Ingsworth-Tiger Rake Can't is a ministers have the impression that sunday belongs to them. Not at all, They have no more claim up in Sunday than others. But they do believe the teaching of the Good Book that Sunday belongs to the Lord of all. It is the Lord's day and He says: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." It is to be kept as a holy day, not as a boliday. Hence the immorality and lawlessness of baseball playing. On other days the game is not base but on Sunday it is both Base and peasure. It is a violation of both divine and civil law. It leads to other descration. It draws an undesigned them home drunk. It disturbs the quiet and peace of our fair city. It keeps many away from church. Some professing Christians are attracted by it, and the world points the finger of scorn at them. Even a few of our county officers, men sworn to this week.

Strange Exhorts Against the

MR EDITOR:—You say that the Ashland ininisters have the impression that Sunday elongs to them. Not at all. They have few of our county officers, men sworn to enforce law come and look on and thus encourage wrong doing. Conscientious people who would like to witness the game, cannot do so on the Lord's day. We believe in maniy sports but not in demoralizing sports. We want our young men to win on the Glorious Fourth, but not by means of Sunday playing. If this thing continues young men who have conscientious scruples on the subject, and every one should have will be ruled out of the band and the baseball team.
