The Knife of Max Pracht.
In the voting for national delegates at the republican state convention, Max Pracht received 23 out of 230. The Evening Telegraph reports this case: Prior to the voting Max Pracht, of Ashland, who had come into the convention equipped with a bundle of salivary prints in large type reading "For delegate at large to the St. Louis convention, I vote for Max Pracht of Ashland. He's all right," hurriedly ascended the platform and declared his withdrawal as a candidate, claiming he had been "jobbed." He said: "I came before this convention assured of a place on the regular ticket by one of the Multnomah county factions and his seat Pracht turned toward where the Simon faction were seated and in angry tones said: "Senator Dolph, you've got me to fight from this on. This turning of me down is a cold-blooded outrage.
Joe Simon, you are not through with yet." With his face dark with disappointed ambition, Pracht then resumed his seat in the day Max patched up his grievance with the Portland crowd and re-entered the race. He was not elected a delegate but succeeded in getting well-paid and thus became an alternate, which will give him considerable federal pay when McKinley gets in. Max was on Monday's train en route east via California.

Circuit Court Proceeding.
The following jurors were chosen: Hiram Farlow, Mr. Breeding, O. T. Brown and R. S. Sutton.

Chas. Stutz is court bailiff and Frank Kasner, bailiff for grand jury.
The following cases have been disposed of: Sabon vs. Bloomer, Crommiller & Co., to recover money advanced.

Miller vs. Hockersmith, same, continued for the term.

Hamlin vs. Hockersmith, writ of review, settled.

Neil vs. G. W. Boggs & C. P. Jones, to recover money advanced.

J. N. Englewood and E. Englewood vs.
Frank Carter, to recover personally property, dismissed.

The S. P. Co. has made some changes in its rates in charge of the stock in railroads. The men accompanying the cattle will be given free passes for the return trip, formerly half fare was charged for the return ticket.

Men's fine flannel underwear, worth $1.50, reduced to $1.00 at J. R. Baltimore's.

Miss Portia Knight, the accomplished daughter of Col. N. B. Knight, the Salem lawyer and Klamath judge, is now now playing leading lady to Frederick Ward, the tragedian. She has been playing an amusing part when Ward saw her delineation of Shakespearean characters her true merit at once secured her this high honor.

Men's cotton underwear 25 cents and 50 cents, excellent value, at J. R. Baltimore's.

Ex-Gov. Pennoyer was nominated for mayor of Portland by the stock in railroads. The governor is all right and when communities are in sore straits by reason of being taxed to death, robbed blind, awfulled on every corner and buncoed and humbugged by the impostors, selfish, greedy and aggregated stupidity, then it is that the sound sense of well informed, solid minded citizens is the only salutation. Pennoyer will be elected.

Articles of incorporation were filed this week, forming the Mt. Hood Valley Railroad Company. This new road proposes to start at Moss and extend into Spaulding, tapping the vast timber belt in eastern part of the county. The construction of this road will be started soon, and will be the means of furnishing employment to a large number of men. The Mt. Hood section is destined to be the liveliest place in Northern Oregon this summer. The capital stock of the new company is $1,000,000, and the stockholders are James Palmer, John A. Davis, David E. Miles and Wm.
J. Brantner. At least the road will be run about twenty miles.

You can now go and buy your summer clothing. Vasey, Norris & Drake have received their big stock and are pleased to show you a line of men's, boys' and children's goods that can't be beat for low prices and good values.

Ex-Attorney-General Geo. E. Chamberlain is the nominee of the taxpayers here in Portland. They expect this convention in the metropolis and the decent people who have been maintaining a city government of a thousand thieves under the name of the republican party, have just about woken up to the condition that is confronting them and an effort will be made to ease some of the mauls in the city jail in place of housing them in city halls and court houses. Mr. Chamberlain combines the element of popularity with sound principles and integrity; and that city needs just such men as he is at this time.

Calver & Co., at the mouth of Bark-house creek, have their shaft down between 30 and 40 feet, and find no difficulty whatever in keeping the mine clear of water with the new pump recently put in. The prospect at this mine would indicate that it will be one of the best paying mines along the river.

The Barkhouse Creek mines of Billupe, Humphrey & Quigley, are still producing some handsome quartz which the owners are satisfied will prove to be far richer than anything they have crushed in the past.

From Captain Brown, manager of the Elmer-Brown copper mines, near Waldco, it is learned that a full force of men has been put to work in the mines, developing and taking out ore. A large proportion of these ores—the oxidized, bleached and high enough to bear shipment, so that, pending the erection of the new smelting works, these ores will be hauled to Grants Pass, and shipped to the coast for exportation.

By water to New York, where they will be treated by the Orford reduction works.
Captain Brown further says that they 10th he expects to have the new plant proposed to be erected at both the Waldco and Siskiyou mines in process of construction, but he says that the machinery first put in operation. The additions to the present machinery at both places will consist of reverbatory and fuming arrangements. The new plant will be made during the coming week. The two companies owning these groups of mines, intend to start the new plant this summer in the development and equipment of the mines, and thus employment will be given to a number of men at a time when the season is otherwise dull.

Not Enough Means.
The unmusical manager who pro-saying to him, "I don't pay you to rest," was the same one who, on anwere representing allegorical characters.

"Here in front," said the author of the piece which was to be given, "we will put the nine muses."
"Nine muses!" exclaimed the great manager contemptuously. "Nine muses would look well in that great space, wouldn't they? We will have 80 muses!" —Youth's Companion.

THE PLATFORM.
The representatives of the republicans of the State of Oregon, in convention assembled, do hereby adopt the following platform of policy and business throughout the country, as a proof of the necessity of returning to the gold standard, and as a guarantee that the present currency of the country is a full and complete redemption of the national debt.

Protection.—We believe that the government should have ample means for the sufficient surplus over ordinary expenditures to provide for the maintenance of a sufficient building up of the navy, and for the constant reduction of the public debt.
We believe that the present currency of the country is a full and complete redemption of the national debt, and that the present system of undervaluation, and discrimination against localities, should be replaced by a uniform system of valuation, similar to that of the McKinley bill, and arranged to give the protection to American wages and American industry, and to restore the reciprocity policy of James G.
Blaine.

We have always given protection to our shippers. In later years we have endeavored to protect our shippers. We believe the time has come to return to the policy of Washington, Hamilton, and Jay, which discriminated in favor of American labor and our manufacturing industry, and to trade to American ships, and which, if now restored, would again revive our shipping and customs to the benefit of the American people.

Finance.—The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetallism, and the republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as legal tender, with such restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will insure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of gold or silver, shall be as at all times.

The producers of the country—its farmers and its workmen—demand that every dollar, paper or coin, shall be a full and complete redemption of the national debt, and that no other dollar.

Resolved.—Resolved that we earnestly endorse the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States which provides for the election of United States Senators by popular vote, recently reported from the committee on privilege and elections by the Senate, and now pending consideration in the United States Senate.

Resolved.—Resolved, that the application of the Oregon delegation in the United States Senate, in favor of the States and now pending before him, praying a modification of his proclamation creating the Cascade Forest Reserve, is hereby approved, and we appeal to the President to grant the prayer of our delegation in Congress.

Resolved.—We realize the importance and the spirit of industry on the Columbia river, and would recommend that some provisions be made for a state canal, to be constructed by the State, and that the laws regarding the close season be rigidly enforced.

Resolved.—That we endorse the efforts of our representatives in congress to secure the reclamation of the excess of $125 per acre, wrongfully collected by the government on lands forfeited in the case of unproductive Northern Pacific railroad land grant now located in the State of Oregon.

Resolved.—The construction of the canal is of the highest importance to the American people, both as a measure of preservation to our own people of the remainder of our national domain.

Internal Improvements.—We commend the policy of the republican party in relation to internal improvements, and, in particular, in opening our waterways to commerce, and we denounce the liberality of the democratic party in these matters.

Indicted the Law.
A friend of Representative Culberson of Texas related the following incident: "When Mr. Culberson was prosecuting attorney," he said, "there was a criminal case pending in the district court, the indictment of a well known man for violation of this law was secured through the efforts of Mr. Culberson, who proceeded the case with more vigor than almost any other case. It was conducted conceding in securing a conviction and sentence to the penitentiary. Then he left town, and no one knew where he had gone until he and the prisoner, who had been taken to the penitentiary, returned together. Mr. Culberson had gone to the governor, obtained a pardon, and met the convict at the penitentiary, with it. The law had been vindicated, and there were no more violations of that statute in Jefferson."—Washington
