Medford, Oct. 10,—Southern Oregon was visited by the worst wind storm this afternoon that it has had in years. For nearly an hour the streets were filled with dust, and travel was in a measure stopped.

Harry Lyle Baker, son of the silver party chairmrn of California, was in town with Judge Hurley and accompanies him east. Harry is just a little bit the hottest swell that has struck this burg and he created a flutter of excitement in the female world.

A. S. Barnes, the genial people's party sheriff of this county, was in town this week and listened to Ben Butterworth's speech. Bro. Barnes was a sympathetic listener, as he also has on his conscience a similar case of "before and after" taking.

D. S. McCollum of Keno was in town this week and after a visit with relatives goes to Stockton, Cal., where he will place on the market a valuable invention of his own, a varmint trap he has had patented. It is an improvement on anything yet invented and a six pound model killed a big California lion in short order.

Dr. D. Ream, the skilful physician and surgeon of Yreka was at Medford this week on a business trip. Dr. Ream is a pioneer citizen of Siskiyou county and one of its conspicous historical figures. For years he was the recognized head of the democratic party of that county, carrying its banner on to victory as often as there was an election. He predicts Bryan will carry Siskiyou county by 400 majority.

The Ashland high school team and the second team of the state normal school will have a match game on election day and are in training for the event. The ladies of the normal school have received from the east the proper instruments and paraphernalia and are indulging in the new game of "basket ball," which promises to be a great rage. It is a milder form of knock down and drag out than foot ball and is played with bloomer accompaniments. It is very interesting and causes the foot ball boys to leave their grounds and sit on the fence to look at the girls roll over.

John Kearney of Central Point returned Sunday from a five months trip to Guelf, Canada, and Chicago. He had not heard from his family since their early childhood and had an interesting experience in again getting acquainted. When he left home there were no boys in the family and a lot of girls. The family had forgotten John as the boy that was killed by the Indians out west soon after leaving home. It took some time for identification as several of his sisters had died and there had sprung up a lot of boys who have become fathers of large families. The reunion was a very interesting event, as his hale and aged mother was still alive.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by Ashland Drug Co

BEN TILLMAN COMING.

South Carolina's Noted Senator Will be in Jackson and Josephine Counties Oct. 21st and 22d, Accompanied by His Pitchfork.

U. S. Senator Benjamin Ryan Tillman of South Carolina will speak in behalf of Bryan and free silver at Grants Pass Wednesday, Oct. 21st, and in Jackson county Thursday, Oct. 22d. The Jackson county dates will be for Medford and Jacksonville. He will then leave for California. Rousing meetings are anticipated.

Senator Tillman is a statesman of iron nerve and to him and Gov. Altgeld is due the change that came over the dull spirit of the democratic party in the southern and middle states, and it was the early work of these two men that made it possible for the Chicago convention, its grand platform and its heroic candidate for president. Others did their part with long-winded essays that were very beautiful, hurt nobody's tender, girl-like feelings and received the formal congratulations of all the stuffed-shirt dignity people in their list of social acquaintances. But hell-holes of plutocracy were intrenched too deeply in this government. It was moral-intell-ectual dynamite that was needed and the great demand made the supply and this nation will really have to thank the Lord yet for its deliverance to the Tillmans, Altgelds, Pennoyers, Waits and Watsons.

Melson to be Tried at Grants Pass.

Sheriff Hiatt of Josephine county was on Sunday's train for Sacramento, Cal., to present requisition papers from Gov. Lord to Gov. Budd for Melson, lying in the Del Norte, Cal., county jail for the murder of Chas. Perry. The murder occurred just over the line in Curry county, but as the Oregon law allows either county jurisdiction when the crime was committed within 100 yards on either side of the line, Sheriff Hiatt will take his man from Crescent City to Grants Pass this week for trial.

Mills Changed Hands.

The Butte Creek Roller Flour Mills Co., heretofore conducting the mills at Eagle Point, have separated, Wm. H. and S. B. Holmes taking the mills at Central Point and Welch Bros., Dr. Barr and Max Muller the Central Point mill. Max Muller is general manager of the Central Point mill, Frank Hawk miller and M. S. Welch home manager. Holmes Bros. took charge of their mill Monday. This still further divides the ownership of the mills in the county and the farmers expect to see the millers get so diversified that the price of wheat will go up to the top notch.

Wood Wanted.

50 cords of oak and 50 cords of pine or fir. Bids wanted. Apply to J. Conner, Hotel Oregon.

County Recorder W. E. Anderson was up from Jacksonville or Phoenix yesterday and was a pleasant caller at the RECORD office. Bro. Ed. will feel very much better from now on, having relieved his bosom by delivering a long, loud and noisy speech at the editor of this paper and after its delivery "stopped the paper." So if this "vile sheet" does not reach you this week, gentle reader, you will now know the reason why. The cause of Bro. Ed's, "hot box" was a difference of opinion in regard to the last people's party platform—whether the platform was like a railroad platform, to get in on, and not to stand on, or whether it was for the purpose of standing on and living up to. But inasmuch as our esteemed brother's eloquence and warmth convinced us how the folks at the court house stood (unanimous) before he "stopped the paper" we have serious misgiving as to whether the people of this county will ever find out their unbiased views.

Two Defaulting Sheriff's In Benton.

Corvallis, Or., Oct. 10.—The report of James H. Wilson, appointed to examine the books of Benton county, has caused much comment on the streets. The report shows an apparent shortage in the sheriff's office of more than $9300, $8000 of this amount during the incumbency of ex-sheriff Osburn. The remainder is in the accounts of ex-sheriff Mackey. Mr. Mackey is now in British Columbia and Mr. Osburn left for Montana, so no explanation is offered for the shortage.

In the county court Mr. Osburn was given until the next session to explain or make good the deficiency. Mr. Osburn is expected home and his friends have an expert to discover flaws in Mr. Wilson's report.

Roseburg, Oct. 7.—The coroner's jury today held an inquest on the bodies of Albert Toy, John McConigle and George R. Happersett, who were killed in the collision yesterday on the Southern Pacific near this city. The jury found no one guilty of breaking the regulations of running, but there was a deficiency in judgement as to the distance from the log that would make them safe in commencing to flag again which according to their evidence, they intended to resume.

James Andrews, living on Point Lobos road, San Francisco, says:

THE EDWIN W. JOY CO.—GENTLEMEN: I wish to thank you, gentlemen, for the great good which your Joy's Vegitable Sarsaparilla has done for my weak eyes. I thought I would soon go blind. I was actually loosing my sight. My eyes were so weak I had to stop reading day and night. Jessie read all the papers for me.

After using four bottles of Joy's Vegitable Sarsaparilla, I put away the green glasses and can now see as well as I ever could. My blood is in good condition. I am not weak at all. Yes, I do praise your Joy's Vegitable Sarsaparilla. No one should take any other sarsaparilla but Joy's Vegitable Sarsaparilla.

JAMES ANDREWS.

A Week of Political Speakings.

M. A. Hurley, a lawyer who owns a gold mine in Calaveras county, Cal., and is an ex-supreme judge of Wisconsin, spoke in Ashland and Medford last Thursday and Friday in behalf of Bryan. He is an old republican.

Hon. H. L. Barkley made a grand speech in Ashland Saturday night in behalf of Bryan, and was pronounced as the most eloquent speaker that has addressed an audience in this campaign. He spoke to a big crowd at Medford Monday afternoon. Barkley made lots of friends here for the cause and himself.

Ben Butterworth of Ohio spoke to a large audience at Chautauqua tabernacle Monday evening. He was met at Siskiyou by Judge Chas. H. Carey and Hon. O. N. Denny of Portland, Max Pracht of Jerusalem, Dr. J. W. Robinson of Jacksonville, Conductor Geo. W. Lynde and a delegation of Ashland republicans. The Ashland band in uniform and the Willits, Bolton, Eddy and Walsworth quartette furnished the vocal music. Conductor Lynde introduced C. B. Watson, who introduced the speaker. The Bryanites had copious extracts from Ben Butterworth's letter to Senator Teller printed and circulated. They appear on the first page of this issue. Butterworth acknowledged the same and said they were his views and those of the republican party yet. But the next hour he was engaged in knocking the stuffing out of the propositions set forth in his letter to Teller. Butterworth is a pleasant speaker and done as well as could be expected under the circumstances. He spoke at Medford Tuesday afternoon and his tell-tale views in favor of bimetalism and a moderate tariff accompanied him there, where the venerable old Quaker again tied himself up in a knot.

On Tuesday evening Judge W. S. Crowell was greeted in the same place with a splendid audience. The Ashland Band was secured for the occasion and discoursed music on the street and in the hall, and Messers. Beswick and Howell favored the audience with a couple campaign duets. Frank Williams introduced the speaker who said this was his first political speech on national issues since his residence in this section and represented the honest convictions of his heart and that he had never talked to this people, from the rostrum, anything but his convictions. Judge Crowell declared the tariff was not in it and delivered a partisan speech that pleased the Bryanites to the Queen's taste. Besides setting forth some telling arguments the speaker worked into the audience some feeling of sentiment by acting; much of his rich roast on Hanna, McKinley and Butterworth being through the arts of a performer, his two principle lines being high tragedy and low comedy. He nailed Butterworth's record to the cross in good shape and fine finish and brought out something new. He had business with Butterworth's law firm and in a recent letter asked "Is Butterworth a gold-bug? The reply dated Washington, July 21st and dictated and signed by Butterworth said: "Mr. Butterworth is not a gold-bug; but a red hot, uncompromising silver man and will so remain until the end of time and things, and he remarks further the silver men are very numerous hereabouts in the republican party and will grow more and more until the perfect day." The speaker also read the following telegram from Butterworth, dated Washington, July 18, 1896, to A. J. Warner, the siver champion, who was at St Louis preparing for the populist convention convening there. "Where in St. Louis will a letter reach you? I am devoted to the cause of bimetallism, firm as a rock. Will write fully. Answer." So it looked like Butterworth intended joining the "anarchist, repudiationists and populists." But late in August the associated press dispatches announced that Butterworth had called on McKinley at Canton "and that do settle it." Hanna soon sent him west.

The Railroad Assessment Raised.

The important business before the county board of equalization at Jacksonville was the railroad assessment, which has became a celebrated case in this county within the past year or so. The company filed their usual petition for a reduction, but the full board, consisting of Judge Crowell, Assesor Klippel and County Clerk Jackson unanimously stood by the celebrated "Jackson assessment" which raises the lands, etc., very materialy and the roadbed from $4500 to $10,000 per mile. It is an eminently just assessment and will help relieve the resident tax-payers of a considerable burden. There is nothing like agitation after all, and this turn in events is an encouraging sign that even politicians can be moved when the people in their sovereign might rise up and present them with an "object lesson" such as the physical evidence of what they want as it was in the case of Mr. Jackson. Messrs. Klippel and Crowell, never the less, are entitled to great respect and will be given due credit in the hearts of the people for doing their duty in this matter.

For the second time within thirty days the Sonora and Oakdale stage has been stopped by masked men. There was only one bandit seen and he stood behind a tree, but it is thought that he had confederates. Barnett, the owner of the line, and Fred Johnson, the driver, were riding on the box. At the robber's command the mail pouches, strong box of Wells Fargo and baggage were dropped by the roadside. The treasure was small.

Two of San Francisco's best known, wealthiest and most popular society people, Walter Castle and his wife, are, according to dispatches from London, in jail in that city awaiting the outcome of a charge of larceny. Relatives say that it is some dreadful mistake, and the idea that Walter Castle and his wife would steal anything is simply ridiculous.

There is a deserted gold mine six miles northeast of Porterville, out of which nearly a thousand dollars' worth of gold has been recently taken.

Three desperate criminals in the city prison of San Francisco made a daring attempt to break jail. They had made a false key, and had their scheme worked the chance of their capture would have been very slight, as the day on which they planned to escape nearly the entire police force were on parade and drill.

The Reliance football team of Oakland is planning a trip to Denver, Butte and Portland. Manager Cal. Ewing is in correspondence with the teams in the three cities named. The plans are not yet matured, but in the rough they are as follows: Leave Oakland on November 14th, play the club of Denver November 21st; the Butte eleven on Thanksgiving day; in Portland the following Saturday.

Forest fires are raging in Southern California and the country's timber resources as well as its water supply is threatened with almost complete destruction. If the San Gabriel Canyon fire and the one sweeping along the Te Junga unite there is no possibility of preventing the almost total destruction of the greatest body of timber in Southern California. Flames have appeared on the top of the range on which the Mount Lowe railway is located.

DEAFNESS CURED IN 10 MINUTES

By Dr. Darrin now Stopping at the Hotel Oregon, Ashland.

MR. EDITOR: For years have heard of Dr. Darrin's "Ten Minute Cures," but I confess I had little faith in him or the reported cures until Oct. 14th when I mustered up faith enough to try him for almost total deafness. I had been bothered with a gradual deafness for about six years. The past few days I was quite unable to hear any conversation and was nearly run over by a team. Dr. Darrin cured me with electricity free in ten minutes so I can hear a whisper. I can never thank Dr. Darrin enough and most emphaticaly recommend him to all. I have lived in Telo, Jackson county, Ore., the past 3 years and will gladly answer all enquiries by letter or in person. J. P. HARR.

JUST COME TO LIGHT.

An Ashland Witness of Dr. Darrin's Cures.

MR. EDITOR: For the benefit of the afflicted in Ashland and vicinity I wish to state what I know of Dr. Darrin, now stopping at the Hotel Oregon until Oct. 17.

Five years ago, Mrs. G. W. Applegate of Yoncolla, Or., was induced by my wife to visit Dr. Darrin for almost total deafness, that had troubled her several years. She was cured in a few months and remains permanent to this day. My wife visited Dr. Darrin for an ovarian tumor. He pronounced the case incurable and would not take the case. I reside at the Hotel Oregon and can be referred to any time. While in Portland I saw an old lady carried to the doctor's office, being crippled with chronic rheumatism. In a few days she was walking about a cured woman. H. J. MATTOON.

LETTER FROM A GRATEFUL PATIENT.

Wilderville, Or. Oct. 13, 1896,

MR. DR. DARRIN, Dear Sir—Yours of 11th inst. just received. My husband is not at home and I write you to say that he and a dear old neighbor of ours, Elder Brown, have already made arrangements to go to Grants Pass to see you. I am so thankful to you for the interest you have taken in my husband and the good your treatment has done him for deafness, catarrh and discharging ears. He is like a new man and is a living advertisement of your skill. I intend to write my mother and brothers who live in Clark county Washington, and are suffering from catarrh, to visit you when you return home. From a grateful wife, Truly Yours,

MRS. J. A. EGGERS.

Santa Barbara will not have her annual festival next year. This has been definitely decided upon by the board of directors of the Santa Barbara Floral Festival Association. The main reasons given for the action are that similar festivities are common to many California cities, and that tourists delay visiting the city until festival week and depart immediately after.

T. H. Goodman, general passenger and ticket agent of the Southern Pacific Co., who has been confined to his apartments for two weeks with an attack of rheumatism, has been steadily declining and is now so dangerously ill that his recovery is doubtful, and his relatives in the East have been notified of his condition.

The precedents in the case of the Castles, the San Franciscans arrested in London on a charge of stealing, do not tend to make the outlook very hopeful. Mr. Castle, it is believed, will be discharged from custody, but Mrs. Castle's plea in court will be kleptomania. The defense has collected medical evidence as to Mrs. Castle's condition, and friends of the family in both hemispheres are doing their utmost in their behalf.

The net returns from the late Home Products fair, recently held in San Francisco, are estimated to be $7000. The gross revenues were $35,000 and the expenses about $28,000. The agreement with the Manufacturers' Association was that that organization should receive a percentage on all net profits in excess of $10,000. The profits this year were larger, relatively, than for any fair in the past four years. The 25-cent admission cut the revenue in two, but largely increased the attendance, which is estimated at 500,000.

The retirement of Lord Roseberry from the Liberals has occasioned quite a sensation in London political circles. The comments in the various journals are colored by their political views, and, the Star remarks, Roseberry's fall was dramatic and tragic. The hand which raised him pulled him down. One result of Lord Roseberry's reign is that it may be said that the Liberals will never again be led by a peer.

Victor de Lesseps, son of the late Ferdinand de Lesseps, the famous engineer, promoter and diplomat, died in Paris at the age of forty-three. It was given out that his death was caused by an accidental fall, but the rumor is afloat that it was really a case of suicide.

George Du Maurier, artist, novelist and author of "Trilby," died in London a few days ago. One of Du Maurier's friends who was present at the deathbed said: "He died almost as tragically as Svengali. At the zenith of Trilby's fame Svengali became the victim of an affection of the heart. Du Maurier has gone the same way." He had finished his new story, "The Martians." It was probably the last thing he did. He received $50,000 for it.

Almost Distracted?

DID YOU EVER suffer from real nervousness? When every nerve seemed to quiver with a peculiar, creepy feeling, first in one place, and then another and all seemed finally to concentrate in a writhing jumble in the brain, and you become irritable, fretful and peevish; to be followed by an impotent, weakened condition of the nerve centers, ringing in the ears, and sleepless, miserable nights?

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health.....

Mrs. Eugene Searles, 110 Simonton St., Elkhart, Ind., says: "Nervous troubles had made me nearly insane and physicians were unable to help me. My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted. I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

going to school

Do the children go to school? And are they joyous and happy? Is school-life a pleasure? And is progress being made? Or is the opposite true? Does the close of each day bring a headache? There is no appetite and sleep is imperfect. The color gradually leaves the cheeks and only a little effort is followed by exhaustion. To continue school means to come to the end of the year with broken health. What is the best thing to do? Take of Cod-liver Oil, with hypophosphites. The cod-liver oil nourishes the body and makes red corpuscles for the blood. The hypophosphites are tonics to the nervous system, giving mental activity during the day and refreshing sleep at night. Don't let you child get thin and worry along. Give Scott's Emulsion; insist on a generous amount of out-door exercise; and the vigor of youth will return.
