J. F. Duffy's Troubles.

The S. F. Stock Market. The Oregonian of last Friday contains a two column story of the mining deal between John F. Duffy, a mining expert who spent some money developing a cinnabar prospect on Wagner creek about a year ago and who became quite well known in this section. He was in charge of a quartz mine in ElDorado county, Cal., owned by Dr. A. C. Smith, excounty physician of Multnomah county. A rich pocket was found and some valuable specimens were left in a trunk in charge of Duffy at the mine while the considered a candidate by the candidates and their first monthly program did them credit and those who failed to hear it, missed a treat. Ashland Suit Club.

A DOLLAR is a mighty sensible thing to have around your clothes, because you can never be "broke" while you keep it. But a dollar hoarded does no good to the hoarder. Put your dollar in a SUIT CLUB. Money grows only in use. How to use your dollar to the best advantage-invest in a Suit Club. Anybody can spend a dollar and get rid of it, but not everybody can spend a dollar and be made richer by the bargian. Take a tip from the undersigned—join our Suit Club—satisfy yourself by thorough examination of the goods that you are doing well in joining, and above all "hang on" to your dollar until you "get into" our Suit Club.
