My hus-band insisted that I take Wine of Cardei for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks! was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of preg-nancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

Long discovered three men trying to get into Provost Bros. hardware store and when they ran out into the plaza shots were exchanged between the officer and thieves—three by the latter and four by the former. The thieves made good their escape.

Once more Hilda Hobson, with the baby stare and ingenious look that quite takes the casual bystander off his guard is in town. This is her first dalliance in the limelight of public ysince her blustering and meteoric debut about two years ago. The general public still has in mind a hazy recollection of her checkered career, of fitful cross country jaunts in appropriated turnouts with the jaunts in appropriated turnouts with the entire force of constabulary swarming in hot pursuit. In each case some domestic or financial episode figured as an incentive to make the change of scene.
Hilda has added a crutch to her alleged assortment of afflictions. With those wedding breakfast glances on full voltage yesterday she handed around "good luck" cards supplemented with a new con talk about trying to raise money with which to take a business course. Some oi Eugene's staid old bathelors neglected to get vaccinated and those sassy glances "took". Out came old weazel skins plethoric of pelf whereat the festive Hilda gleefully stowed away the ducats, meanwhile vociferating in sotto voice, "Oh isn't this a pipe, a
