M. Parkinson and family have moved to Ashland from Portland. E. J. Cameron of Uniontown, was in this section from Friday to Monday. Mrs. W. L. Townsend, spent Saturday and Sunday with her folks in Ashland. Mrs. W. J. Stanley was called to Jacksonville yesterday by illness in the Ross family. G. M. Dickerson and J. H. Rhodes were at Medford yesterday on pension business. Mrs. L. C. Gray has returned to Medford from a visit with her sister at North Yamhill. W. C. Ginnings who has been running south of Dunsmuir is now running into Ashland. H. C. Van Horn, of the E. J. Bowen seed house, was in the city this week visiting his wife. F. Peckham, an editor from Michigan was visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. H. McBride, last week. J. D. Farra arrived from Paisley last week to visit his brother, E. L. Farra, at Woodville. Miss Goodell, who has been visiting in Ashland for three weeks, returned Sunday to Portland. Phil Stevens, the democratic rooster of Jacksonville, and will Coleman Sundayed in Ashland. Jay Sechrist, was in the valley the past week, in the interest of Busby's glove house. Judge Hanna and Dist. Atty. Colby were before the supreme court on legal business Monday. H. J. Raymond of Iowa, is visiting his brother, Prof. I. B. Raymond, principal of the Talbot public school. Mr. and Mrs. E. Deming of Michigan, are spending the winter in Ashland with their son, E. E. Deming. Vint Beall was up from Central Point Saturday. His democratic voice was for war with the spunky Chileans. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford are at Medford this week, where they are assisting Chas. W. Wetters in taking stock. Dr. Parson was at Hornbrook Tuesday. See Mrs. Johnson, housemaster Burckhauser's sister, who is ill with erysipelas. Rev. Mr. Harrington of Portland was visiting his relatives, D. P. Walrad and family over Sunday, en route to California. Jesse Richardson, of Medford farmer, was in the city Monday on a business trip. The Record acknowledges a pleasant call. Fred Denny, the graceful young giant of the Postal telegraph company, is at Agate this week, where there are several blighting young maidens. J. J. Maxfield and family of Montezano, Wash., old friends of the Shiloh Hotel, packed store, arrived last week to make Ashland their home. Mrs. Charley Le Beau of Yreka is visiting in Ashland this week and made the Record office a pleasant call yesterday. She is stopping at the Ashland house. Horace Nicholson, a well known business man of Medford was married at that place Sunday, to Miss Cassie Pymale, daughter of E. M. Pymale, of Medford. E. C. Frost, the insurance man, passed through yesterday for California. He will stop over on his return to Portland, and establish an agency for his company in Ashland. Engineer Frank McDonald and family left for California Monday, for a change of scene to see if it will improve Frank's health, which has been very poor the last several months. Mike Tucker and Miss Ida Wells, well known young people of Ashland recently were married yesterday at the home of the bride, Mrs. Ellen Wells. The Record wishes them much pleasure and happiness. J. H. Henkle, a retired merchant of Philomath, Benton county, arrived at Hotel Oregon Saturday, with his young wife, who is afflicted with asthma. They will remain for some time to take advantage of this climate. James W. Briner came over from his Beaver Creek placer mines last Thursday. He made the trip from the mines to Cole's, 10 miles, on snow-shoes, and had a hard time being covered with six feet of snow on a level. He returned Tuesday. Mrs. J. T. Gregg, who has been in and out for some time, is reported slowly improving, and the many friends of herself and husband trust that the improvement will be permanent. writes the Woodlawn reporter of a Portland paper, about she who was formerly Miss Eva Price, of the Ashland public schools. T. D. Williams loomed up as proud as a turkey gobbler in a Pullman car on last evening's train. It was all on account of having successfully laid eggs and captured the heart and hand of Miss Lizzie Sims, an estimable young lady of Dunsmuir. They were married at that place yesterday morning, and are on their wedding tour to Portland and the north. Bert Whitman returned from San Francisco Saturday, where he disposed of two carloads of apples at $1, $1.25, and $1.50 per box. The freight and commission amounts to 45 cents per box. The El Dorado county apples bring only from 50 cents to $1 per box. The Rogue river and Sitka county apples take the fancy prices in the San Francisco market.

The Democrats Organize. The county committee-men called a meeting of democrats for Saturday evening to organize a club, but they didn't organize. The Record had a lot of fun with the republicans when they only gathered together twelve men in a protest against a republican majority of 150 to organize. But the twelve republican apostles organized, Saturday evening thirteen democrats, and a Henry George man, in Medford's hall, chewed tobacco and told stories. The committee being out to lodge, the crowd gradually until it petered out entirely at half past eight. The elements were against the democracy that night. Besides an old fool preaching about the coming of an end, a transient hollering about the point where the yard, the G. A. R. post and I. O. O. F. lodges had on hand special business, a meeting was called by H. S. Evans, county central committee man for Ashland precinct. J. T. Bowditch was chosen chairman, and E. J. Farlow secretary. The object of the meeting was stated by the chairman, and a motion prevailed that a democratic club be formed. On motion a committee of five—E. M. Grainger, Dana Chapman, E. J. Farlow, J. R. Toser, and R. P. Neil—were appointed to draft constitution and by-laws. Adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening, Jan. 23rd.

Harry Miller's "Boom." H. B. Miller is laying his plans here for the congressional nomination to succeed Congressman Binger Hermann. The latest feature of his campaign occurred recently at his home on Grant Pass, when he asked Jerry Nunan, editor and proprietor of the Courier, the only paper in Josephine county, to support him through his fight for office. Although Mr. Miller and the firms who he owns in Grants Pass patronize the Courier, the owner of that paper is an independent in political home connections and told Mr. Miller that he wouldn't do it. Mr. Miller has now advanced the money whereby the Courier, Douglas county, recently is to be moved to Grants Pass and act as Harry Miller's county organ. Newspaper men are indignant, and the public mind, but the difference between an organ and a newspaper is very great. An organ has no weight with the convictions of the people. People are only convinced by writers who are only to express the honest sentiments of their mind and are independent of selfish, scheming politicians or other plundering cliques.

King's Royal Germetner (K. R. G.) is a remedy being introduced on the Coast from the East. It is a remedy based upon the modern germ theory of disease. It has been thoroughly tested for seven years and endorsed for diseases of Blood and Nerves by the best people of the East and South, such as ex-Gov. Hubbard of Texas, Gen. James Longstreet, Rev. Sam. P. Jones of Chicago, and thousands of others.

Jackonville Jottings. M. M. Tucker and Wm. Myer of Ashland were in town Monday. A. D. Helman of Ashland was among the new arrivals in town Tuesday. Chas. Nickell returned home from Portland the first of the week. Wm. Redding of Palmer creek was in town purchasing supplies Monday. Ebon Carver and W. R. Coleman of Phoenix made our town a flying visit Tuesday. R. J. Cameron of Uniontown visited friends at Ashland several days during the week. Pat Ivory of Uniontown shipped two carloads of cattle for the San Francisco market yesterday. Mrs. M. J. Canning will return to her home at Portland Thursday, after a brief visit with relatives. John Devlin, Jr., of Applegate is assisting L. L. Jacobs in the store, during the absence of Mr. White. John F. White and bride left San Francisco Monday evening via Los Angeles for Litchfield, Grayson county, Ky., to visit Mr. White's aged father. J. C. McCully came in from the Cinnabar mines Friday for a two week vacation. There is five feet of snow in that vicinity and it will be impossible to resume work for some time.
