State Tax Levy Raised.

Salem, Jan. 11.—Governor Geer, Sec-retary of State Dunbar and State Treasurer Moore, acting jointly, today fixed the state tax levy at 63 mills, which, upon a valuation of $120,282,879, will raise $757,782.13. Last year the tax was 5.7 mills, and upon taxable property val-ued at $133,533,577, the sum of $761,143-

An industrious young rancher of Sur-prise valley, in Lake county, was re-cently wedded to a young woman of Mo doc county, California. The list of gifts to the couple appears in the Lakeview Examiner, and is headed with "a fine cow, presented by the parents of the bride." This may appear a trifle grotesque to young people of aimless life, who have never earned a dollar nor engaged in a productive calling; but to a 9th, aged 77 years. He was quite well known to Oregon pioneers, in Klamath county being affectionately termed the "swamp angel," by reason of his swamp land transactions in that section.
