VALLEY RECORD, The People's Paper.
 ASHLAND, OR., Thursday, Aug. 8, 1901

Senator W. A. Clark refused to grant the miners at the United Verde copper mine in Arizona a six-month delay, and about 1,600 men struck in consequence. Woodmen of the World, Pacific jurisdiction, initiated 1,468 candidates at a meeting held at Mount Tabor, Oregon.
 E. J. Godfrey and Clark Taber, owners of the Red Boy mine, were held up while on their way from the mine to Sumpter, Or., by three masked men, who, it is said, secured about $20,000, part of the month's clean-up.
 A Spokane dispatch says that Joseph H. Boyd, a stockholder in the Kettle Falls Land and Improvement company, has brought suit to have a receiver named for the company and the incorporation dissolved, charging many irregularities in the management. Some importance is added to the suit by the prominence of the three trustees, who are made defendants—Senator George Turner, Colonel W. D. Turner and Colonel I. N. Peyton.
 Out in the Straits of San Juan de Fuca, and having come to an agreement sailboat for 13 hours. John E. Lee, a traveling salesman and a resident of Victoria, was rescued by the crew of the Seattle steamer Rosalie. A companion was probably drowned.
 Constable Nevins of Weiser, Ida., went to a ranch six miles from town to arrest W. T. Green. As soon as the constable put in an appearance Green opened fire, but missed. Nevins then shot Green in the head and killed him.
 Karl Kruger of 979 Winnemac avenue, Chicago, whose stomach was removed several months ago by surgeons, is now able to eat three good meals a day and is gaining steadily in weight. At the time of the operation he weighed 96 pounds; the other day he tipped the scale at 160, and is still putting on flesh. Kruger's stomach was taken out on April 20th last. Previous to that he was starving to death as a result of cancer of the stomach. Within three months after the operation he was able to go to work, and he now thinks nothing of taking a two or three mile walk. It is asserted that in all medical history it is the only case of its kind that has succeeded.
 The British torpedo-boat destroyer Viper, first of the class to be fitted with Parsons' turbine engines, has been totally wrecked on the rocks off Alderney island, in the English channel. No lives were lost. The Viper struck the rock during a fog which set in while she was chasing the destroyers of the opposing maneuver fleet. The Viper was the only vessel in the British navy fitted with turbine engines. During her speed trials in May and June she attained 30½ knots and was pronounced capable of doing 31 knots. At that time she was handled by an inexperienced crew and her builders believed she would not attain 34 knots.
 Warren Lewis, the well-known sporting man, jumped from the steamer Rhode Island on her trip from New York to Providence and was drowned. A boat was sent out, but after half an hour it returned from a fruitless search.

A LOCAL SCORCHER.
 Southern Oregon in a Week of Warm Weather—Sunday Reached the Top Notch in 30 Years History.
 A week of warm summer weather culminated Sunday in the government thermometer recorded 105 which is the highest ever reached in Ashland. The record was broken by a scorching day which reached that point on August, 1895. The next highest record is 104. Last Sunday was an unusual day in that there was a little breeze and for once the night was so warm that many people could not sleep, an extraordinary occurrence in this climate. Thunder showers near by turned the weather cooler and on Tuesday night and Wednesday a hail rain fell.
 At Medford the thermometer was reported at 111 and Gold Hill at 113. These are not official thermometers.
 Jacksonville experienced the hottest weather in its history Sunday. Peter Britz has kept the weather record for that town for 30 years and finds that Sunday's record of 106 was one degree hotter than anything yet recorded.
 The warm spell at Klamath Falls was followed by a rain Tuesday evening and on Wednesday it poured down very hard nearly all day.
 At Yreka the thermometer reached 102 on Sunday and was followed by a thunder shower. This was the hottest day in the year at that place.

The Carrs Fences, Portland Telegram, August 7.]
 Advice which has reached United States Dist. Attorney John H. From Southern Oregon indicate that the Jesse D. Carr Land & Livestock Company is not tearing down its fences, as had been reported. Acting upon the advice of the Dist. Attorney proposes to send a United States Marshal to the ranch to see that the instructions of the court are obeyed.
 A telegram received this morning from Marshal Shine, of the Northern California District, states that Judge Carr's motion for an appeal has been allowed by Judge Morrow, of the United States Circuit Court for California.
 The telegram from Marshal Shine is also news, as it was not known that the appeal would be taken from that state, although it is perfectly legal. The appeal will be taken from Judge Belling's decision, but unless the Judge makes an order preventing the execution of the decree, the work removing the fences will be carried out.
 IN THE PHILIPPINES.
 The towns of Calapan, Nuanjan and Pula, on the northeast coast of the island of Mindoro, were occupied by a battalion of the Thirteenth infantry and Macabebe scouts after a slight resistance. The insurgents, numbering 250, fled into the interior. Their commander, Howard, who is a deserter, is hiding in the mountains, and the Americans are in pursuit.
 Captain Stafford, at Santa Cruz, in Laguna province, reports the recovery of the stolen pay chest, with the contents apparently intact. Thirty-four insurgents, a majority of them armed with rifles, were captured by the First cavalry in Batangas province.
 Adjutant-General Corbin and his party arrived at Jolo, and spent the day there. The sultan and his court received the visitors with a guard of 100 men, armed with Mauser rifles. The latter remained outside the walled city. The sultan, who is fighting the rebellious Datus, reports that he expects their early submission. This will close the war in which only 40 men have been killed during two months' "fighting." The trouble does not concern the Americans at all, being entirely confined to the Moros, over whom the sultan will soon regain control.
 General Corbin presented a handsome pair of binoculars to the sultan, who immediately returned to his camp. The adjutant-general left Manila for Shanghai August 4.
 Courts martial are to be held in Manila on Lieutenant Preston Brown and Captain Francis P. Freeman, Second Infantry. The lieutenant is accused of killing a native who refused to reveal the body of a soldier from the river. The charges against Captain Freeman are not yet known.

 The agricultural department will issue an exhaustive report on truck farming and the transportation of fruits and vegetables in the United States. The report covers the following points: First, a description of the transportation of fruits and vegetables from southern truck farms to northern markets; second, a description of the California fruit industry and the movement of California fruits to interior points and Atlantic seaboard cities; third, freight rates and refrigerator charges on perishable products in all important sections of the country. The report says: "Such a thing as a particular season for any kind of vegetable in our principal markets is at this time practically unknown, and it is now possible to draw upon the different sections of the country and receive at any season of the year nearly all the standard varieties of vegetables."
 High living, intemperance, exposure and many other things bring on Bright's disease. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent Bright's disease and all other kidney or bladder disorders if taken in time. Be sure to take Foley's. T. K. BOLTON.

TO STRIKE TO-NIGHT.

 The Bakersfield crew say the early meeting of the quicksand formation is a very favorable indication.

 THE TROUBLE IN CHINA.
 Russia is displaying renewed activity in Manchuria and is strengthening her grip on Newchwang.
 A dispatch from Peking dated Aug. 4 says that American and European residents in Manchuria are constantly becoming more unfriendly, and that as the allied troops depart the Chinese resume their old habits of jostling and cursing foreigners in the streets.
 Governor Yuan of Shantung has issued a remarkable proclamation, instructing Chinese magistrates not to allow the missionaries to exorcise the same influence as heretofore in local affairs or in any other than religious matters in the future. The government states that he has received many reports from Chinese officials that "unworthy members of the church were practicing their religion simply for the protection it afforded them, and were setting aside the law of the land and seeking occasions for quarrel, and that such affairs were daily increasing in number."
 A Canton dispatch of August 1 says violent anti-foreign placards emanating from the Boers have been posted in the vicinity of Christian churches. The placards protest against the paying of the indemnity by means of the house tax, and urge the making of war on the foreigners as the best way of exacting the carefully studied military articles. "Should the house tax be collected," say the placards, "we will demolish the churches and drive out the missionaries. If the emperor is unable to pay, we Boers have an excellent plan to gain a victory over the foreigners. Unless this policy is adopted a great rebellion is certain."
 It was announced in the British house of commons that the official date fixed for the evacuation of Peking by the British troops is August 15th, subject to a few days' extension, if necessary. The evacuation of the other places in China will depend upon circumstances.
 A dispatch received at Berlin from London says that the foreign ministers have sanctioned the marching in of a division of 3,000 Chinese regular troops to a place situated a few miles from Peking about August 8, preparatory to the evacuation of the Chinese capital by the allied troops on August 15.

 Natives who are outside of the garribose towns will be concentrated in camps, and their kraals and mealies will be destroyed, so as to shut off from the Boers this source of food.
 A dispatch from Durban (Natal) says after an all-day fight near Nquta, July 28, between the Boers and a British column, the British narrowly escaped the loss of a gun of the Sixty-seventh field battery. Four hundred Boers repeatedly rushed the British position, calling Major Edwards and Gunner Carpenter. The gun was limbered up and taken at a gallop for three miles under a heavy fire. Five British were killed.
 General Kitchener, after a long chase of Villojo's commando, caught up with it and a sharp fight ensued. A pom-pom, 22 wagons and 23 prisoners were captured. The British had five wounded.
 Lord Kitchener, in a dispatch dated Pretoria August 1, says: "French reports that he has received a letter from Krüger's agent, a Boer commander, announcing his intention to shoot at natives in British employ, whether armed or unarmed. Many cases of cold-blooded murder of natives in Cape Colony have recently occurred. The British government has telegraphed Lord Kitchener to inform the Boer leaders that such acts are contrary to civilized usage, and that guilty persons of this class, if captured, will be tried by court martial and sentenced to death."
 In the house of commons, Lord Stanley, financial secretary of the war office, said the cost of the war in South Africa from April 1st to July 31st was £35,750,000, partly chargeable against the deficit of last year. The actual cost in July was £1,350,000 weekly.

SLEEPING APART.
 A Great Mistake Made by Married People.
 Medford Mail.]
 Married people sustaining the monogamous relations, make a great mistake in sleeping themselves to sleep together. This practice in a measure, leads to congeniality. From five to eight hours of sleep every 24 with one person is not only sufficient to sustain the magnetic elements which, when diverse in quantity and quality, produce physical attraction and passion love, but it promotes permanent congeniality by making the married pair grow alike physically. The interchange of individual electricity and the absorption of each other's exhalations lead to temperamental adaptation, and to this cause may be ascribed one of the chief reasons why a husband and wife, who have few years of companionship. There is nothing that will so derange the nervous system of a person who is eliminated in nervous force. The world is overrun with afflicted people from the effects of nervous exhaustion and physical decay. Chief of Police Brioso's wife, of the Indian reservation, Pendleton, Or., almost total blindness cured. Chris Breeding's son, Pendleton, Or., eye trouble for years; restored. R. M. Patton's daughter, discharging ears; cured two years ago. L. M. Commons, Russell street, Ashland, Or., sciatic rheumatism and lumbago; cured.

 Thomas Madison, Farmington, Or., sciatic rheumatism under the ear, causing total deafness; cured.
 A. E. Miller, photographer, 227 Knott street, Ashland, Or., sciatic; cured.
