Political Movements.
 Ex-County Judge W. S. Crowell will speak in Ashland tomorrow evening on the subject of the county debt and the railroad tax question. The speech is also a reply to the speech that is being made by County Clerk Gus Newbury throughout the county on the county debt reduction claim. Mr. Newbury speaks in Ashland on the following day, Saturday. Both are loaded on the subject and juicy speeches are expected.

J. H. Rayburn, Traveling Peddler Killed Trying to Save His Dog—at Gold Hill Last Evening.
 J. H. Rayburn was killed instantly yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at a point between Gold Hill and the gravel pit near that town by being struck by a moving train.

GEORGE AND FURNISH.
 There are many indications that Governor Geer and his intimate friends in various county and other parts of the state are doing the utmost that can be done without positive proof and avowed effort, to defeat Furnish and to elect Chamberlain.—Editorial in Oregonian May 27.

TO BE REBUILT.
 The S. P. D. & Lumber Co. and Williams Bros. Proceed to Do the Phoenix Act.
 Grants Pass, May 27.—The mills, factories and lumber yards of the Sugar Pine Door & Lumber Company, the planing mills of Williams Bros. and six residences, homes of the employees of them in this city, are a heap of smoldering ruins this morning representing a loss of $100,000, with $20,000 insurance. Aside from the destruction wrought nearly 200 men are out of employment. One man, J. A. Turner, was severely injured and may die.

KILLED.
 J. H. Rayburn, Traveling Peddler Killed Trying to Save His Dog—at Gold Hill Last Evening.
 J. H. Rayburn was killed instantly yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at a point between Gold Hill and the gravel pit near that town by being struck by a moving train.

GRIMES AND ACCIDENTS.
 An explosion, due to dust, occurred in the Crow's Nest Coal company's property at F. R. B. Co. and 150 men lost their lives. Many bodies have been recovered from the main shafts. Some were killed by rocks and some by fire, and others by after-damp and gas. Many of the bodies are badly scarred.

COLLISSION.
 Through freight and Light Engine—Read Watch Wrong.
 A serious head-on collision occurred at 11:20 a. m. yesterday 200 yards south of Tunnel 9, in Cow creek canyon.

Silver Lake Holcaust.
 Silver Lake is an eastern Oregon town whose people have not celebrated Christmas for seven years, according to Z. W. Brown, a Crook county stockman, who has just returned from that part of Lake county.
