A New York Times cablegram says: Zola's "Lourdes" hardly had time to be discussed on its literary merits, about which the critics differ, before they were obscured by larger interest in the row in Rome which the book has stirred up. One effect has been to draw from Cardinal Rampolla, speaking, of course, officially, an uncompromising indorsement of the Lourdes miracles. Heretofore Rome avoided this and merely accorded Lourdes a benevolent toleration, and its changed attitude has made a great fluiter in French religious circles. Apparently Lourdes is to be henceforth a dogma, and this is so much out of XIII's policy that it naturally creates the only method of proving their fitness surprise and endless comment. PAINTS, PAINTERS' TOOLS,

Gentlemen: Have been afflicted with severe rhenmatic attacks for the past six or seven years. I took one bottle of Dr.

Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root and applied Hattee's Congo Gil externally, and the result was wonderful-it worked more like magic than medicine. These two medicines I consider will knock any Torpid Liver.

Gentlemen: I have been a sufferer from Liver troubles for many years, al-

I did feel; but, thanks to Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root, my troubles are over, as four bottles made me feel as well as ever I was. I have a good appetite, no more bad symptoms and I feel that I owe it all to Dr. Grant's
