A Schome to Prospect Oregon for Portland Telegram.]

With the investment of $1000 in Oregon a return of $1,000,000 is reasonably appured. Such at least is the opin ion of Francis L. McKenna, one of the most encryptic members of the Board of say they are already frequently asked for clerkships at the approaching session. One or two have made promises, while others surmount the obstacle by ex-Tade. The line of investment Mr Me-Kenn a bas in mind in connection with to is observation is the search for oil. He is satisfied to at there is an abundance of oil to the Willamette Valley and equally in searching for it will result in its disconstructions of the cascade Ringe ideal for the existence of oil, but there are abundant indications that the oil existen. The indications of oil are estimated as small army of hangers on attended each session seeking easy positions for the 40 days, at good pay. State Senator Kuykendall introduced a measure 18 months ago, which became a law. According to Mr. McKenna, not during the legislature was declared an only is the geological formation of the abuse, as a small army of hangers on atoil -xists. The indications of oil are especially strong in the Waldo Hills, Mr. McKenna says, and he would not be surprised if Governor Geer, who owns a ranch in this section, would some day be.
