DEATH OF GEO. HINES.

George Hines, proprietor of the Union Livery stable, died at his home in Jacksonville Monday night, after a short illness of acute pneumonia, aged 47 years. Mr. Hines was born in Washington county, and a prominent citizen, having a favorable impression with the acquaintances, old and new. Lee Jacobs is known to the people in every nook and corner of Jackson county. The people hold him in high esteem as a man of many talents and a chivalrous friend. The public know that his qualifications for the office are perfect in every detail and know also that as an officer he will at all times discharge his duty honestly and faithfully to the best of his ability and to the best interests of the taxpayers.

HON. S. H. HOLT.

The regular people of the county have made a vigorous, honest and gentlemanly canvas. Mr. Jacobs is a man of great tact and leaves a wife, formerly Miss Lavina Dollarhier and four children, Frank M. of Denver, Idaho, and Misses Clara and Daisy Mingus of this city. Mr. Mingus was a splendid citizen and had the confidence of all. At one time he represented Jackson county in the house of representatives and served in the Senate and served in the House of Representatives. Rev. F. G. Strange conducted the services at the home and Ashland Lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., conducting the services at the grave in Ashland cemetery.

G. A. MINGUS PASSES AWAY.

John Conrad Mingus, a highly esteemed member of the community, died Friday at his home in Ashland, after an illness of some time. He was aged 77 years, 4 months and 10 days. They came to Oregon in 1861, leaving Sacramento, DeKalb county, Ill., on March 28th of that year, and taking more than five months to make the long journey across the plains. Arriving in Oregon, he settled in the town of Gold Hill, near Wagner's Soda Springs, and soon moved to Jacksonville where they lived for two years, after which they moved to Salem. They made their home at the capital city for nearly three years, and then moved to Jacksonville, county and home and made their home in Ashland for the past thirty years. She leaves to mourn, a husband, three brothers and one sister; John V. Mullin of Jacksonville, Philip Mullin of Ashland, and Almina McDonough of David Junction, Ill. Besides she was the mother of three children, two of whom survive Mrs. Alice Tally, who lives here in Ashland, Ann Eliza Lane, now deceased, the mother of Clarence, lame this city. Mrs. Julia Hines, of Coos City, Eugene, Walrad also of this city. She leaves also ten grandchildren who will all miss "grandma" that know she has gone from the earthly home to the heavenly. The beautiful home she occupied was a plain one, where the maid and servant of God were peacefully passing the evening time of life, has been broken. Never was there a better, more solicitous, self-sacrificing mother, or a more devoted wife. She made herself useful in the home of her husband and grandchildren. While never demonstrative, yet her Christian life was deep and genuine and sustained her amidst all the trials and difficulties that she had to meet. Her true devotion to her home and the husband she had great hope and constant joy. Her husband, far advanced in life, lingers in loneliness but greatly comforted with the hope of a sweet reunion in the near future. Let not your hearts be troubled. On to the grave sickness in his family. His health with his wife has suffered much, financially as well as otherwise, and is a poor man. His honesty and integrity, however, are recognized by the people and his logical mind commends him to them for the office to which he aspires.
