THE TARIFF BI L PASSED

The Fifty-Fifth Congress Complete. Its

Labors and Adjourns. The Dingiey tariff bill passed its last egislative stage at Washington, D. C., aturday, July 24, when the Senate by a vote of 40 to 30 agreed to the conference report on the bill. The announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause by the crowded chamber. Within an hour after its passage President McKinley affixed his signature to it. This closed the great labor for which the Fify-fith Congress assembled in extradorinary session, and the Senate concurred with the House in a final adjournment of the session at nine o'clock that night.

An analysis of the vote on the tarifficonference report shows that the affirmative vote was cast by 37 Republicans, one Democrat (McEnery), one Silver Republican (Jones of Novada) and one Populist (Stewart). The negative vote was cast by 27 Democrats, and two Populists—Harris and Turner.
