THE ROAD TO PELICAN BAY.
A Natural Highway From Ashland to the Klamath Basin Country that Would Prove a Trade Outlet if Property Attended To.
This road has attracted some attention ever since the "Mazama Excursion" was the occasion for raising a little money to make it possible for tourists to Pelican Bay to visit Crater Lake and the traffic and travel over it has been constantly in the increase. A summer mail service has been established which will be of great benefit to the country. It is the most direct outlet for the great Wood River Valley or Ft. Klamath Marsh Country (part of which, not being allotted to the Indians, is soon to be thrown open to settlement) it being possible to make a saving of some 25 or 30 miles in distance, as compared with any other route from these localities to the railroad which means two days less time for a freight team on the road trip. The road is now being built only by a county road from Ashland to the Neil ranch and from Four Mile creek on through leaving a gap of some 30 miles to be looked after by any body who had interest enough in it to cut a log out in order to travel it and has been fenced and changed for the work of property owners along it, for which reason it has been almost impassable for freight teams and they have been forced to go to other railroad points than Ashland the past season. It is said of this road that it could be very greatly improved, and shortened and then built up a permanent road at a comparatively slight expense by changing the grade up the mountain and making a new road from Lost Prairie to the north end of Lake of the Woods going on the west side of Lake of the Woods instead of the east side as at present. The new road may effect this road some what and make of it a permanent route as it has been traveled some 20 or 30 years. There is a disposition on the part of settlers at Ft. Klamath and Pelican Bay to help the road. The Indians at the Agency would also not doubt help some if they travel this road to some extent but as it is at present so bad that it is almost impossible to travel it, it is not likely that any amount of supplies required by one of the most thickly settled valleys of Klamath county and which from location is naturally of the woods and the mountains will see that the business men of Ashland could well afford to investigate this road through to Seattle from a trip to Chicago. He leaves soon on his return to Cape Nome.

SHIPPED OUT FOR ALASKA.
E. B. Jennings, the Medford Livery Man, Accused of Embezzling $243.
About the first of the present month E. B. Jennings, one of the proprietors of the Union Livery stable in Medford, boarded the northbound train saying he was going to Myrtle creek to look after some mining interests. It has since been ascertained that he had misappropriated the sum of $243, and that a warrant for his arrest on a charge of larceny by bailment in the hands of Sheriff Orme, who is now en route to locate his present whereabouts. The warrant was issued at the instigation of W. Cramer, for the purchase of some what. He shipped him one carload and a few days later notified him that he had another carload ready for shipment upon receipt of the money to pay same. Mr. Cramer forwarded him the money, $243, which he claims Jennings appropriated to his own use. The last news of Jennings was in Portland, where he is said to have stated that he was going to St. Paul on business connected with the Southern Pacific railroad. The information against him was wired to the Portland police but they have been unable to locate him. It is thought that he has gone to Alaska.—(Medford Mail.)

PORTIA'S PAPA SAID SAID.
Napoleon Bonaparte Knight Cabled His Favorite Daughter not to Accept the Pauper Prince.
San Francisco Chronicle.
There is at least one American papa whose head was not turned by the proposal of a foreign nobleman for the hand of his favorite daughter. The man who bears that distinction is Colonel Napoleon B. Knight, a prominent attorney of Baker City, Or., and father of Portia Knight, the American actress, whose suit against the Duke of Manchester, breach of promise has excited the interest of two continents.
When, early in the winter of 1900, Portia Knight, called "the girl from London," "The Duke of Manchester has asked me to marry him, shall I accept?" the clear-brained lawyer promptly replied, "No; don't marry a penniless Duke; you'll have to support him." The flammors of titles and nobility failed to beguile his judgment, when against them were weighed mortgages and crops of wild oats. Whether Portia Knight took her old father's advice and refused the important aristocrat is a question which only the English courts can decide.
Mrs. F. H. Dawson, an aunt of the actress and a resident of San Francisco for many years, spoke very freely yesterday regarding some of the things that had been published in regard to her niece since the Duke of Manchester's son-in-law had been instituted.

LETTER FROM PELICAN BAY.
Several Interesting Bits of Winter News From the Famous Summer Resort.
Mrs. Phil. Looney of Ft. Klamath has been very seriously afflicted for some time. Her friends seem not to have hopes for her recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Spence of Rock Creek have returned home after a long visit in Medford. Their lengthy stay was the result of the great snow storm here in January.
The ice in Klamath lake is now most all gone and Louis Dennis came down from Pelican Bay, March 12th, with his steamboat, the "Oregon." The distance is about 25 miles by boat and he usually makes the run in about four hours. This makes his first trip since last fall.

WILD MAN IN SISKIYOU.
A Klamath River Correspondent Describes the Uncanny Giant, Who Was Seen by Waldo Miners.
The wild man is now the leading topic along the Klamath. Report from Waldo says that the great and mysterious has once more come out of his den in the woods, and presented his gigantic form to the gaze of man. The parties to whose view this apparition presented itself, say that he was not less than nine feet high and that his track is eighteen inches long and the there are plainly visible the marks of seven toes on each foot. His leaps in the snow measured from ten to fifteen feet to snow three feet deep. The parties who saw him while out hunting, at first thought that it was an elk from the man in which he broke the bushes. But think of their amazement, when it reached a clearing, threw up its arms, stood and gazed around, and began vigorously pulling at its grizzled beard, when with a hideous yell, he fled and vanished. Authentic report has it that it was the hunters who fled with alarm, and we are prone to believe the latter. Such a story may seem absurd, but since we know the reputation for veracity of these hunters, we can vouch for its authenticity.
How Are Your Nerves?
If they are weak you get nervous and easily "flustered." Can't sleep, and feel in the morning unrefreshed, your blood is poor. Strong nerves depend upon rich, nourishing blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the nerves strong by enriching and vitalizing the blood. It gives sweet refreshing sleep and completely cures nervous troubles. Begin taking it today.
Nausea, indigestion are cured by Hood's Pills.

Dr. T. Chalme's Exposition, pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian church of Washington, D. C., appealed to Andrew Carnegie for money to buy an organ for his church. When Chalmers obtained an interview with Carnegie the latter said: "I will not give a cent of money to any church that cannot meet its business obligations. I conduct my charitable affairs in a business way. A church which obligates itself to carry out enterprises and then fails, can get no assistance from me, nor sympathy either. In fact, I think such practices in church institutions should be publicly denounced. I cannot, therefore, give you one cent of my money."

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 23rd, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Spring, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never had a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers. This Remedy is my best in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified of the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold, or attack of the croup, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by all druggists."
M. E. Eggleston of Ashland, is here getting ready for the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Eggleston is anxious to have the exhibit ready for shipment by the 27th inst. if possible. The time for securing a comprehensive collection of meritorious samples is very short, yet he hopes to make a creditable showing for the mines of southern Oregon. The Review was favored by a pleasant call this afternoon.—Roseburg Review.
