

J. E. Theiss, who was injured at the distillery two weeks ago, by the lid of the still falling on his ankle, is able to be about again.—Medford Mail.

Radan's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Reeser's block, Ashland.

Wm. Mayfield of The Meadows has found a ledge of some very heavy ore which he thinks rich silver lead. It is being tested in San Francisco.

W. H. Reed, a swindling timber land cruiser under indictment and who broke out of jail at Eugene a year ago, has been captured and is again in the kils.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Blount's.

On July 3d and July 4th until noon the Southern Pacific will sell round-trip tickets of 150 miles or less for one fare and good for the return to the 6th. No tickets sold for less than 50 cents.

A tract of 800 acres of land known as the Hopwood place on Evans creek has been sold to W. D. Moody and S. G. Webster of Big Rapids, Okla. It will be subdivided and sold in small tracts.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

William Curtis of Tillamook county, was killed June 17, by a vicious stallion. When found the horse was on his knees, tearing the man to pieces, and had already eaten a part of his body.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. O. store.

Charley Howard has been in the city for several days. He is to be one of the witnesses in the case of the O. & C. vs. Jackson for cutting railroad timber at Myrtle creek. The case comes off at Roseburg next week.—Mail.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.50 per pair, at O. H. Blount's.

Tony Neltner made his last run out of Ashland Sunday as a railroad postal clerk, having resigned to commence work on his father's Daily and Weekly Dispatch at Portland. His numerous friends here wish him and the paper success.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. O. store.

J. H. Slettenier, the enterprising Woodburn nurseryman, is erecting an elegant $3000 residence at his home. With such a residence, surrounded by those magnificent walnut trees, Mr. Slettenier will have one of the loveliest homes in the state.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Blount's.

Henry Goodlow made many solid friends while lying in jail here. Always patient, gentlemanly in demeanor and anxious to better himself, he was the study of common-sense books and writing. He created the sort of sympathy that can feel for his unfortunate fellow-man.—Linkville Star.

Antient the talk that is being made by the republicans about carrying New York next November, a remark of Governor Hill is very apt. When told of the confident talk of the republicans leader he dryly said: "Yes, they always carry New York next June to August, and the democrats carry it in November."

Liverpool salt to be had cheap in large quantities at the C. O. store, Crocker building.

Over in Coos county, says the Salem Statesman, a business man was kicking to one of the mail contractors on the route from Roseburg to Coos county about the slowness and irregularity of the mails. The contractor replied that if the people knew of the difficulties of the mail contractors they would not kick so much. "Why," he said, "they send letters through the mails!" referring, of course, to the small trees sent by the nurserymen, but making it appear that they were full-grown fir trees. "Well, if they do," was the kicker's rejoinder, "they are seeds when they leave Roseburg!"

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. O. D. Emporium.

Rev. Aldridge is attending a camp-meeting at Cottage Grove.

Roseburg city assessment shows $300,000 above all indebtedness.

Miss Mary Waite has returned to Medford from school at Portland.

J. A. Gross, the Albany hotel man, went to Shovel creek Monday.

Mrs. Ipa Phelps and infant of Halsey, are visiting relatives in Medford.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway grazes at Milton, Umatilla county, on the 4th.

J. M. Luark returned Monday from a business trip to Eastern Washington.

Siskiyou county people are tuning their harps to the blue gravel chorus.

John Olwell, who has been attending a college at Portland, is home.

Talent is growing. There is talk of a great mill being constructed this summer.

F. H. Anterieri, who has been as far as Roseburg, returned Monday to Yreka.

Dr. Hearn, the pioneer dentist of Yreka, is paying Hornbrook a professional visit.

Robert Gaskin is behind the counter of G. H. Hallow's drug store at Medford.

Phil Reams is the manager of the Idaho Stage Co.'s new line from Roseburg to Coos Bay.

Judge Hanna, Judge Neil and Judge Webster returned last Thursday from Linkville.

Sherman Stanley in Ashland last week, took back to Linkville with him a load of fruit.

A. J. Barlow and family and Mrs. B.'s mother are again at Gold Hill running the hotel there.

Mrs. Fred Fradenberg was called to Henley, Cal., last week by the dangerous illness of her mother.

Prof. Getz and family and Miss Nellie Ewan are attending the state teachers' association at Rock Point.

A son was born to the wife of S. C. Singletary in Linn county recently. They formerly resided at Rock Point.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 68, Clarkburg, W. Va.

J. K. Green, formerly of Central Point, who was taken ill in Tulare county, is in the insane asylum at Napa, Cal.

The News says Tom Scott has completed a load of brick and residence at Central Point for himself and family.

The Ochoco Review reports a snow snap in Crook county where snow fell to the depth of twelve inches in a few minutes.

The News says the S. P. talks of building a dining room at Burns and make that place an eating station in place of Sisson.

Wm. Bybee has purchased a Cyclone thrasher manufactured at Massillon, Ohio, and it is said to be an immense machine.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

J. D. Whitman has resigned as agricultural commissioner from this district. Gov. Penney will have to appoint a successor.

O. F. Hunt, a carpenter formerly of Gold Hill, was seriously injured by falling from a scaffold on a building at Sisson City, Iowa.

W. L. Waver and wife are visiting various places in the Northwest. Mr. V. is a delegate to the A. O. U. W. convention at Victoria, B. C.

J. E. Theiss, who was injured at the distillery two weeks ago, by the lid of the still falling on his ankle, is able to be about again.—Medford Mail.

Radan's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Reeser's block, Ashland.

Wm. Mayfield of The Meadows has found a ledge of some very heavy ore which he thinks rich silver lead. It is being tested in San Francisco.

W. H. Reed, a swindling timber land cruiser under indictment and who broke out of jail at Eugene a year ago, has been captured and is again in the kils.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Blount's.

On July 3d and July 4th until noon the Southern Pacific will sell round-trip tickets of 150 miles or less for one fare and good for the return to the 6th. No tickets sold for less than 50 cents.

A tract of 800 acres of land known as the Hopwood place on Evans creek has been sold to W. D. Moody and S. G. Webster of Big Rapids, Okla. It will be subdivided and sold in small tracts.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

William Curtis of Tillamook county, was killed June 17, by a vicious stallion. When found the horse was on his knees, tearing the man to pieces, and had already eaten a part of his body.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. O. store.

Charley Howard has been in the city for several days. He is to be one of the witnesses in the case of the O. & C. vs. Jackson for cutting railroad timber at Myrtle creek. The case comes off at Roseburg next week.—Mail.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.50 per pair, at O. H. Blount's.

Tony Neltner made his last run out of Ashland Sunday as a railroad postal clerk, having resigned to commence work on his father's Daily and Weekly Dispatch at Portland. His numerous friends here wish him and the paper success.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. O. store.

J. H. Slettenier, the enterprising Woodburn nurseryman, is erecting an elegant $3000 residence at his home. With such a residence, surrounded by those magnificent walnut trees, Mr. Slettenier will have one of the loveliest homes in the state.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Blount's.

Henry Goodlow made many solid friends while lying in jail here. Always patient, gentlemanly in demeanor and anxious to better himself, he was the study of common-sense books and writing. He created the sort of sympathy that can feel for his unfortunate fellow-man.—Linkville Star.

Antient the talk that is being made by the republicans about carrying New York next November, a remark of Governor Hill is very apt. When told of the confident talk of the republicans leader he dryly said: "Yes, they always carry New York next June to August, and the democrats carry it in November."

Liverpool salt to be had cheap in large quantities at the C. O. store, Crocker building.

Over in Coos county, says the Salem Statesman, a business man was kicking to one of the mail contractors on the route from Roseburg to Coos county about the slowness and irregularity of the mails. The contractor replied that if the people knew of the difficulties of the mail contractors they would not kick so much. "Why," he said, "they send letters through the mails!" referring, of course, to the small trees sent by the nurserymen, but making it appear that they were full-grown fir trees. "Well, if they do," was the kicker's rejoinder, "they are seeds when they leave Roseburg!"

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. O. D. Emporium.

Rev. Aldridge is attending a camp-meeting at Cottage Grove.

Roseburg city assessment shows $300,000 above all indebtedness.

Miss Mary Waite has returned to Medford from school at Portland.

J. A. Gross, the Albany hotel man, went to Shovel creek Monday.

Mrs. Ipa Phelps and infant of Halsey, are visiting relatives in Medford.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway grazes at Milton, Umatilla county, on the 4th.

J. M. Luark returned Monday from a business trip to Eastern Washington.

Siskiyou county people are tuning their harps to the blue gravel chorus.

John Olwell, who has been attending a college at Portland, is home.

Talent is growing. There is talk of a great mill being constructed this summer.

F. H. Anterieri, who has been as far as Roseburg, returned Monday to Yreka.

Dr. Hearn, the pioneer dentist of Yreka, is paying Hornbrook a professional visit.

Robert Gaskin is behind the counter of G. H. Hallow's drug store at Medford.

Phil Reams is the manager of the Idaho Stage Co.'s new line from Roseburg to Coos Bay.

Judge Hanna, Judge Neil and Judge Webster returned last Thursday from Linkville.

Sherman Stanley in Ashland last week, took back to Linkville with him a load of fruit.

A. J. Barlow and family and Mrs. B.'s mother are again at Gold Hill running the hotel there.

Mrs. Fred Fradenberg was called to Henley, Cal., last week by the dangerous illness of her mother.

Prof. Getz and family and Miss Nellie Ewan are attending the state teachers' association at Rock Point.

A son was born to the wife of S. C. Singletary in Linn county recently. They formerly resided at Rock Point.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 68, Clarkburg, W. Va.

J. K. Green, formerly of Central Point, who was taken ill in Tulare county, is in the insane asylum at Napa, Cal.

The News says Tom Scott has completed a load of brick and residence at Central Point for himself and family.

The Ochoco Review reports a snow snap in Crook county where snow fell to the depth of twelve inches in a few minutes.

The News says the S. P. talks of building a dining room at Burns and make that place an eating station in place of Sisson.

Wm. Bybee has purchased a Cyclone thrasher manufactured at Massillon, Ohio, and it is said to be an immense machine.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

J. D. Whitman has resigned as agricultural commissioner from this district. Gov. Penney will have to appoint a successor.

O. F. Hunt, a carpenter formerly of Gold Hill, was seriously injured by falling from a scaffold on a building at Sisson City, Iowa.

W. L. Waver and wife are visiting various places in the Northwest. Mr. V. is a delegate to the A. O. U. W. convention at Victoria, B. C.

J. E. Theiss, who was injured at the distillery two weeks ago, by the lid of the still falling on his ankle, is able to be about again.—Medford Mail.

Radan's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Reeser's block, Ashland.

Wm. Mayfield of The Meadows has found a ledge of some very heavy ore which he thinks rich silver lead. It is being tested in San Francisco.

W. H. Reed, a swindling timber land cruiser under indictment and who broke out of jail at Eugene a year ago, has been captured and is again in the kils.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Blount's.

On July 3d and July 4th until noon the Southern Pacific will sell round-trip tickets of 150 miles or less for one fare and good for the return to the 6th. No tickets sold for less than 50 cents.

A tract of 800 acres of land known as the Hopwood place on Evans creek has been sold to W. D. Moody and S. G. Webster of Big Rapids, Okla. It will be subdivided and sold in small tracts.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

William Curtis of Tillamook county, was killed June 17, by a vicious stallion. When found the horse was on his knees, tearing the man to pieces, and had already eaten a part of his body.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. O. store.

Charley Howard has been in the city for several days. He is to be one of the witnesses in the case of the O. & C. vs. Jackson for cutting railroad timber at Myrtle creek. The case comes off at Roseburg next week.—Mail.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.50 per pair, at O. H. Blount's.

Tony Neltner made his last run out of Ashland Sunday as a railroad postal clerk, having resigned to commence work on his father's Daily and Weekly Dispatch at Portland. His numerous friends here wish him and the paper success.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C. O. store.

J. H. Slettenier, the enterprising Woodburn nurseryman, is erecting an elegant $3000 residence at his home. With such a residence, surrounded by those magnificent walnut trees, Mr. Slettenier will have one of the loveliest homes in the state.

Don't miss getting one of those new tailor made suits at O. H. Blount's.

Henry Goodlow made many solid friends while lying in jail here. Always patient, gentlemanly in demeanor and anxious to better himself, he was the study of common-sense books and writing. He created the sort of sympathy that can feel for his unfortunate fellow-man.—Linkville Star.

Antient the talk that is being made by the republicans about carrying New York next November, a remark of Governor Hill is very apt. When told of the confident talk of the republicans leader he dryly said: "Yes, they always carry New York next June to August, and the democrats carry it in November."

Liverpool salt to be had cheap in large quantities at the C. O. store, Crocker building.

Over in Coos county, says the Salem Statesman, a business man was kicking to one of the mail contractors on the route from Roseburg to Coos county about the slowness and irregularity of the mails. The contractor replied that if the people knew of the difficulties of the mail contractors they would not kick so much. "Why," he said, "they send letters through the mails!" referring, of course, to the small trees sent by the nurserymen, but making it appear that they were full-grown fir trees. "Well, if they do," was the kicker's rejoinder, "they are seeds when they leave Roseburg!"

Stop and see our Pongee and Satines at C. O. D. Emporium.

Rev. Aldridge is attending a camp-meeting at Cottage Grove.

Roseburg city assessment shows $300,000 above all indebtedness.

Miss Mary Waite has returned to Medford from school at Portland.

J. A. Gross, the Albany hotel man, went to Shovel creek Monday.

Mrs. Ipa Phelps and infant of Halsey, are visiting relatives in Medford.

Mrs. Abigail Scott Dunaway grazes at Milton, Umatilla county, on the 4th.

J. M. Luark returned Monday from a business trip to Eastern Washington.

Siskiyou county people are tuning their harps to the blue gravel chorus.

John Olwell, who has been attending a college at Portland, is home.

Talent is growing. There is talk of a great mill being constructed this summer.

F. H. Anterieri, who has been as far as Roseburg, returned Monday to Yreka.

Dr. Hearn, the pioneer dentist of Yreka, is paying Hornbrook a professional visit.

Robert Gaskin is behind the counter of G. H. Hallow's drug store at Medford.

Phil Reams is the manager of the Idaho Stage Co.'s new line from Roseburg to Coos Bay.

Judge Hanna, Judge Neil and Judge Webster returned last Thursday from Linkville.

Sherman Stanley in Ashland last week, took back to Linkville with him a load of fruit.

A. J. Barlow and family and Mrs. B.'s mother are again at Gold Hill running the hotel there.

Mrs. Fred Fradenberg was called to Henley, Cal., last week by the dangerous illness of her mother.

Prof. Getz and family and Miss Nellie Ewan are attending the state teachers' association at Rock Point.

A son was born to the wife of S. C. Singletary in Linn county recently. They formerly resided at Rock Point.

Are you married? If not, send your address to The American Corresponding Club, P. O. Box 68, Clarkburg, W. Va.

J. K. Green, formerly of Central Point, who was taken ill in Tulare county, is in the insane asylum at Napa, Cal.

The News says Tom Scott has completed a load of brick and residence at Central Point for himself and family.

The Ochoco Review reports a snow snap in Crook county where snow fell to the depth of twelve inches in a few minutes.

The News says the S. P. talks of building a dining room at Burns and make that place an eating station in place of Sisson.

Wm. Bybee has purchased a Cyclone thrasher manufactured at Massillon, Ohio, and it is said to be an immense machine.

James Norris can furnish you all kinds of finishing lumber, moldings, windows, doors, sash, etc. Leave orders at W. N. Luckey's.

J. D. Whitman has resigned as agricultural commissioner from this district. Gov. Penney will have to appoint a successor.

O. F. Hunt, a carpenter formerly of Gold Hill, was seriously injured by falling from a scaffold on a building at Sisson City, Iowa.

W. L. Waver and wife are visiting various places in the Northwest. Mr. V. is a delegate to the A. O. U. W. convention at Victoria, B. C.

J. E. Theiss, who was injured at the distillery two weeks ago, by the lid of the still falling on his ankle, is able to be about again.—Medford Mail.

Radan's Microbe killer is now kept for sale in Reeser's block, Ashland.

Wm. Mayfield of The Meadows has found a ledge of some very heavy ore which he thinks rich silver lead. It is being tested in San Francisco.

W. H. Reed, a swindling timber land cruiser under indictment and who broke out of jail at Eugene a year ago, has been captured and is again in the kils.

Nothing but cash trade solicited at O. H. Blount's.

On July 3d and July 4th until noon the Southern Pacific will sell round-trip tickets of 150 miles or less for one fare and good for the return to the 6th. No tickets sold for less than 50 cents.

A tract of 800 acres of land known as the Hopwood place on Evans creek has been sold to W. D. Moody and S. G. Webster of Big Rapids, Okla. It will be subdivided and sold in small tracts.

The Crocker Grocery Company pay cash for poultry at regular market rates.

William Curtis of Tillamook county, was killed June 17, by a vicious stallion. When found the horse was on his knees, tearing the man to pieces, and had already eaten a part of his body.

Fine fresh extracts, sauces and spices at C. O. store.

Charley Howard has been in the city for several days. He is to be one of the witnesses in the case of the O. & C. vs. Jackson for cutting railroad timber at Myrtle creek. The case comes off at Roseburg next week.—Mail.

See the new lot of boys' shoes, only $1.50 per pair, at O. H. Blount's.

Tony Neltner made his last run out of Ashland Sunday as a railroad postal clerk, having resigned to commence work on his father's Daily and Weekly Dispatch at Portland. His numerous friends here wish him and the paper success.

Genuine New Orleans syrup at the C.