Klamath Stock Shipments.

Within the last ten days Messrs. C. Swanston, Louis Gerber, John Coughlin, Tom Collins and the XL Company, have taken about 2400 head of cattle to Shasta valley. The drive is about over, but there will probably be about 500 head more to go from the best authority we have. The output of beef cattle driven from Klamath and Lake counties to Shasta valley will reach the number of 15,000 head. O. C. Applegate last Sunday drove through town 292 head of two and three-year-old beef cattle and 160 calves, which he had sold to Mitchell, the cattle buyer. The Applegates, Oliver and Ivan, and Gilbert Anderson are not disposing of all their cattle holdings, but are cutting down their herds to suit the range. They still have 1000 head on their ranches.—Express.

Insanity Caused by a Lynching.

Sheriff F. P. Lane and Deputy Sheriff Manley Whorton passed through Friday from Lakeview with Al. Heminger, whom they were taking to the Salem insane asylum. Heminger was the night watch of Lakeview when a mob took his keys to the county jail from him at the point of two revolvers and then took Bill Thompson out of the jail and lynched him to the court house. This affair so impressed Heminger that he went crazy on that subject, thinking that the mob is after him and that the people of Lakeview have it in for him.

A Mining Man in Trouble.

Tacoma, Nov. 8.—George W. Boggs, ex-city treasurer, was to-day arrested charged with embezzling $24,368 of the city's money. The charge states that he took the city cash, and in place put into the State Savings bank three notes that were worthless; one for $10,767; one for $7491, and one for $500; also that he entered an item as "campaign fund," amounting to $5608. It seems that whenever he wanted money, he would draw on the bank and put notes in place of the cash. As to the campaign fund item, the bookkeeper at the bank explains that Boggs told him he had spent over $5000. Upon the bookkeeper asking him how he should charge the amount, Boggs said: "Oh, charge in to the campaign fund." The note for $10,000 is absolutely worthless, and the others would not realize 10 cents on the dollar.

Pending the preliminary examination Boggs is about on a bail bond.

Ringing Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing sound, are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. By the Shotgun Route.

Wm. Schubert, a 38-year-old Austrian, arose from his bed at his place on Oak creek, east of Roseburg, Thursday morning, and shot himself in the mouth with a shot gun, scattering his brains all over the room. His wife immediately went to his room and found him lying dead over a box. He was the principal witness in the case against Beckman, whose trial for the murder of his wife and child comes up in December.

A cup of Parks' Tea at night moves the bowels in the morning without pain or discomfort. It is a great health giver and blood purifier. Sold by E. A. Sherwin.

PENNOYER ON THE ELECTIONS.

The Governor Writes a Statement of his Views and Talks to a Reporter.

Portland Oregonian, Nov. 9th.]

Governor Sylvester Pennoyer seems to regard the outcome of the recent election in the light of a huge joke on the democratic party, planned and executed by Wall street and President Cleveland. The defeat of the democratic party, he says, did not surprise him, but he was somewhat astonished at the "bigness" of it. The governor, by request, prepared the following brief statement for the press:

"Two years ago the people jumped out of the frying-pan into the fire. This year they have jumped back into the frying-pan again. This election landslide is really an unwitting rebuke to Cleveland for adhering to the republican financial policy until the country is nearly bankrupt."

When seen at his residence last night, Governor Pennoyer very emphatically declared that he had nothing to add to the above expression of his views at the present time, but he courteously answered a number of questions propounded to him upon various phases of the election. Several times he hesitated, as if about to give full vent to his feelings, but after glancing thoughtfully at the corner of the rug at his feet, shook his head, laughed heartily, and said that he might say something that would startle the public, but guessed he had better not do so now. When pressed to explain Tammany's defeat, he at length said:

"A very prominent citizen of this city, Ex-Senator Corbett, said publicly a year ago that he owned property in New York and in Portland, and that he knew from experience that the taxes in the former city were only half as great as at home. Tammany gave New York an economical government. It may have been a little corrupt, but not more so than that of any other large city in the land. The recent Lexow inquiry only developed the fact that the police were taking money from the prostitutes and gamblers, and where don't they do that?

"Tammany was the only power that successfully fought Wall street, and we owe it much for that. It was Tammany that elected Thomas Jefferson, and that fought the power of the banks under the banner of Jackson and elected him president. I attribute the downfall of Tammany to the combined power of Wall street, Grover Cleveland and Parkhurst —a trinity of skunks. Cleveland is a fraud, so is Parkhurst, and Wall street is the greatest of the three. I have a warm spot in my heart for Tammany, if for no other reason than simply because it always reckoned Cleveland a fraud. It was the money power that elected Cleveland, and, through him, defeated Tammany, and now the people will be kept dancing about in the frying-pan for another two years.

"I do not care to say more, nor can I make any prediction for the future. The time is not ripe. The democratic party has been defeated, and badly defeated, and we must now wait to see how it will recuperate."

During the time he was talking, the governor seemed tobe brimming over with good humor. He apparently was tempted to express his views more freely, but refrained from doing so for reasons which he did not explain.

From an outside source it was learned that Governor Pennoyer grew quite facetious over the defeat of Representative Wilson in West Virginia. He sent him a copy of his recent Thanksgiving proclamation, with the following words underscored:

"In the day of adversity, consider."

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is acertain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the soul reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Ashland Drug Company.

He Got the Russet Shoes.

Oliver Van Ostend, the New York electric expert, is very fond of driving and a day or so ago told his groom to have the mare he most favors for a spin in the park freshly shod. Being in a merry mood, he added, "If the blacksmith has any russet shoes, tell him to fit her out with that kind." What was his surprise to get a bill for a complete set of fine copper shoes, especially made to order; but, as the joke was on him, he paid up without protesting.—New York Mail and Express.

Chicago's Fire Dove.

Speaking of the recent big fire in Chicago, The Herald of that city said, "Soaring high above the three blocks of blazing lumber and calcined walls was a white dove (the same bird fluttered its wings over the desolation of 1871), which sailed twice around the burning district and then disappeared."

Parks' Tea clears the complexion. Mrs N. Meyette, of Le Roy, N. Y., says: "I have tried Parks' Tea and find it the best remedy I have ever tried," Sold by E. A. Sherwin.

A MYSTERIOUS CONVICT.

He Conceals His Identity, but Not His Brilliant Accomplishments.

"Who is Hogan?" is a question which has troubled prison officers at the southern Illinois penitentiary for years. Hogan is the brightest convict, intellectually, in the prison and is one of the most valuable because of his versatility. Interest in Hogan has increased materially since Governor Altgeld, a few days ago, commuted his sentence from 48 to 21 years, and on next Christmas eve Hogan will transplant his talents to more congenial surroundings.

Thomas Hogan, "Peggy" Ryan and a man named Pritchard were beating their way across the country in 1873, and one day in September they boarded a Chicago and Alton freight train in Greene county, near Carrollton, and found several other tramps in possession. A fight ensued. During the melee one of the tramps was thrown from or fell off the train and was killed. Hogan, Ryan and Pritchard were arrested for murder. They were quickly disposed of at the rate of 48 years each in the penitentiary.

The prison officers soon recognized Hogan's superior talents and placed him where he could render valuable service. He took a deep and intelligent interest in every duty assigned to him and was very quiet, orderly and neat in everything he did. He never gave up a word as to his parents, relatives or home. He never wrote a letter, except to his lawyer, or received one, but it is confidently believed that Hogan is highly connected. He is a college graduate.

Said Warden Baker, speaking of Hogan: "Do we want a translation from the Greek or Latin inscription, Hogan does it. If any piece of copy is to be written in a copper plate hand, Hogan does it in the most elegant manner. If we require a trial balance made, Hogan makes it. He is filled with accurate information upon all sorts of subjects and makes all kinds of calculations with ease, yet he never volunteers to say a word unless asked. He appears to be contented and applies himself diligently to his duties. He is one of the best prisoners we have."

A correspondent met Hogan in the office the other day and was greeted by a cordial handshake. "Yes, I am very glad I am going out," he said. "I have been here 21 years and am anxious for a change. I have had some very warm friends here during that time among the officers, whom I shall be pleased to see again." And he led the conversation away from himself as if he wished to avoid it.—Chicago Correspondent.

Parks' Sure Cure is a positive specific in all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys. By removing the uric acid in the blood it cures rheumatism. S. B. Bashford, of Carthage, S. Dak., says: "I believe Parks' Sure Cure excels all other medicines for Rheumatism and Urinary disorders." Sold by E. A. Sherwin.

Misery and Torture.

Father Ignatius is calling attention to the miserable lack of preaching ability among the clergy of the English church. His criticisms are fully justified, even when he declares:

"It is high time that something were done to prevent the grievous torture inflicted every Sunday upon so large a number of the church going population. Why should people who are utterly unable to preach be compelled to try to do so Sunday after Sunday for the whole course of their lives? They are a misery to themselves and a torture to their fellow creatures, and they cause many persons to dread the Sabbath and the house of God."

PUNISHED FOR CURIOSITY.

A Learned Chinese Doctor Pays Dearly For a Little Innocent Sightseeing.

It is dangerous to gratify curiosity or to violate precedent at the Chinese imperial court. The empress dowager is a great stickler for etiquette. Recently she required the services of Dr. Li Tech'ang, vice president of the Imperial Academy of Physicians, at Peking, for one of the members of her suit at Eho Park palace. The learned doctor had never been inside these famous palace grounds, and his curiosity was fired to see the many curious objects of which he had heard wonderful tales. So he bribed a palace eunuch to show him around the grounds.

While the two were leisurely walking about and enjoying themselves the empress spied them. She at once dispatched servants to punish their effrontery. The eunuch was seized, thrown on his face and accommodated with 50 blows with the bamboo on the calves of his fat legs. The doctor was docked three months' pay and received a severe reprimand, while his assistant was ordered never to venture again into the empress' presence.

The affair created a sensation because of the high position of the physician and of the humiliating punishment dealt out to him.—New York Sun.

Sale of the Thousand Islands.

The government is rejoicing over the sale of the Thousand islands, which, it appears, are going off cheap for cash. Over 300 have been sold for the paltry sum of $40,000, or, say, $125 each. The Ontario government was not given much time to consider their purchase. The Dominion government has had its own way. The "nigger in this woodpile" is yet to be discovered. Just what motive is behind the determination of the government to sell the islands in spite of public opinion is not evident. Those who remember all the Rykert and other timber land deals, and who look back over the 13 years' record of this most corrupt government, will look for revelations in connection with this matter some day.—Montreal Witness.
