Hiley and the Violin. It has been noticed that at all the entertainments given by James Whitcomb Riley there is always a violin solo on the programme. There is never an exception to the rule. His manager says the custom is followed out of deference to Riley, although it is not known that he ever requested such a favor. There is a story back of that. It appears that Riley's ambition early in life was to violinist. He is quoted as saying that an accident spoiled a mighty fine fiddler to make a second-rate poet, but then people may not agree with him on that score. When he was a young man he exercised a fiddle | Importers and Dealers in a good deal. It is said that when he began pareticing out on the front porch the neighbors went in and closed the doors and windows, no matter how hot it might be, but that may be a slander. At any rate, Riley wanted to be a violinist, and was getting greatly wrapped up in his studies when he met with an accident that caused the loss of his left Wiring, and Special Designs furnished for Fire-Place Furthumb. This made it impossible for ment program.ne.
