The speech was delived at the Commercial club in response to President Baker of the Civic Federation, who criticised the city administration and mentioned the feeling existing over the council giving franchises to cable and electric roads and other corporations without compensation. Many millionaires were present and the mayor talked plainly to them. He said: "Who is it that come into the common council and asks for such privileges? Who are accused of giving bribes for such franchises? It is just the same ones, the same prominent citizens that come into the same council chamber and ask them to give them the right to occupy space under your streets. I tell you these questions come home.

Talk about anarchy; talk about breeding spirit of communism. What does it more than the representative citizens of Chicago? Your high-toned business men? Your patriotic men? Your prom inent citizens of Chicago are the men who knock at the door of the council and ask for illegal franchises. It is not the cemmon people. Who bribe the common council? sum to which such county is limited, but the provision is specific and clear in the limitation prescribed with the single qualification quoted. There is not a county in the state which is not interested in the final decision on this matter, as they have exceeded the constitutional limit. Judge Eaken in the Baker county case decided that all the honestly contracted indebtedness must be paid. He man at Willows, Cal., attempted to kill does not believe that a county can repudiate its debts even in the face of this constitutional provision. No doubt but what this is equity and an honest view of the case. But on the other hand, there Morrell coal works at Dunbar, Pa., are Morrell coal works at Dunbar, Pa., are can be no question what the framers of the constitution meant when they inserted this section. It was that no county could incur a legal indebtedness in excess of $5,000. We are of the opinion that the firmers of the principal of the principal
