The Bargain Month ...

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS

PREPARATORY TO TAKING STOCK.

Closing Out Lines:

++++++++++++++

Ladies' Dress Skirts, Jackets and Capes, Wrappers, Fur Collarettes, Mackintoshes.

++++++++++++++

Don Cont Discount

Men's, Boys' and Chidren's Clothing until February 1st

Vaupel, Norris & Drake.

VALLEY RECORD.

ASHLAND, Or., Thursday, Jan. 24, 190

Mr. Robbins of Phoenix died last ev Miss Annie Jeffrey of the normal was here visiting friends Friday and Saturday.

George West has purchased a place near Grants Pass. He and family moved down Mr. Davis and family of Jefferson, Ore., have moved to this vicinity to make this their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Netherland left on Monday's train for their home in Winters, Cal., after a visit of several weeks with rel-

Last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

8. M. Netherland, a happy event took place, being the marriage of their son Frank and Miss Almeda Crosby, only near relatives and a few close friends being present.

They have begun house-keeping in the new coutage Mr. Netherland had prepared for his bride.

Mrs. C. F. Young and her little son Harry, returned from Ashland Friday where they have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Hammond.

Geo. B. Hammersley has purchased the Gold Hill News plant and will continue to publish the paper in this town. He has also purchased the Owens prop-

E. F. Rockfellow and family are located here, and are well pleased with their choice of a home

Every one here thinks this is the coming western city as its rapid strides forward is a close rival for San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myer are residing here, finding this a much more desirable place to live than frigid. booming Alaska, in their new home they bave just built on Western Avenue. Mrs. Wight's sister. Miss Belle Anderson, is with her spending the

For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Phillips have resided here. Mrs. Woolen lives with her daughter, Mrs. Phillips and is enjoying good health, although age is no respector of persons even in Seattle.

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a bid in one day. No Cure, no Pay.

CENTRAL POINT.

Dr. Cole, a first class physician, has Fred Downing of Grants Pass was in the city Tuesday, last.

Chas. Gay of Portland, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gay of this place. J. W. Ingram and Winfield Honston, miners of Willow Springs, started up their hydraulic last Friday.

by draulic last Friday.

Frank Jeffers has returned to this place after an absense of several years, being absent most of the time in the Philippines. a sent most of the time in the Philippines. a thing doing for other members of the sent most of the time in the Philippines. a thing doing for other members of the southern Pacific's warmest, left company. The various specialties, 'gags,'

Mrs. A. S. Jacobs has received the sad news of the death of her youngest brother. Isaac Gage, about 70 years old. Deceased was a life resident of Chautauqua county, evening meetings in the Baptist church, in the interest of the Church of God. He says he is not a Seventh or First Day Adventist, but don't deny being a Soul Sleeper.

Went as proves that the farce is a big hit. Go and see it the first chance you get and have a good time with yourself." At opera house, Ashland, Wednesday, Jan. 30.

The Grand Army Post of this place in stalled the following officers last Friday, Jan. 19: John Wright, Vice Commander; W. Gibson, Quarter Master; Wm. Sydow. Chaplain; Heo Perkins, Officer of the Day; Job Pankey, Officer of the Guard. S. M. Nealon, Commander-elect, was not present owing to sickness. The Ladies Relief Corps prepared a sumptuous menu for the occa-

Dr. Boyer lectured in the Chautauqua tabernacle the 16th on "Crossing the Century Line." Notwithstanding the show at the opera house there was a choice house of some 300. Mr. Boyer is a first class orator. The thought and inspiration was good and the word painting "a torrent of diamonds swiftly flowing down a rapidly descending stream with here and there a declivity by which their brilliancy was most exquisitely dis-played" as one listener puts it. He is an optimist and firmly believes in crossing over into a better century for everybody. He was enthusiastically applauded.

Subscribe for the VALLEY RECORD

Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Bert Darling, Ben Hay made a flying trip to Jack-

Mr. Wood of Ashland was in several days last week.

Miss Jessie Childers went to Medford on the 11 o'clock train Monday evening Mr. Ashworth and Oscar Blackford of entral Point were in Gold Hill Satur-

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Owens of Hornbrook, to Jac arrived in Gold Hill Monday evening, re- county, turning Wednesday. Co. Supt. of Schools P. H. Daily, came down from Jacksonville Saturday evening, returning on the eleven o'clock

Mrs. C. F. Young and her little son of the week.

tinue to publish the paper in this town. He has also purchased the Owens property west of the depot. Revival meetings in the Methodist church that were to have commenced Sunday evening by Rev. J. C. Gregory, have been postponed two weeks on ac-count of inclement weather and prevail-

Jo. Hammersley, who has been wrestling with the mumps since his return from eastern Oregon, has recovered He left on Tuesday evening's train for Salem, where he goes to take a clerkship in the

The A. O. U. W. of Gold Hill have rented the vacant room in the school house and will use it for a hall. They held their first meeting there Monday evening, the same being a public instal-

The Star Boarder" next Wednesday. "Speaking about shows and plays," remarked a commercial traveler to his companion in a smoking car, "I saw 'The Star Boarder' last night and it made me laugh all the evening. It is the fun-niest farce comedy ever invented. I should call it an easy ten to one winner. don't know what it was all about, nor

I didn't care. I was looking for amsement and got all that was coming to me in one evening and my money's worth."
"Any pretty girls in the show," asked one of the boys.
"Plenty of them. They are petite blondes and brunettes, who sing, dance and make fun while on the stage.

company The various specialties, 'gags,' yesterday for a tour of songs, are all original and up to the as far as Los Angeles. times. The performance creates continuous laughter, and I think that demon-

Benefic Dinner

And evening entertainment (musical) at Granite hall, Friday, Jan. 25. The ladies collarettes and mackintoshes at Vaupel, of the various churches, and all friends

Norris & Drake's. willing to assist, will give a chicken dinner, and evening entertainment with lunch, tomorrow (Friday) noon and evening, for the benefit of Mrs. Anna Edelboff. Dinner 25c; admission for evening 10c, including lunch. Come all. By order of committee.

Our 25 per cent discount sale on mens, boys and children's clothing continues until Feb. 1st.—Vaupel, Norris & Drake Sachs Bros. & Co. of San Francisco the principal members of which firm got their start in Jacksonville, have victimized by their confidential keeper in New York, who committed forgeries of checks aggregating $100,000. The culprit escaped to Europe, but was arrested after he was a few days on his

New furniture, sewing machines and

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Supt. G. M. Free Yreks Tuesday.

Chas. F. Young

"The Star Boarder

Attorney Oliver S. Brown was up from Grants Pass yesterday. Mice Lulu Briggs and Montie Briggs left for Portland yesterday.

Mansfield Sonnichson returned reek from Klamath county. Mrs Henry Reed came up from Gol Hill today to visit relatives.

Ivan Wild is working on the newspaper at Nampa, Idaho. County Assessor J. C. Pendleton up from Table Rock vesterday.

G. M. Wright of Ashland has been granted a $10 per month pension. Postmaster M. D. Wilson of Talent was an Ashland sojourner Friday. Lots of new goods just arrived at opera

Mrs. Deston High returned Monday Pocket cutlery, scissors, saws and axes at D. B. Grants' bardware store. Fine line Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rickey, formerly f Jacksonville, are now in New York. John F. Attebury and two sons of Oro ino passed through for Applegate Tues-

Mrs. Eldon Jennings and babe went to Medford yesterday to visit Mrs. Ranse Rouse.

Wednesday, Jan. 30, at opera house Who? What? "The Star Boarder" o Miss Jennie Barnum returned thi week from a business trip to the City of splendid family of fine children.

The funeral takes place at Phoenix

Miss Aileen Webber, who has been re-covering from an attack of measles at her home in Medford, returned to Ashland Monday to resume her duties as instru-

It has now been considerably over a 25 Cents.

Sold under guarantee by

STANLEY

DRUG CO.

GOODS DELIVERED

KEEP YOUR EYE

Egg Noodles,

Bot. pickles,

Pineapples,

Figs, dates, Oranges, lemons.

Bananas.

Cai es,

Sardines,

Salmon,

This Space

Fine line of Canned Goods,

Sour and sweet pickles,

Daily arrivals of Fresh an Seasonable goods.

COMPANY,

(Successors to J. K. Yap Sant.)

Canned Milk,

TELEPONE 167

mental music teacher at the normal.

Go out and see "The Star Boarder" at day Jan. 21, a ten mill tax was voted for Jan. 30.

Jan. 30.

John and Geo. Beavenue have returned to Jacksonville from Niagara, Linn county, Newt. Gordon and C. E. Hadley came over from Yreka yesterday to sell a pat-over from Yreka yesterday to sell a patent right. Chas. H. Pierce, the Medford lumber dealer, visited John W. Coleman the first

Miss Maggie Barker of Albany, is visiting the family of her brother, Con terday from a two days visit with W. R.

Miss Myrtle Hurst, who has been employed in Ashland, returned home to Medford vesterday.

W. A. Montgomery left Tuesday for his placer mines at Grouse creek 10 M. E. Harris and E. N. Stone, stock

Ashland House Tuesday. Mrs. Ganong and son of Oregon City visited her daughter, Mrs. Will L. Miller, at Jacksonville this week.

Misses Amy Wilson and Susie Cook returned to Medford Tuesday from a vis-it with Miss Carrie Cook in Ashland. state normal at Chico, Cal., arrived yesterday to attend the funeral of his father. Stoves and ranges arriving at D. B

Miss Carrie George, the clever man-ager of the Postal Telegraph office at Medtord, visited Ashland friends yester-

Miss Pearl Markham of Yaquina Bay, is here to spend the winter for her health with the family of Chas. A. Miller, the who knew her. Attorney J. W. Hamakar of Klamath Falls was on yesterday's train from Portland and Salem to San Francisco on

Father W. H. Hickey was called to strates that is what playgoers want, as well as proves that the farce is a big hit.

Go and see it the first chance you get J. H. Briggs, the assayer and mining expert, left Monday on a business trip of some length to Helena, Montana and at

Mrs. Frank Shideler arrived from her home at Los Angeles yesterday to visit her mother, Mrs. W. B. Colton, who is in a precarious condition. Next Wednesday evening, Jan. 30th, "The Star Boarder" will take his seat at the opera house bill of-fare. Come and Engineer and Mrs. J. Franzen returned home Tuesday from the sad mission of burying his aged and vernerable mother who died at Spokane, Wash. J. W. Gilmore passed through from California to West Fork Saturday. Mrs. W. Stopped off until Tuesday and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gilmore, near the normal school. Henry Hansen of Medford, paid this office a pleasant visit while in Ashland Monday on business. He was accompanied by a new comer friend, Mr.

Brown and Z. P. Webster of Talent.

Miller & Bartges have on another cut rate sale in order to clean out their stock preparatory for the spring line of goods. Notice their new ad. in this issue.

H. Boivin and family moved into their fine new residence on Third street this week. It is the handsomest new domicile in that neighborhood and a

Call on Vaupel, Norris & Drake and examine their offerings in bargains. Sam McNair, a brother of Syd. McNair the druggist, arrived in Ashland last week from the home of the McNairs at Versailles, Mo., to visit his brother and ook at the country. Couches made to order or covered with burlap ready for covering with porteir.

All work guaranteed as represented.
J. P. Dodge.

Conductor and Mrs. J, S. Wentworth and babe returned yesterday from a visit with Dunsmuir relatives. Jesse and the baby took a course of chicken pox as a side issue to their visit, but Mrs. W. excused herself having attended to that matter when a girl

J. Sydney McNair, the druggist, arrived at Seattle yesterday from his trip to Sitka, Alaeka, and left Seattle last night en route home being expected either tonight or tomorrow noon. There is a broad suspicion in the atmosphere that he is not coming home alone, but that a lovely young lady of Sitka is with him—for keeps.

Tuesday was a wedding day in Holy street, the contracting parties being Miss Marie Bourgeois, daughter of N. Bour-geois, the genial and whole-souled pro-Tenor of Its Ways -Liquor Owner Engage Lawyers

The Anti-Saloon League meeting at Christian church Tuesday evening after the religious service adopted resolutions prietor of the Ashland House, and William Tobin of Pokegama, Klamath county, the nuptial knot being tied at 9 o'clock p. m. by R-v. Father W. H. Hickey, Miss R as Scadden and E. F. Ogden acting in the capacity of bridesmaid and best man, respectively, and Mrs. D. Haudbine and the father of the ple on the result of the recent city election and the new ordinance and express-ing confidence in and extending the League's support of the city adminis-tration in the matter of closing the sa-bride, Mr. Bourgeois, witnessing the solemn and impressive event. After the ceremony the bridal pair and party returned to the Ashland House parlors Wm. M. Colvig was up from Jacksonville Tuesday consulting with the liquor dealers of Ashland in regard to the new where other friends and admirers greeted where other friends and admirers greeted them most cordially with the warmest congratulations after which the reenforced party all repaired to the dining room where the wedding luncheon was room where the greats lingered for served and here the guests lingered for several hours toasting the newly wedded twain, the efforts of the evening being the polished remarks of Father Hickey and the enthusiasm of Domino Provost, whom all united in wishing to meet his sefficient and he the seffici served and here the guests lingered for whom all united in wishing to meet his affinity and be the next on the number for Benedict honors. It was midnight when the party dispersed.

The bride is a very amiable and affectionate young lady and esteemed by all her friends. The groom is engaged in the logging business for Mason, Lindley & Co. and has the respect and confidence of all his friends and acquaintances who of all his friends and acquaintances who know him as an honorable, reliable and torneys as to a line of proceedure and energetic young man and all join in ex-tending congratulations and hopes that their wedded life may be filled with pros-While the owners of the late licensed perity and joy. In the spring they will saloons are not retailing liquor over their make their home at Pokegama. the face of the matter are obeying the law there has not as yet been any gen-Sam Robbins, for the past fifteen years a well known citizen of Pheenix and the land died at his home at Phoenix Tues day, aged 65 years. He was a native of lower and some is coming from outside lower and some interest and some Iowa and came to Oregon 33 years ago towns and some from the stocks in this locating at Salem where he lived until city. The consumption of liquor at any locating at Salem where he lived until coming to Jackson county. His beloved and esteemed wife passed away last May. Eight children were born to them, the six living being John Robbins of Phoenix, Mrs. D. D. Good, Frank D. Robbins and S. P. Robbins of Ashland, Mrs. H. H. Calhoun of Medford, Mrs. B. R. Stevens of Little Shasta. Mr. Robbins rate, has been greatly reduced without doubt, and if the law suffers no more serious infraction in the future than in the past eight days of prohibition it may be regarded as quite successful. But there is no assurance of permanency in this regard as far as voluntary action of the owners of liquors and the consumers was a man of strong convictions and of the article are concerned. As they much force of character and has raised a become accustomed to the new order of things and gradually work into each others confidence their mutual interests and desires may blend sufficiently to develope quite a business. Should this state of affairs come into existence May-You will find W. Aitkin in connection with the D. B. Grant bardor Neil and the city administration will without doubt enforce the ordinance Geo. L. Haff was here the first of the courts and juries.

The Salem Sentinel, McBride organ, works this "josh" off on the Medford politician; Doc. Keene says there are other things besides teeth to pull.

Jonathan Bourne is one of the managers of Corbett's senatorial campaign. E. A. Swope is at the state house in possession of the dark horse chances of Ex-Speaker Carter's prospects for the James Hallisy of the railroad carpenters now at Siskiyou, visited Ashland land, six months before, but the case has David F. Fox of Ashland arrived on the not yet gone to the supreme court. He is at present confined in the Multnomah county jail,

David F. Fox of Ashland arrived on the scene of battle Sunday to join the "federal brigade" and strike for McBride's re-

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken, and they are wonderfully effective in cleansing the liver and bowels.—McNair Bros. Mrs. P. B. Whitney and daughter Miss Louise, arrived from Ashland Friday to remain during the legislative session, Mrs. W. to visit with her sister and Miss Whitney to act as clerk for the joint senate and house committee experting the books of the secretary of state. She is an expert in figures and receives W. N. Grubb and B. F. Reeser fin-ished taking stock and W. N. Grubb & Co. have succeeded Mr. Reeser. Notice

Deston High has stored what remains of his stock of liquor and fitted his place up and is unpacking and placing on his shelves a stock of tobaccos, clgars, clgaretts, etc., and will conduct a variety store and billiard parlor and sell soft drinks. High was the first man to establish a saloon in Ashland defeating the lish a seloon in Ashland defeating the gon exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. temperance element some eighteen years ago and being in the business continuously ever since. He announces he does in evidence around the state house, big not want a license expecting to retire as life and ten times as natural.

Dr. J. M. Keene of Medford is always

Crant Crary of Pelican bay was unpassed away Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Murray, in regular panel. successful in securing a clerkship in the Medford. Her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Fairclo of this city attended the funeral which took place yesterday. Deceased was most highly esteemed and loved by all master C. E. Harmon of Grants Pass is

Roseburg Review, 22d: Ex-Sheriff
J. E. Pelton of Ashland is in the city.

* Hon. A. N. Solies, of Jacksonville, was a guest at the McCallen House

Conductor James M. Hansbrough is with the legislature in the interest of legislation favorable to the railroad employes. His wife accompanies him.

Miss Laura Jones, formerly editor of the Drain Watchman, is patiently waiting for additional clerkships to be created in order to secure a promised posi-

Hon. R. S. Sheridan, chairman of the emocratic state central committee, is ere advising with the opposition mem-

The first vote for United States senator Monday stood as follows: Senate.—
McBride, 10; Corbett, 8; Hermann, 2;
T. C. Taylor, 1; G. H. Williams, 1; C.
W. Fulton, 1; Wm. Smith, fus., 5. Not W. Fulton, 1; Wm. Smith, fus., 5. Not voting, 1. Absent, 1. Total, 30. House—Corbett, 20; Smith, 20; Hermann, 6; McBride, 9; Fulton 1; F. A. Moore, 1; Williams, 1; M. C. George, 1; Absent, 1; Total, 60. The three leading republicans standing on the joint vote, Corbett, 28: McBride, 19; Hermann, 8. Necessary to choice, 46.

The entire Jackson county delegation voted for Corbett, being the only votes Corbett received out of the entire tier of ASHLAND, southern Oregon counties. Emmett of Klamath voted for McBride, Colvig of Josephine for Hermann and Joint Senator R. A. Booth of Josephine for Mc-

The Evening Telegram of Tuesday contains a picture from life by its car-toonist of Henry E. Ankeny and calls him a probable candidate for United States Senator.

J C. Whipp of Jacksonville has been doing the legislature.

All the local politicians in the state seem to be camped here and the legisla-ture and its much larger retinue break for Portland Thursdays, returning in time for opening Monday. The obser-vance of the Kuykendall law abolishing the former clerkship nuisance has re sulted in the appointment of people to clerkships who are nearly all competent to perform that kind of work. It is expected that the law will be somewhat abused by the appointment of many joint committees with the power to em-

Oregonian: Little Don Cameron, one of the senate pages, is proving to be the Seats on sale at Opera House Grocery most wide-awake officers in that branch of the legislature. His capacity for rushing business is unexcelled. This forenoon Senator Johnson arose to address the presiding officer, and as he did so he made a gesture with a folded paper he held in his hand. Quick as a flash QUITABLE for cereal production or the alert page darted across the room, seized the paper and carried it to the clerk, as he was accustomed to do with bills introduced. All this was done before Senator Johnson could recover him-

This signature is on every box of the genuine Lazative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that gares a cold to one day

RLAND STANFORD JUNIOR UNIVERSITY Office of the President.

I have listened to a number of address ses by Jay William Hudson. He is a very interesting and effective speaker. He is forcible and original in his manner of presentation and has the tremendous merit of being thoroughly in earnest and of saying just what he thinks on any subject with which he has to deal.

DAVID STARR JORDAN.

Mr. Hudson will fill the engagement in the Starr Lecture Course February 6th, at opera house—Subject, "The Passion Play of 1900 As I Saw It,"

Will L. Miller, youngest son of the late Col. J. N. T. and Mrs B. A. Miller, died at the homestead of his birth near Jack-sonville Saturday evening, aged 33 years. He leaves a wife, mother and sister and the memory of a polished gentleman, a loyal friend and splendid citizen.

with his family and on Feb. 1st will assume his duties as an officer of the telegraphers organization.

Portland today to visit her son Ed. Rid-The latter is still in the hospital and an operation will probably be per-Neither does his amputated leg heal per-manently as yet.—Roseburg Review, 22d. Mrs. S. Routley, who has been in Portland the past four weeks, is a guest of the Ashland House waiting to go

Henry Eaton died at Medford yester day. The funeral is tomorrow. County Clerk Gus Newbury and wife have been visiting Salem' The three understudies of the hypno tist on leaving town Sunday evening got about half a dozen kid young ladies in the yestibuled platform of a tourist car and Hobsonized them about three times apiece. The kid girls took it like veter-

MANLEY-In Ashland, Jan. 14, 1901 to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Manley, a son BEACH-In Ashland, Jan. 18, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Beach, a son.

DEMMER-In Medford, Jan. 19, 1901 Mrs. Theresa Demmer. wife of John Demmer, of consumption, aged 31 children. DANIELS-In Josephine County, Jan 15, 1901, Mrs. Emma G Daniels TRYER—At Medford, Jan. 14, 1901, of typhoid pneumonia, Mildred, daughter of E. W and Lou. Tryer; aged 3 years. ENGLEDOW-In Sams Valley, Jan. 14, 1901, Mrs. T. S. Engledow; aged 70 years.

SHONE-At Medford, Jan. 10, 1901, Gordon son of Mr, and Mrs. Jos Shone; aged

All the reliable

Cough, Cold and La Grippe medicines, as well as Bronchial and Lung remedies, are here. Let us be your druggist and fill your prescriptions.

MCNAIR BROS., DRUGGISTS. Successors to E. A. Sherwia.

--- DEALERS IN---GENERAL HARDWARE STOVES AND TINWARE. Shelf Hardware, Tools, Cutlery, Etc.,

Racycle Bicycles.

ONE NIGHT ONLY WEDNESDAY,

W. J. Plymale, of Jacksonville, who possesses first class clerical ability, is chief clerk of an important senate committee.

Headed by Charles H. Boyle and a big company of funny

A number of bright specialties. ploy clerks, but up to the present the clerkship plague as a confirmed pest 22—Clever Entertainers—22 seems to have been checked.

FOR SALE. CUITABLE for cereal production of

D stock raising; equipped with a fine

140-Acre Placer Mine, self to protest that his paper was not a In operation with hydraulic and giant, Also quartz mining properties. Will sell for cash or take in part pay ment property in or adjacent to the City of Ashland. Call on or address

Another Sale ...

by Selling at Cost Our entire line of Gents', Youths' and Children's Clothing

Gents' Woolen Underwear, of which we have a fine display. Overcoats, Mackintoshes, Ladies' Capes and Wraps, must all go. We also have a nice line of Ladies' Tailor-Made Skirts, which we are selling at 25 per cent less than wholesale prices. Respectfully, MILLER & BARTGES.

20 Per Cent Off ON LADIES' WRAPS

Special Values in Fleece Dress Goods and Fleece Lined Underwear.

Healthful and Delicious Candies, a Splendid Stock, ESPECIALLY FOR CHRISTMAS.

NININGER BLOCK

NEAR DEPOT **********************

Spring Street, Ashland, Ore.

TRIMBLE & CO..

IN ALL BRANCHES.

Plow Work and Horse-shoeing a Specialty.

- FIRST-CLASS WAGON WORK,-

ASHLAND MEAT CO ...

General Dealers in Live Stock and Dressed Meats of All Kinds.

Oregon

Pat Crowe, the alleged kidnapper of LAW, LAND & LOAN OFFICE Eddie Cudahy, is supposed to have ental ports recently.

In Olifton, Ariz., by Ursula Martinez. GEO. W. TREFREN Marquez, in an intoxicated condition, went to the home of the latter and offered of consumption, Will L. Miller; aged 20 indignities to Mrs. Martinez. Her husband, viewing his strugling wife through a window, drew a revolver and emptied its contents into Marquez' body. Each bullet narrowly missed the frantic

A special from Eufale, I. T., says: Deputy Marshall Grant Johnson has prought the news that the disaffected Creek Indians, known as the "snake band" are up in arms and are raiding the country, rifles in hand, whipping and maltreating peaceful Indians. John-son ran across a band of 50, headed by John Creek, near Proctor, armed to the teeth and were arresting some Creeks of this part of the country, whom they took to Hickory Ground, their headquarters, and whipped. The window glass trust has raised prices of its products 20 per cent. Fred Alexander, a negro, was burned o a stake by a mob at Leavenworth, Kas., some days ago. Alexander had assaulted a young white woman and was strongly suspected of having mur-dered Pearl Forbes last November. By the breaking of a car truck of a passenger train on the Union Pacific railroad several cars were detached near Hilliard, Wyo. Thirteen people were injured.

A shooting scrape at Corbin, Ky., between James Shotwell and Rollie White brought on a riot between factions there in which several people were killed. Mest of the dead are victims of the blowing up of a building.

During the year 1900 Great Britain ranked fourth in the construction of James A. Mount died very suddenly at Indianapolis, Ind., a few days ago. He had just finished serving the state as governor, retiring from the office but two days prior to his death. W. A. Clark, the Montana millionaire, has been elected United States senator from Montana.

Settle Up Notice TO DEBTORS.

All Parties knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are earnestly requested to call and settle their accounts IMMEDIATELY, as I need the money to engage in the Banking Business in Ashland.

A. Sherwin. Restaurant Boarding: House

MRS. AUGUSTA GABBUSH, PROP'R. Tables supplied with all the delicacies the market affords, cooked and served in a First-Class manner.

and Restaurant.

Meals at all hours. Lunches put up. SQUARE MEALS, 25 CENTS

The Old-Reliable Blacksmith, Has Purchased W. O. Johnson's Shop

And is now prepared to serve his old customers and the public generally at the old stand MAIN ST., OPP. OPERA HOUSE BLOCK General Blacksmithing of all kinds.

Ashland, Ore. Horseshoeing a Specialty.

Call and get my list of properties for sale which includes all classes and kinds, and

My loan department is well equipped and can handle money for parties wishing to nvest, to their advantage. ance Companies in the country and would be pleased to write your property. You cannot afford to carry the risk yourself. Insure against accidents—they are always happening and the next may be toyou. I have the best and strongest company in

SPECIAL BARGAINS. New 6-room house with one acre of land in a variety of fruit, one block from North

Six-room house on large lot with choice fruit; good barn; Mechanic St. $750.00. Fine house and grounds adjoining North school grounds, for sale at a bargain; no reasonable offer refused.

Main St., near Bridge. ASALAND, ORE TINNING & PLUMBING CO.

H. BOIVIN, Manager, COR. MAIN AND CHURCH STREET Ashland, Oregon

Nothing but First - Class

PICTURE FRAMES!

Work turned out.

Shop is now open.

CABINET WORK GENERAL REPAIRING OF FURNITURE

UNDERTAKING PARLORS.

.... and Chop House OPPOSITE PLAZA.

J. W. COX, Proprietor.

.. Meal For 25-Cents. Anything you want cooked to order with prompiness and dispatch. All Hours. Give Me a Call.

Hshland STEAM LAUNDRY

WATER Street, NEAR MAIN Orders by mail or express receive Prompt attention. TERMS CASH, at

D. B. GRANT,

The Plumbing Department will be conducted by W. Aitkin, who will be pleased to figure on estimates and contracts. Entire satisfaction guaranteed. First class workmanship and moderate prices.

BEACH BLOCK, ASHLAND, OREGON,

GRANT, HARDWARE

General Hardware and Plumbing