A. C. STANLEY, Chairman.
JERRY NUNAN, Sec'y.

Press reporters admitted inside the bar.

Tellers appointed—Frank Bybee and I. O. Miller.

Order of business adopted as per election call and voting by ballot. Carried.

For three representatives, Geo. Hammersley named J. J. Houck, of Gold Hill, J. A. Harvey named Chas. Nickell and R. A. Cook named E. D. Foudray of Phoenix, and Benj. Haymond named Geo. T. Hershberger; but the latter promptly declined. Dr. Stanley named J. D. Whitman who was withdrawn by Wm. Slinger.

Chairman DeBar held the convention for some time and urged the body to name more candidates, but the officers went a begging and after the convention had apparently exhausted itself in the vain endeavor of getting up a little competition for these places, Houck, Nickell and Foudray were nominated by acclamation.

For county judge, James R. Neil was placed in nomination by Jerry Nunan and elected by acclamation.

For county commissioner James Helms named Samuel Furry of Eden, who received the nomination by acclamation. Geo. Hershberger, who had been named by Hammersley, of Gold Hill declining.

For county recorder, Wm. M. Holmes, the present incumbent, was renominated by acclamation.

For sheriff, James M. Childers of Sams valley, John E. Pelton of Ashland and G. M. Grainger of Ashland. The latters name was withdrawn. The balloting stood 52 for Pelton and 28 for Childers. The announcement of Pelton's nomination was received with the first hearty applause of the day.

For treasurer L. L. Jacobs named Geo. E. Bloomer, present incumbent, who received the honor unanimously.

For school superintendent A. B. Chapman nominated C. S. Price, the present incumbent, who went through by acclamation.

For assesor W. H. Brunk named Dan Chapman of Ashland. R. A. Cook named J. L. Woolridge, of Applegate. Chapman received 38 votes and Woolridge 40.

For coroner, Dr. Pickel, Dr. Porter and Dr. Stanley were named. All declined but Dr. Porter, of Gold Hill, who was then nominated by acclamation.

County Central Committee: K. Kubli, W. H. Brunk, Benj. Haymond, G. R. Hammersley, R. F. Dean, J. Compton, J. Nunan. Benj. Haymond, chairman.

When the democratic primaries were held it was seen that an effort had been made to form a ring by which the office of county judge, clerk, sheriff and school sdperintendent and assessor were to be dished out to a certain lot of candidates as against certain others. It was believed that the primaries had been worked to that end successfully but when the convention got together the different combines were unable to deliver their goods to each other and of these candidates only one (county judge) of the combination was successful. It was believed that if the friends of J. D. Whitman had of allowed his name to come before the convention for county judge it would have wiped out the last vestige of the original "slate." However, they claim to have counted noses and say it couldn't have been done. The nominations for the other offices had no competition because there were no other aspirants.

The Republican Convention.

The delegates to the republican county convention and the lobby were most all at Jacksonville the day before their convention and were buzzing one another very lively until about 10 o'clock in the morning of Friday when they congregated in the court-room. A preliminary organization was affected. C. K. Klum acted as chairman and B. R. Willets secretary.

The following committees were appointed.

Credentials committee—F M Stewart, J E Cox, M Bellinger, E P Geary, Wm Cameron.

Order of business and permanent orgaization—J A Whiteside, W H Leeds, H D Kubli.

After this they got into a great wrangle over whether they should go into a caucus of the whole or as a permanent organization. The latter was finally decided on. Leeds explained it half a dozen times and many others talked. Delegate Hinsell who had became "dizzy-headed" by the vast array of free fire-water on exhibition in the many places where they quench the thirst of the delegates of the grand old party of great moral ideas, also took part in the misunderstanding, much to the amusement of the whole crowd.

At one o'clock the convention again convened, and J. A. Whiteside of Medford, succeeded Klum as permanent chairman.

Reporters invited inside the bar to take items.

Geary read credentials committee report as follows, which was adopted:

F. M. STEWART, Chairman.
E. P. GEARY, Secretary.

Geary said: Mr. Chairman I move that L. J. Marck be empowered to cast the vote of his colleague, Mr. Hinsell, who is ill with "sunstroke."

The motion created some merriment but was carried.

Leeds read order of business report making the nominations come as follows: Sheriff, three representatives, county judge, clerk, recorder, assessor, commissioner, coroner and surveyor.

Leeds explained that the reason for changing from the customary way to this chopped up manner, was that Medford and Ashland each had a candidate for sheriff, the fight for which they wanted to settle first.

For sheriff Kubli of Applegate named Geo. F. Merriman of Medford.

John Real named Robert Taylor of Ashland.

Vawter seconded the nomination of Merriman with a speech in which he eulogized the merits of his man by declaring him to be a native Oregonian and a true republican and that the office of sheriff was the only one Medford asked for.

Leeds took the floor and said, in a manner slightly tinged with sarcasm: If it is order to second nominations in this convention, Mr. Chairman, I would like to second the nomination of Robert Taylor. I do not know whether Mr. Taylor is a native Oregonian or not. But the people of Ashland know Mr. Taylor to be an honest man and a good citizen. He is a good republican and has worked heartily for the republican ticket. He has done his share for the success of the republican nominations. As most all the delegates know Mr. Taylor, I think it useless to say anything further.

The vote stood: Merriman 40; Taylor 30. Merriman declared nominated by acclamation, with applause on the Medford side of the house.

For representatives, J. W. Merritt, of Central Point, W. H. Atkinson, of Ashland and Chauncey Nye, of Flounce Rock, were nominated by acclamation. J. D. Buckley, of Applegate, had been talked up in place of Nye before the convention, but somebody knocked his prospects out by circulating the report that he had been a democrat until converted by Pat Ford's Irish World in the Blaine campaign, and that the republican party couldn't afford to load its ticket with a gentleman whose politics were regulated by foreign influences.

For county judge, Watson placed in nomination in a short speech, J. M. McCall of Ashland, who was nominated by acclamation.

For clerk, Kubli named Max Muller, and McCall of Ashland, named J. H. Huffer. The latter declined and Muller was nominated by acclamation. Huffer had the Ashland delegates and many others who were opposed to third-termers and continuously in office men. But Muller had provided for Deputy Huffer by agreeing to increase his salary, and Huffer succumbed.

For recorder, Squire named R. T. Armstrong, who was elected by acclamation.

For assessor, James Kincaid, A. S. Moon, A. S. Johnson, Arthur Wilson, B. F. Miller and W. J. Stanley were named. After three ballots, B. F. Miller of Sardine creek, was nominated.

For commissioner, Klum, in a speech, named B. C. Goddard of Talent, and Kubli said Applegate wanted only one office, that of Rial Benedict for commissioner. Benedict was nominated on the second ballot. L. J. March received 11 votes on first ballot. School superintendent was knocked down to Scott Morris, coroner to Jesse Hinkle, surveyor to C. J. Howard and treasurer to Wm. Kahler.

This is the first time in the history of the republicans in Jackson county that the offices were hotly contested for in convention. The sheriff fight was particularly warm and two sides not only set forth the claims of their respective candidates but got in and ventilated the weaknesses of each other. If what the delegates said is true, both candidates were very weak.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at E. E. Winchester & Co's drugstore.

DIED.

CHILDERS.—In Sams valley, May 7, 1892, Mrs. Malinda Childers, aged 76 years, one month and 7 days. The funeral on Monday, in the Sams valley cemetery was attended by a large concourse of friends of the family.

Mrs. Childers was a native of Nash county, North Carolina, and came to California with her husband in 1856, settling in Napa county, Cal. In the fall of 1867 the family moved to Sams valley where they have resided ever since and where Mr. Childers passed away several years ago. Besides the memory of a blessed, honored and revered life left to all who knew her, there are a large circle of children left to mourn her departure from this mundane syphere. They are: M. D. Childers of Salem, J. M. Childers of Sams valley, Granville Childers of Klamath Falls, Monroe Childers of Corvallis, Mrs. Dan Snively of Red Bluff, Mrs. T. B. Blanton of Ashland, Mrs. M. Craddock of Antelope and Mrs. Jacob Conley of Sams valley.

Chas. Marvin writes under date of January 9th, 1891, he found by feeding the Red Ball Brand Manhattan Food to the horses under his charge, that it proved to be as represented. Also Mr. Wm. Corbitt of the San Mateo Stock Farm, Sam. Gamble, J. A. Goldsmith, B. C. Holly and others speak in the highest terms of it. This food is just the thing to prepare colts for circuit; they mature more rapidly and it keeps them in splendid spirits. For a horse off his feed, or one run down, it is highly beneficial. This is the only stock food which ever received medals at Sacramento State Fair 1891, Stockton Fair 1891, San Francisco 1890. The foremost veterinary surgeons of California feed and recommend it, viz: C. Masoero, E. J. Creely, P. Burns, W. F. Egan. This food contains no antimony or any other mineral or poisonous herbs. The Red Ball Brand Manhattan Poultry Food is likewise reliable; the largest poultry raisers on the coast prefer it to all others.

Pastry Without Butter.

Light, flaky and digestible pie crust and all kinds of fine pastry can be made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder without butter or with one half the usual portion, if preferred, or with a small quantity of lard or other shortening as desired. Pie crust made in this way is more wholesome and digestible besides being more economical and easier prepared in addition to saving all the butter if desired. One-third the flour is also dispensed with, and the crust is rolled that much thinner, the raising qualities of Dr. Price's Powder swelling it to the requisite thickness. Those who enjoy the appetizing qualities of the delicious home made pie will rejoice to know this secret.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.
