Bernard Daly's Record

Oregon City Courier-Herald, Populist.]. From present indications it is appar-ent that the policy of the republicans during this campaign is to misrepresent our candidates in every imaginable manner, and particularly our candidate for congress in the First district, Dr. 1 Daly, on the finance question. Dr. Daly's record on this question is well known. He was an ardent supporter of Mr. Bryan in 1896, and contributed largely to the result in Lake county, his home, whereby the county gave Bryan a good majority, although of six years Dr. Daly's vote and voice: "In any one comes near a cure the office.
