Boils and Pimples Give Warning.

AN UNFAILING SIGN THAT NATURE IS APPEALING FOR HELP.

When Nature is overtaxed, she has her own way of giving notice that assistance is needed. She does not ask for help until it is impossible to get along without it. Boils and pimples are an indication that the system is accumulating impurities which must be gotten rid of; they are an urgent appeal for assistance—a warning that can not safely be ignored.

To neglect to purify the blood at this time means more than the annoyance of painful boils and unsightly pimples. If these impurities are allowed to remain, the system succumbs to any ordinary illness, and is unable to withstand the many ailments which are so prevalent during spring and summer.

Mrs. L. Gentile, 2004 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash., says: "I was afflicted for a long time with pimples, which were very annoying, as they disfigured my face fearfully. After using many other remedies in vain, S. S. S. promptly and thoroughly cleansed my blood, and now I rejoice in a good complexion, which I never had before."

Capt. W. H. Dunlap, of the A. G. S. R. R., Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "Several boils and carbuncles broke out upon me, causing great pain and annoyance. My blood seemed to be in a riotous condition, and nothing I took seemed to do any good. Six bottles of S. S. S. cured me completely and my blood has been perfectly pure ever since."

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

is the best blood remedy, because it is purely vegetable and is the only one that is absolutely free from potash and mercury. It promptly purifies the blood and thoroughly cleanses the system, builds up the general health and strength. It cures Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Tetter, Boils, Sores, etc., by going direct to the cause of the trouble and forcing out all impure blood.

INDIANS AS LUMBERMEN.

The Chippewas Are Getting Rich on Their Reservation Along Lake Superior.

The experiment of using Indian labor in the logging woods is being carried on by a lumber company of Duluth Minn., which has a contract for cutting many millions of feet of pine in reservations on the south shore of Lake Superior. The company's contracts were made with the Indian bureau. The Indians not only get money for their timber, which is invested by the government and paid to them in installments, but they are also kept at work so long as the timber remains on their hands, thus giving them employment and teaching them an occupation.

On the Red Cliff, Bad River and Lac de Flambeau reservations there are sawmills, each built and operated under this agreement with the Indian bureau, and all the adult male Indians who want work are kept busy all the year round. They have sold their timber for a large price, the government has put their money into bonds and pays them the interest. It gives them many other favors, and they are able to earn enough to keep themselves and their families in comfort, so that in time every Chippewa family on these reservations ought to be well off. For years there has not been a time when these Indians were in need of food, nor have they ever become beggars, as most other reds have when once removed from their original territory.

The expiriment of working these Indians was undertaken with considerable timidity, but it has proven successful. It has been found that three men must be kept ready for the work that two whites would do, two workers and a "sub," for the Indian will not work long at a stretch. He must knock off once in awhile and take a rest in his tepee. An understudy is necessary to keep the force up to full strength. In most cases they are not trusted with responsible work. In the woods they are choppers, cooks, swampers, but never teamsters or loaders. At the mills in summer they are common laborers, car pushers, pile loaders, etc., but seldom machine hands, head pilers, sawyers or skilled men. Skilled work they do at times, but usually in couples, with a white man to act as leader, as in the lumber piles, where three men are needed for the work. There are exceptions to this rule, and some of the Indians have shown as much aptitude for business as whites, and there are a few on each reservation who are taking contracts independently and doing well in the logging business. These are able to get along without white help. In most cases where ambitious Chippewas have tried contracting it has been found that the chief trouble was in the refusal of men of their own race to obey orders or to work for the Indian boss as they would for a white man. Most of the Indian contractors have gone broke as the result of just this fact.

About 45,000,000 feet of timber are being cut this winter on the three reservations in which these contracts have been made by the Indian department. In these operations some 400 Indians find as steady employment as they are willing to accept. They work well when they work at all, and receive the same wages as whites, from $20 to $24 a month and keep. In the summer at the mills they get from $1 to $1.25 per day.—N. Y. Sun.

RECORDING PEDIGREES.

Suggestions Furnished by a Prominent Record Association.

After obtaining pedigree blanks from the secretary of the association in which the breeder proposes to record, the folllowing from a leaflet published by one of the leading record associations should be observed:

A short, convenient name should be written on the pedigree before it is sent for record. If it is too long it will be abbreviated before the pedigree is numbered.

About the most important consideration is to have the names and addresses written plainly. Too little attention is paid to this matter and numerous errors result.

Give exact date of farrow, number in litter and number of each sex raised. The latter is most important, as a record is kept in the office of each litter to which a pedigree refers when received, and all pedigrees for this litter after sent in must agree in every particular.

Always give sex, as it is in many cases impossible to tell by the name whether the animal is male or female. Nothing need be given regarding sire and dam, except their names and numbers, but great care should be taken to have these correct. If the sire was owned at time of service by another party this should always be stated.

In giving owner of sire, give his owner at time of service. In giving owner of dam give her owner at time the litter was farrowed. The breeder of a litter is the person who owns, or has the dam leased at time of service. There is no exception to this rule. If the dam is sold after being bred and before she farrows, pedigrees for her litter should be made out as bred by the person who owned her at time of service and sold "in dam" to the person owning the dam at time she farrows.

The name of the person signing a pedigree should in all cases appear on the upper part of the pedigree, either in the space for "bred by" or "sold in dam to." Particular attention is called to this as there are more errors on pedigrees in this particular than in any other. No pedigree will be filed for record without the signature of the breeder, except in cases where the animal was sold "in dam." The signature of the party who raised the pig will then be sufficient, if proper breeding certificate is on file. All sales of an animal not yet recorded should be written only on the back of the pedigree, except the one made by the person signing the pedigree.

In sending pedigree of an animal purchased by another party, always send the pedigree as exactly made out and signed by the breeder. Do not make any changes in a pedigree signed by another person. If any are necessary, the pedigree should be referred to the person signing it. Never under any circumstances send a copy of the original pedigree for record.

BOOKKEEPING B. C.

Discovery of Clay Records of Business Transactions, Temp. Darius II.

An American archaeological expedition excavating at Nippur discovered recently in a room 20 feet below the surface some 730 clay tablets, the business records of a rich firm of merchants, Ulurashu Sons. These documents are dated in the reigns of Artaxerxes I. (464-424 B. C.) and Darius II. (423-405 B. C.). The tablets are of various sizes, some resembling the ordinary cake of soap of commerce. They are covered with cuneiform characters clear and distinct as when the bookkeeper of Ulurashu inscribed them 2,500 years ago, says the New York Commercial Advertiser.

Among them is this guaranty for 20 years that an emerald is so well set that it will not fall out:

"Bel-ahiddina and Bel-shumu, sons of Bel, and Hatin, son of Bazuza, spoke unto Bel-nadinshumu, son of Morashu, as follows: "As concerns the gold ring set with an emerald, we guarantee that for 20 years the emerald will not fall out of the ring. If it should fall out before the expiration of 20 years Bel-ahiddina (and the two others) shall pay to Bel-nadinshumu an indemnity of ten mana of silver."

Then follow the names of ten witneses and of an official who is described as "the scribe of the Concordance of Proper Names." The document concludes with the thumb-nail marks of the contracting parties.

There are also leases of various kinds and contracts for the sale of sun-dried bricks and other merchandise, and for the loan of seed corn and oxen for plowing.

THE ORDINARY SLEEPER

A New Feature in Western Travel.

The Pullman Company now operates two grades of sleeping cars via the RIO GRANDE WESTERN RAILWAY. The ordinary sleepers are entirely new, and the berths, both upper and lower, are fitted up complete with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, curtains, etc., with stoves arranged for making tea, coffee, etc., requiring nothing to be furnished by passengers. Uniformed Pullman porters are in charge of the cars, who are required to keep them in good order and attend to the wants and comforts of passengers The cars are very handsome and commodious, and while not so elegant, are just as comfortable as standard or palace sleepers. Both first and second-class passengers are permitted to occupy these cars on payment of the Pullman berth rates which are less than half of the rates charged in the regular Pullman palace sleeping cars.

The ordinary sleepers are carried daily on trains via RIO GRANDE WESTERN RAILWAY between Denver and San Francisco and Portland. On five days in each week the sleepers are run through between Los Angeles and San Francisco, or Portland and Denver, Omaha, Chicago and Boston.
