Broke Jail at Yreka.

City Marshal Erskine Parks of Yreka was in Ashland Friday hunting for Fred Buddha, a mulatto, who, while lying in the county jail awaiting his second trial, jury having disagreed, charged with burglarizing Rostel's barbershop at Sisson, escaped last Thursday night. The prisoner was locked in the cell formerly occupied by Wm. Null, one of the murders lynched last August. In some way he managed to procure a portion of a meat saw, with which he cut one of the steel bars near the lock and opened his cell. Once out in the main corridor, his escape was easily effected by sawing away two of the bars from an upper window. He has since been captured.
