VALLEY RECORD.

ASHLAND, Or., Thursday, June 21, 1904
A FRUIT TREE PROTECTOR.
An Expired Patent For Circumventing Creeping Insect Pests and Other Vermin.
Numbered among expired patents now the property of any one who desires to adopt the same is a fruit tree protector that is easily and cheaply made.
The device can be made of any flexible sheet metal, preferably tin, and is so cut and formed that when applied to a tree it resembles the frustum of a cone, as at B, Fig. 1. It is held in place by an elastic band (C) which passes over hooks or projections on its opposite ends and draws them together, making it fit snugly around the tree. If the tree should be uneven or have cavities in its bark, the clasp edge of the protector can be forced or bent into them, so that a correct fit is secured.
These protectors are made at a very light cost and can be of the largest size by sewing together several pieces of tin.
The lower edge can be turned up slightly to hold some material, such as sawdust or liquid, as shown in Fig. 2 (b), but this is not necessary for protection against the canker worm, for which the device is mainly intended to be used.

anteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

The Spray Calendar.
The Cornell experiment station has issued a spray calendar which contains much matter of general interest, in instance of which are the following concise directions:
For plant lice use kerosene emulsion on all plants.
For rots, molds, mildews and all fungous diseases use either the bordeaux mixture or ammoniacal copper carbonate.
For all insects which chew, paris green and bordeaux can be applied together with perfect safety. London purple is also used, except on peach and plum trees, for insects which chew, but as it is more caustic it should be applied with lime or the bordeaux mixture. Heliophorus is also employed for insects which chew.
Kerosene emulsion is recommended for insects which suck, cabbage worms and all insects which have soft bodies.
Black knot on plums and cherries should be cut out and burned as soon as discovered.
Removal.
We take pleasure in announcing that after this date Park's Sure Cure will remove all traces of Rheumatism, Kidney trouble or Lives complaint from the user. It is so-lary the only medicine that is guaranteed

Two Good Blackberries.
Two of the new varieties that are gaining approval in many sections are Lov-ett's and Eldorado. Claims made for the first named are a trustworthy blackberry of large size, and a cane of ironed hardness. It is productive and so far free from disease. Eldorado was an accidental seedling and takes its name from the town close by where it was found—in Preble county, O. It has been in cultivation for 12 years and under careful test for four years at the different experiment stations. In every case they report that it has never winter killed.
It is of fine quality and without core.

PEOPLE'S PARTY COLUMN.
The Colorado Trouble.
The lying reports sent broadcast over the land by subsidized Associated Press agents concerning the trouble in this state calls for an explanation of the whole affair for the benefit of our readers in other states.
In the first place, Colorado has long been controlled by a rotten ring of politicians as ever when, and in their efforts to run everything, politically and otherwise, stopped at nothing, no matter how criminal it might be, to carry the ends of the big corporations that kept them in campaign funds. The whole machinery of the state was run for corporations. The corporations furnished the bootleg and then turned around and robbed the people to make up the amount contributed. This condition existed until 1902, when the people hurled the thieves whelps from office and took charge of affairs themselves through Populists.
A part of the governor's power is the appointing of the members of the police board and board of health.
Denver is the political capital of the state. Through these two boards the criminal classes and the corporations have been kept in line always for the Republican party.
When Governor Waite was elected, he called about him a lot of crooked statesmen (?) who meant well enough, but were weak and chumpish. They advised him to appoint a few of the result poor, weak incompetents were named.
The old party corporation schemers and gamblers soon had these appointees with ropes around their necks and the old party machine in Denver remained undisturbed. It was then that this paper opened up its fire on Governor Waite. In due course of time the governor saw the mistake he had made and removed his appointees to the police board. A resistance was made, but the supreme court decided that the governor was within his rights. The members of the state government and was vested with the power to appoint and remove for cause.
A new set of men was then selected, but the moment they were named the Populists felt sure that the governor had again made a mistake, and it didn't take long for the governor himself to make the discovery for his new board were not much better than the old one.
The gamblers and corporations saw in the new board (the last one) a lot of men who would be a board of the governor for the new board stood pledged to drive about 3,500 voting criminals, consisting of gamblers, pimps, corporation tools, etc., out of the state. These men were known to be Wolcott men and men could be depended upon to vote for the Wolcott legislative ticket this fall.
When the governor decided to make the change, he knew that a new set of men would attempt to induct his new board into office. He sent for the sheriff of the county and explained to him his fears and notified him of his duties as peace officer to see to it that the peace was kept.
The sheriff is an old party institution in Denver, and the sheriff lost no time in warning the chief conspirators against gold and governor Daniel I. State of the governor's intentions. Instead of preparing to "keep the peace" the sheriff at once began to arm the gamblers with dynamite bombs and other instruments of war. The governor's fall for the new board stood pledged to drive about 3,500 voting criminals, consisting
