

Rev. G. W. Black visited Grants Pass last week.

Ed. Hanley arrived last week from Harrow valley.

Geo. Eddings was down as far as Redding this week.

W. I. Vawter, the Medford banker, Sunday in Ashland.

The main concert company passed south last Monday.

Charlie Blake was in from Dead Indian the first of the week.

Col. Bob. Miller is president of Oregon democratic clubs.

The governor has reappointed Welborn Beeson of Talent, notary public.

Phillip Mullen, assayer for the Patton mine paid Tofo a visit last Friday.

L. S. Marsh, contractor and builder, passed north the first of the week.

Joe Frizell of Grants Pass spent last Friday in this city visiting friends.

W. P. Benn and family returned from their California visit the first of the week.

Prof. A. W. Hofmann, the distinguished German chemist, died at Berlin, May 6.

G. W. Dean of Grants Pass, was up the first of the week on a business trip.

Out of 800 boiler-makers and ironworkers in Boston and vicinity, 600 have struck.

Mrs. G. O. Eddings is visiting T. E. Godfrey's family at Merlin, Josephine county.

Rev. Sam M. Driver of Union, Or., has recently gone to Idaho for a breathing spell.

John Cummins has returned from 'Frisco, where he has been working for the last six months.

The hoods of Etas and Ft. Jones have been having a tag of war tournament, Etas carried off the laurels.

The Cheyenne swishes are seriously contemplating going a gunning for the pale-faces during the summer.

Eben Carver the Phoenix musician was on Friday's train going to Ager, to scrape the organ for a social dance at that place.

Sylvester Smith of Wolf creek, has his brother postmaster at that place. His brother Edward, acting as deputy.

War has been waged against the Chinese of Tangent, Benton Co. A mob having driven them from the R. R. sections at that place.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Congressman of Yreka, accompanied by his two children passed through town the first of the week on a visit to his mother at Taos.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Mail Agent John Butterworth, wife and daughter were on Saturday's train to San Francisco. John has a run between S. F. and Los Angeles.

The S. P. R. Co. offer a reward of $3000 for the apprehension of the person, or persons, who wrecked the train at Myrtle creek last week.

The Great Valley Telegram says that the time of the late earthquake in that city is not positively known for no two time pieces in the town agree.

The Dayton-Borrow scandal has finally ended in a genuine tragedy, and the innocent father of the sinning woman has paid the forfeit with his life.

Dr. J. S. Parson has made two or three trips to Hornbrook in his capacity as Railroad doctor. A braky by the name of Call is undergoing a spell of fever.

Butler Walker started last Saturday for Sprague river, where he goes in the interest of his stock business of that place.

The Rev. Mr. Lund, Episcopal minister formerly of this place, preaches regularly to the 300 inmates of the Salem penitentiary.

Mrs. W. F. Snuggs and daughter returned last Friday from their sojourn in southern California. Miss Mollie is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mully have been in Roseburg during the past week. Mrs. Mully is an artist of much ability, and has several of her works of art on exhibition.

The latest dispatches say that Mr. Blaine will not accept the nomination to the presidency.—Portland Chronicle.

A gold brick was recently shipped to San Francisco from Yuma, Cal., the value of which was estimated at between $80,000 and $90,000. It weighed a little over 340 pounds.

The Patton ledge shipped last Friday a carload of ore to Portland, in order that the stockholders might see for themselves the amount of the "filthy" rock will yield by a practical working test.

A Shasta county miner, by the name of Blinne, while mining near Whiskeytown, picked up an assay powder can containing $600 of gold dust. It had evidently been "banked" by some "digger."

Chas. H. Pierce came over from Yreka last week when he purchased a section of timber land in the Jenny creek belt from G. A. Nordheim and E. H. Schaffeld for $4,000, and a half section from Dr. Collier and John Pashburg for $1150.

The republican state convention of Virginia met at Roanoke last Friday. The question of instructing the delegates to vote for Harrison met with violent opposition. The vote stood 892 to 197.

The secretary of state has sent to the various thirty-one county clerks in this state all the poll-books and bills, and required by election officers in the coming state election.

T. J. Clouston has gone to Mexico to look after his 600 head of cattle for which he traded his silver mine. He will probably dispose of the stock and buy merchandise for his store.—Klamath Falls Express.

A "tramp bill," a ten foot fence with an elevated roof so constructed as to admit of the escape of sober men and to hold drunken men, thus saving the expense of prosecution and board, is the latest acquisition of Sultan city, Washington.

The startling news is wafted from Texas that the prohibitionists have met and organized a ticket. Thus, one by one, are popular illusions rapidly dispelled. There are some things in Texas besides democrats, whisky and rattlesnakes.—Ex.

An attempt was made last Friday to burn the Gold Hill railroad bridge. The ties were covered with kerosene and then fired; the prompt action of the section men saved the bridge. The incendiary is still at large, although being pursued by the authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, Mesdames Crocker, Kane, McCall, Christlund, Vining and Barnum, Misses Bell, Wagner, Lydia McCall, members of Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., attended the reception given by Adair Chapter, Jacksonville, last Friday.

The great city of Burns, Harney county, a town of less than 400 inhabitants noted for being a great place for playing pic-a-noll and billiards, will soon have another paper which will be devoted to the interests of the people's party. The plant has already been ordered from Portland, and will make the fourth paper for that thriving city.

Chase & Sanborn's Boston compiler and Deech's Fair and sidewalk maps are making usual issues for D. L. Minkler & Son.

Rev. G. W. Black visited Grants Pass last week.

Ed. Hanley arrived last week from Harrow valley.

Geo. Eddings was down as far as Redding this week.

W. I. Vawter, the Medford banker, Sunday in Ashland.

The main concert company passed south last Monday.

Charlie Blake was in from Dead Indian the first of the week.

Col. Bob. Miller is president of Oregon democratic clubs.

The governor has reappointed Welborn Beeson of Talent, notary public.

Phillip Mullen, assayer for the Patton mine paid Tofo a visit last Friday.

L. S. Marsh, contractor and builder, passed north the first of the week.

Joe Frizell of Grants Pass spent last Friday in this city visiting friends.

W. P. Benn and family returned from their California visit the first of the week.

Prof. A. W. Hofmann, the distinguished German chemist, died at Berlin, May 6.

G. W. Dean of Grants Pass, was up the first of the week on a business trip.

Out of 800 boiler-makers and ironworkers in Boston and vicinity, 600 have struck.

Mrs. G. O. Eddings is visiting T. E. Godfrey's family at Merlin, Josephine county.

Rev. Sam M. Driver of Union, Or., has recently gone to Idaho for a breathing spell.

John Cummins has returned from 'Frisco, where he has been working for the last six months.

The hoods of Etas and Ft. Jones have been having a tag of war tournament, Etas carried off the laurels.

The Cheyenne swishes are seriously contemplating going a gunning for the pale-faces during the summer.

Eben Carver the Phoenix musician was on Friday's train going to Ager, to scrape the organ for a social dance at that place.

Sylvester Smith of Wolf creek, has his brother postmaster at that place. His brother Edward, acting as deputy.

War has been waged against the Chinese of Tangent, Benton Co. A mob having driven them from the R. R. sections at that place.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Congressman of Yreka, accompanied by his two children passed through town the first of the week on a visit to his mother at Taos.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Mail Agent John Butterworth, wife and daughter were on Saturday's train to San Francisco. John has a run between S. F. and Los Angeles.

The S. P. R. Co. offer a reward of $3000 for the apprehension of the person, or persons, who wrecked the train at Myrtle creek last week.

The Great Valley Telegram says that the time of the late earthquake in that city is not positively known for no two time pieces in the town agree.

The Dayton-Borrow scandal has finally ended in a genuine tragedy, and the innocent father of the sinning woman has paid the forfeit with his life.

Dr. J. S. Parson has made two or three trips to Hornbrook in his capacity as Railroad doctor. A braky by the name of Call is undergoing a spell of fever.

Butler Walker started last Saturday for Sprague river, where he goes in the interest of his stock business of that place.

The Rev. Mr. Lund, Episcopal minister formerly of this place, preaches regularly to the 300 inmates of the Salem penitentiary.

Mrs. W. F. Snuggs and daughter returned last Friday from their sojourn in southern California. Miss Mollie is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mully have been in Roseburg during the past week. Mrs. Mully is an artist of much ability, and has several of her works of art on exhibition.

The latest dispatches say that Mr. Blaine will not accept the nomination to the presidency.—Portland Chronicle.

A gold brick was recently shipped to San Francisco from Yuma, Cal., the value of which was estimated at between $80,000 and $90,000. It weighed a little over 340 pounds.

The Patton ledge shipped last Friday a carload of ore to Portland, in order that the stockholders might see for themselves the amount of the "filthy" rock will yield by a practical working test.

A Shasta county miner, by the name of Blinne, while mining near Whiskeytown, picked up an assay powder can containing $600 of gold dust. It had evidently been "banked" by some "digger."

Chas. H. Pierce came over from Yreka last week when he purchased a section of timber land in the Jenny creek belt from G. A. Nordheim and E. H. Schaffeld for $4,000, and a half section from Dr. Collier and John Pashburg for $1150.

The republican state convention of Virginia met at Roanoke last Friday. The question of instructing the delegates to vote for Harrison met with violent opposition. The vote stood 892 to 197.

The secretary of state has sent to the various thirty-one county clerks in this state all the poll-books and bills, and required by election officers in the coming state election.

T. J. Clouston has gone to Mexico to look after his 600 head of cattle for which he traded his silver mine. He will probably dispose of the stock and buy merchandise for his store.—Klamath Falls Express.

A "tramp bill," a ten foot fence with an elevated roof so constructed as to admit of the escape of sober men and to hold drunken men, thus saving the expense of prosecution and board, is the latest acquisition of Sultan city, Washington.

The startling news is wafted from Texas that the prohibitionists have met and organized a ticket. Thus, one by one, are popular illusions rapidly dispelled. There are some things in Texas besides democrats, whisky and rattlesnakes.—Ex.

An attempt was made last Friday to burn the Gold Hill railroad bridge. The ties were covered with kerosene and then fired; the prompt action of the section men saved the bridge. The incendiary is still at large, although being pursued by the authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, Mesdames Crocker, Kane, McCall, Christlund, Vining and Barnum, Misses Bell, Wagner, Lydia McCall, members of Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., attended the reception given by Adair Chapter, Jacksonville, last Friday.

The great city of Burns, Harney county, a town of less than 400 inhabitants noted for being a great place for playing pic-a-noll and billiards, will soon have another paper which will be devoted to the interests of the people's party. The plant has already been ordered from Portland, and will make the fourth paper for that thriving city.

Chase & Sanborn's Boston compiler and Deech's Fair and sidewalk maps are making usual issues for D. L. Minkler & Son.

Rev. G. W. Black visited Grants Pass last week.

Ed. Hanley arrived last week from Harrow valley.

Geo. Eddings was down as far as Redding this week.

W. I. Vawter, the Medford banker, Sunday in Ashland.

The main concert company passed south last Monday.

Charlie Blake was in from Dead Indian the first of the week.

Col. Bob. Miller is president of Oregon democratic clubs.

The governor has reappointed Welborn Beeson of Talent, notary public.

Phillip Mullen, assayer for the Patton mine paid Tofo a visit last Friday.

L. S. Marsh, contractor and builder, passed north the first of the week.

Joe Frizell of Grants Pass spent last Friday in this city visiting friends.

W. P. Benn and family returned from their California visit the first of the week.

Prof. A. W. Hofmann, the distinguished German chemist, died at Berlin, May 6.

G. W. Dean of Grants Pass, was up the first of the week on a business trip.

Out of 800 boiler-makers and ironworkers in Boston and vicinity, 600 have struck.

Mrs. G. O. Eddings is visiting T. E. Godfrey's family at Merlin, Josephine county.

Rev. Sam M. Driver of Union, Or., has recently gone to Idaho for a breathing spell.

John Cummins has returned from 'Frisco, where he has been working for the last six months.

The hoods of Etas and Ft. Jones have been having a tag of war tournament, Etas carried off the laurels.

The Cheyenne swishes are seriously contemplating going a gunning for the pale-faces during the summer.

Eben Carver the Phoenix musician was on Friday's train going to Ager, to scrape the organ for a social dance at that place.

Sylvester Smith of Wolf creek, has his brother postmaster at that place. His brother Edward, acting as deputy.

War has been waged against the Chinese of Tangent, Benton Co. A mob having driven them from the R. R. sections at that place.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Congressman of Yreka, accompanied by his two children passed through town the first of the week on a visit to his mother at Taos.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Mail Agent John Butterworth, wife and daughter were on Saturday's train to San Francisco. John has a run between S. F. and Los Angeles.

The S. P. R. Co. offer a reward of $3000 for the apprehension of the person, or persons, who wrecked the train at Myrtle creek last week.

The Great Valley Telegram says that the time of the late earthquake in that city is not positively known for no two time pieces in the town agree.

The Dayton-Borrow scandal has finally ended in a genuine tragedy, and the innocent father of the sinning woman has paid the forfeit with his life.

Dr. J. S. Parson has made two or three trips to Hornbrook in his capacity as Railroad doctor. A braky by the name of Call is undergoing a spell of fever.

Butler Walker started last Saturday for Sprague river, where he goes in the interest of his stock business of that place.

The Rev. Mr. Lund, Episcopal minister formerly of this place, preaches regularly to the 300 inmates of the Salem penitentiary.

Mrs. W. F. Snuggs and daughter returned last Friday from their sojourn in southern California. Miss Mollie is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mully have been in Roseburg during the past week. Mrs. Mully is an artist of much ability, and has several of her works of art on exhibition.

The latest dispatches say that Mr. Blaine will not accept the nomination to the presidency.—Portland Chronicle.

A gold brick was recently shipped to San Francisco from Yuma, Cal., the value of which was estimated at between $80,000 and $90,000. It weighed a little over 340 pounds.

The Patton ledge shipped last Friday a carload of ore to Portland, in order that the stockholders might see for themselves the amount of the "filthy" rock will yield by a practical working test.

A Shasta county miner, by the name of Blinne, while mining near Whiskeytown, picked up an assay powder can containing $600 of gold dust. It had evidently been "banked" by some "digger."

Chas. H. Pierce came over from Yreka last week when he purchased a section of timber land in the Jenny creek belt from G. A. Nordheim and E. H. Schaffeld for $4,000, and a half section from Dr. Collier and John Pashburg for $1150.

The republican state convention of Virginia met at Roanoke last Friday. The question of instructing the delegates to vote for Harrison met with violent opposition. The vote stood 892 to 197.

The secretary of state has sent to the various thirty-one county clerks in this state all the poll-books and bills, and required by election officers in the coming state election.

T. J. Clouston has gone to Mexico to look after his 600 head of cattle for which he traded his silver mine. He will probably dispose of the stock and buy merchandise for his store.—Klamath Falls Express.

A "tramp bill," a ten foot fence with an elevated roof so constructed as to admit of the escape of sober men and to hold drunken men, thus saving the expense of prosecution and board, is the latest acquisition of Sultan city, Washington.

The startling news is wafted from Texas that the prohibitionists have met and organized a ticket. Thus, one by one, are popular illusions rapidly dispelled. There are some things in Texas besides democrats, whisky and rattlesnakes.—Ex.

An attempt was made last Friday to burn the Gold Hill railroad bridge. The ties were covered with kerosene and then fired; the prompt action of the section men saved the bridge. The incendiary is still at large, although being pursued by the authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, Mesdames Crocker, Kane, McCall, Christlund, Vining and Barnum, Misses Bell, Wagner, Lydia McCall, members of Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., attended the reception given by Adair Chapter, Jacksonville, last Friday.

The great city of Burns, Harney county, a town of less than 400 inhabitants noted for being a great place for playing pic-a-noll and billiards, will soon have another paper which will be devoted to the interests of the people's party. The plant has already been ordered from Portland, and will make the fourth paper for that thriving city.

Chase & Sanborn's Boston compiler and Deech's Fair and sidewalk maps are making usual issues for D. L. Minkler & Son.

Rev. G. W. Black visited Grants Pass last week.

Ed. Hanley arrived last week from Harrow valley.

Geo. Eddings was down as far as Redding this week.

W. I. Vawter, the Medford banker, Sunday in Ashland.

The main concert company passed south last Monday.

Charlie Blake was in from Dead Indian the first of the week.

Col. Bob. Miller is president of Oregon democratic clubs.

The governor has reappointed Welborn Beeson of Talent, notary public.

Phillip Mullen, assayer for the Patton mine paid Tofo a visit last Friday.

L. S. Marsh, contractor and builder, passed north the first of the week.

Joe Frizell of Grants Pass spent last Friday in this city visiting friends.

W. P. Benn and family returned from their California visit the first of the week.

Prof. A. W. Hofmann, the distinguished German chemist, died at Berlin, May 6.

G. W. Dean of Grants Pass, was up the first of the week on a business trip.

Out of 800 boiler-makers and ironworkers in Boston and vicinity, 600 have struck.

Mrs. G. O. Eddings is visiting T. E. Godfrey's family at Merlin, Josephine county.

Rev. Sam M. Driver of Union, Or., has recently gone to Idaho for a breathing spell.

John Cummins has returned from 'Frisco, where he has been working for the last six months.

The hoods of Etas and Ft. Jones have been having a tag of war tournament, Etas carried off the laurels.

The Cheyenne swishes are seriously contemplating going a gunning for the pale-faces during the summer.

Eben Carver the Phoenix musician was on Friday's train going to Ager, to scrape the organ for a social dance at that place.

Sylvester Smith of Wolf creek, has his brother postmaster at that place. His brother Edward, acting as deputy.

War has been waged against the Chinese of Tangent, Benton Co. A mob having driven them from the R. R. sections at that place.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Congressman of Yreka, accompanied by his two children passed through town the first of the week on a visit to his mother at Taos.

Chinese Consul Bee returned to San Francisco Monday. He had been to Portland on business connected with the Chinese trial.

Mail Agent John Butterworth, wife and daughter were on Saturday's train to San Francisco. John has a run between S. F. and Los Angeles.

The S. P. R. Co. offer a reward of $3000 for the apprehension of the person, or persons, who wrecked the train at Myrtle creek last week.

The Great Valley Telegram says that the time of the late earthquake in that city is not positively known for no two time pieces in the town agree.

The Dayton-Borrow scandal has finally ended in a genuine tragedy, and the innocent father of the sinning woman has paid the forfeit with his life.

Dr. J. S. Parson has made two or three trips to Hornbrook in his capacity as Railroad doctor. A braky by the name of Call is undergoing a spell of fever.

Butler Walker started last Saturday for Sprague river, where he goes in the interest of his stock business of that place.

The Rev. Mr. Lund, Episcopal minister formerly of this place, preaches regularly to the 300 inmates of the Salem penitentiary.

Mrs. W. F. Snuggs and daughter returned last Friday from their sojourn in southern California. Miss Mollie is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mully have been in Roseburg during the past week. Mrs. Mully is an artist of much ability, and has several of her works of art on exhibition.

The latest dispatches say that Mr. Blaine will not accept the nomination to the presidency.—Portland Chronicle.

A gold brick was recently shipped to San Francisco from Yuma, Cal., the value of which was estimated at between $80,000 and $90,000. It weighed a little over 340 pounds.

The Patton ledge shipped last Friday a carload of ore to Portland, in order that the stockholders might see for themselves the amount of the "filthy" rock will yield by a practical working test.

A Shasta county miner, by the name of Blinne, while mining near Whiskeytown, picked up an assay powder can containing $600 of gold dust. It had evidently been "banked" by some "digger."

Chas. H. Pierce came over from Yreka last week when he purchased a section of timber land in the Jenny creek belt from G. A. Nordheim and E. H. Schaffeld for $4,000, and a half section from Dr. Collier and John Pashburg for $1150.

The republican state convention of Virginia met at Roanoke last Friday. The question of instructing the delegates to vote for Harrison met with violent opposition. The vote stood 892 to 197.

The secretary of state has sent to the various thirty-one county clerks in this state all the poll-books and bills, and required by election officers in the coming state election.

T. J. Clouston has gone to Mexico to look after his 600 head of cattle for which he traded his silver mine. He will probably dispose of the stock and buy merchandise for his store.—Klamath Falls Express.

A "tramp bill," a ten foot fence with an elevated roof so constructed as to admit of the escape of sober men and to hold drunken men, thus saving the expense of prosecution and board, is the latest acquisition of Sultan city, Washington.

The startling news is wafted from Texas that the prohibitionists have met and organized a ticket. Thus, one by one, are popular illusions rapidly dispelled. There are some things in Texas besides democrats, whisky and rattlesnakes.—Ex.