POLITICAL NEWS ITEMS.

The Jackson county republican pri-maries Saturday at 2 o'clock promise to quite interesting and will without doubt be warmly contested at several points, notably for the large delegations going to the conventions from Ashland and Medford which seem to be the storm center of the campaign. The "big fish" of the local republican organiza-tion are fighting for control and the is-sues involved run the scale into national which complicates the usual arrangements of the republican leaders.

Hon. E. V. Carter wants the solid legation from Jackson county to the nal convention and he needs Lindsey Sisemore of Sams Valley was it bad. Many republicans, for various in town this week. different stated reasons, do not want him to have that delegation. He must fight for it and has been at work on the big job for some time being very active both personally and through his machine to personally and through his machine to be a some time to be a some time. gain that end. A strong opposition has manifested itself to his candidacy among the republicans of Ashland and they claim they have sufficient force to defeat his delegates to the county convention that stand for his nomination for congress. They are not congress to his congress. They are not opposed to his nomination for the legislature. Mr. Carter needs the solid delegation of 22 votes from Ashland and he needs delegates whom he can handle like checkers, as the political exigencies of the occasion demand that he be in a position to compel unwilling support from other delegations. pel unwilling support from other delegations. With this backing of 22 autoatoms from Ashland the clever wirepuller can swap off Tom, Dick and Harry until he has traded every other candidate in the convention out of everything except his shirt tail and it he doesn't promise to be good he will threaten him with the removal of that. This is politics and especially the politics of modern republican bosses, the chief exponent and disciple in Oregon being Senator Joseph Simon. The purpose is success and every other consideration and all the higher ideals that may rest in the finer conceptions of the minds of men must sacrificed and slaughtered.
