The Special Edition.

With this issue of the Valley Record we present our readers the specfriends.

all who have aided us in any way 1 blacksmith shop. pecially the business people who during the year. paper publishers of Jackson county, built a fine new residence. who exhibited a cordial and patriotic interest in seeing the issue a

New Contributions to Exhibit Build-

Magnolia blossoms - Mrs. M. E.

Dahlias - Mrs. P. W. Paulson. Roses - Mrs. Pracht.

Tiger lillies- Mrs. Pracht. Roses - Miss Grace Downing. Roses - Mrs. Sherman Powell. Peach plums-A. W. Thomas.

Roses - Mrs. Sherwin. Roses and sweet peas-Mrs. Win- thi. prove it?

Carnations-Mrs. H. C. Stock. Talent.

and Vicinity.

There is no greater evidence of this indicate poverty? iel illustrated edition which we have prosperity in and about Talent than been promising them for the past the building activity manifests. Tom without question ideally ocated. month and trust it will be a source Burnett has just completed a fine Through it flows a fine stram of o pleasure and profit to all who new residence. A. C. Gienger has water. On it are three springs, one peruse the same and that the enthus- built a new house and has repaired a sulphur spring. It is covered with iastic friends of Ashland, the Rogue another. Van Dunlap, T. Waterman, | a fine growth of timber, fir alder, River valley aand Southern Oregon W. A. Cunningham, John Conway and maple, oak, and madrone. Nature will appreciate our effort in at least wife, aand John Robison have each has done much for this spot and it an attempt at exploiting this coun- added improvementss to the hom now remains for man to assist Why try's advantages and enthusing its dwellings. Jared Tolbert is construct not construct a lake in the park, ing . residence on his property near stock it with fish, and place a boat We wish to express our thanks to the school house. He will soon build upon it? This park is only a short in bringing about this edition. Es- The Talent Hotel has been finished land, just right for a short aut trip.

took advertisements and write-ups in J. J. Spitzer has started a new spirit will have all the available timits columns, the various individuals to his dwelling house, and Josh Pat- ber stripped from the hills and mounwho contributed articles on subjects terson. Walter Stancliff, Clint Hart tains, and then, a place like Anderson they are experts in, and to the news- ley and Weldon Hartley have each park will be invaluable..

> E a of Talent Archie Waterma tertaining Mr. Grubb's aunt, Mrs. and Mr. Wilkeson are building I. w Parsons, of Chicago. Mrs. Farsons

South of Talent Andy Weidner will Pacific Coast. soon have a fine house built. Carl theson already has an up-to-date bungalew nearly finished. George Der- Yreka for a months visit with her vey will soon begin work on a new residence, and Blin Coleman already Potter in company with Mr. Norton has the lumber on the ground for his will visit the exposition and Seattle seven automobiles belonging to N. panied her to Ashland but returned Cluster tomatoes - V. A. Dunlap, O. Powers, C. M. Wolters, Fred Rapp, to San Francisco after a very short D. W. Holdridge, Emmett Beeson, C. visit.

West of Talent Elmer Oatman .s also building a fine residence.

Evidences of Prosperity in Talent 1. Hobart and Charles Wikstrom. Of these five are farmers, on a merhant and one a saw-mill mail Does ride from Talent, or Medford, or Ash-

In a few years the compercial

1. and Mrs. W. N. Grubb are enhas traveled extensively throughout the east and is this year touring the

Mrs. Margaret Potter has gone to son, T. J. Nolton. In September Mrs.

Mrs. J. J. Mehan formerly Miss Yes, Talent is growing. Doesn Sadie Ober is paying a visit to old friends in this city, the guest of In Talent and vicinity there are Mrs. S. T. Songer. Mr. Mehan accom

Mount Ashland, June 25, 1909.

New Pastor for the First Baptist have been appointed, which are ex- lit, Elizabeth Gillette, Blanch Mitch-

Rev. Elbert Hicks was born in East Town, where he preached for some time. He was graduated from Holly Springs College and received his theological training in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Tod Cameron, C. C. Beekman. Louisville. Mr. Hicks was a successful minister before coming west and his pastorate in Roseburg, Oregon, where he spent five years has been a remarkable success. That was a missionary church when he came. The first year they became self-sup- H. F. Barron. porting. Later they built a splendid parsonage and also a commodious and modern church building. In the meantime the membership of the church was more than doubled. Anderson. Large congregations waited upon his ministry there. Mr. Hicks begins his pastorate in this city with Aug. 1st. His call to the local Baptist Wagner. church was unanimous and the church is enthused over the prospect Mrs. Mabel Kinney, Mrs. Bertha Winof a successful administration along ter, Mrs. Ella Watson, Georgs W. all lines of its work.

PIONEERS MEET IN ASH-LAND AUGUST 26TH.

will be used for the annual gather- committees, viz: ing, and the new Grand Army building will be utilized as a dining hall, Mrs. E. B. Barron. where a substantial meal will be served, the "first call for dinner" to George Owen. be announced for 11:30 a. m. Various committees have been appoint- Frances Billings. ed, and the exercises proper will be held in the Tabernacle at 2:00 p. m., Kinney, Mrs. Lottie Paulson. including an address by Hon. B. F. Mulkey, with other features to be an- tha Winter, Miss Lydia McCall.

pected to report resolutions of re- ell, Anna Watker, Anna Myer, Manna Watker, Man spect to the memory of the following ings, G. M. Grainger. deceased members:

Mary A. Berry-Misses Alice Klippel, Issie McCully, Carrie Beekman. J. D. Buckley-Clarence Reames,

S. P. Jones-J. S. Howard, I. W Berry, R. V. Beall. Wm. Bybee-J. R. Neil, D. Linn,

E. K. Anderson.

ment are classified as follows: On Address-C. H. Gillette. Decorating-Mabel Russell, Belle orders, as follows:

Music-Mrs. John Churchman, Will Mitchell. Program-C. B. Watson, F. D.

Reception-Mrs. Lottie Paulson, connected with the general supervis-liles, as follows: Family Icteridae ion of the dining features of the oc- Black irds, Orioles, Bobolink, Meadow-County's pioneers at Ashland, Thurs- nu, the substantials and dainties of beaks, Siskins. Family Turdidae -

> Hams and chicken-Will Myer. Salad-Mrs. Leander Neil, Mrs.

> Cream and butter-L. Neil, Mrs. Bread and cakes-Mrs. Mabel

> Ice cream and fruits-Mrs. Ber-

FEATHERED TRIBE OF ASHLAND. during the entire year. Many are with A Few Points of Interest to the Bird Student and Observer.

It is best to begin with the main or der of classificatioon used by Ornithol-Mrs. Abbi C. Foudray-Mrs. Ann ogists. They are classified according to Russell, Mrs. Rebecca Moore, Mrs. shape of beak, feet, breastbone, manner of roosting, flight, song, food habits in-Committees on general entertain- to order, sub-order, family, sub-family, genus, species, variety. ... will mainly have for study in this locality only five Raptores-Birds of Prev. Coccyges-King-fisher. Pici-Woodpeckers.

Macrochires - Night-hawk, Whippoor

vill, Swifts, Hummingbirds. Passeres-Percang birds. The latter is the largest group, and is subdivided into several suo-orders and Dunn, F. D. Wagner, G. W. Barron. families, as follows: Sub-order Clama-To Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, Miss tores, (songless) as Fly catchers, King-Julia True, and Will Myer, have bird, Phoebe, Pewee; Sub-order Oscines, been delegated the arrangements (song birds) which is divided into fam-It has been definitely decided to casion, and the inner pioneer will lark. Family Fringillidae-Finches, Spar hold the annual reunton of Jackson be abundantly refreshed with a me- rows, Linnets, Canary, Buntings, Grosday, August 26th. The Tabernacle which will be provided by respective Thrushes, Blue bird, American Robin. Family Troglodytidae - Wrens, Thrashers, etc. Family Paridae-Nuthatches, them to be eating but weed seeds and Titmice, Chickadees. Family Sylviidae-Wartlers, Kinglets. Family Vireonidae-Vireas, four varieties. Family Corvidae -Crows, Jays, Magpies. Family Hirundinidae-swallows. Family Mniotiltidae -Wood-warblers, eighteen varieties,

The largest family of North American birds is the Fringillidae, the next largest family is the Wood-warblers, more It was quite a custom in one locality in Several committees on necrology Luella Schaumloeffel, Gertrude Mu- mostly small shy birds, and not notable in a cherry tree, and Mr. Bluebird drove

ANNOUNCEMENT

We wish to thank our friends and patrons for the liberal patronage accorded our July clearance sale. During the month of August, preparatory to the arrival of our large fall stock, we wish to close out a few lines of summer goods.

TO CLOSE OUT

Ladies' Skirts, two lots, one-half and one-third off Wash Dress Goods, one-third off Ladies' Waists, one-third off

> Straw Hats, one-half off Men's, Ladies' and Children's Oxfords at greatly reduced prices

BEEBE & KINNEY

songsters. They are stristly insectivorous. It is calculated that these two fam ilies constitute about one-fourth of the species inhabiting any one inland local-

Fly catchers and Vireos are usually abundant, but are not the easiest of dentification. With few exceptions the birds of the remaining families, referas they present distinguishing features of plumage, song and habits, for example the Mobin, Oriole, Meadow-lark, Jaybird,

The bird authorities say that we have 150 varieties of the common birds, and season, or until further notice. about 50 more of the rarer kinds in Oregon. To talk some . individual specimens, take first the Fringillidae family group is the thick conical bill, varying privilege as provided by paragraph which is so strong that he can cut a the canary will hull a hemp seed. This will be shut off from the user. lass of birds also includes some finest songsters, and with few exceptions its memoers may be included among those most beneficial to man. We tave of these birds eighteen varieties in Oregon, that have been identified, and there may be more that could be found in Southern Oregon, by observing them us, only through the winter months, during which time they are doing a vast amount of good to the farmer gardener and fruit raiser, by consuming millions of weed seeds, and various insects. Most af these winter rescents go into the mountains and timber along streams, for nesting places, some migrate much burther north, even to Alaska, so they are not here to get into trouble by molesting the fruit. many hard things about him, is quite a conspicuous member of the Finch fami ly in this vicinity. ne is named Caliin California, and probably both may be in Southern Oregon. He is identified as buds in the spring, but those who ob- school, served them at the Agriculture college grounds, where they were allowed their own way with the cherry trees, said Rogue kiver valley, and the writer has observed them in flocks at Medford during the winter, feeding on the garden childrens. grounds daily; there was nothing for small insects hidden away for winter.

They love to roost in the vines about porches, and also build their nests somesweet, cheerful, warble may be heard at all seasons. Now a hint as to cherries. all marauders out of that tree, and ate no cherries himself. Mr. Blue-bird is TO WATER USERS.

Office of the City Recorder, Ashland, Oregon, August 3, 1909. In order to facilitate the water ser vice for residents on the higher altitudes of the city, many of whom ring to the males, are easily recognized are now being deprived of water altogether during the day time, 'he city council forbids lawn sprinkling fruit and berries, located in East between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., during the present irrigation and particulars call at residence, 72 whose applications have been filed The main distinguishing feature of this for the use of water under the hose in size and strength from that of the 2 of section 1 of City Ordinance No. canary and sparrows, to the Grosbeak, 274. For willful violation of this orkernal of corn into pieces as easily as der or gross negligence the water

> An additional inspector has been appointed to attend to its enforce- No. 99x8. ment. By order of the city countil. M. F. EGGLESTON.

City Recorder.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY SCHOOL OF ASHLAND

Put on the List of Accedited Schools by the University of Oregon.

Last week the courses of study of the College Preparatory School of this city were examined by the au- FOR SALE-Moving picture outfit thorities of the University of Oregon That handsome rogue which folks call and the school was put on the accred the "cherry bird" at this time and say ited list. The courses were prenounc ed strong This means that all graduates of the College Preparatory fornia Purple Finch. -ouse Finch, and school of Ashland will be admitted sometimes Red-headed Linnett. Mr. Fin to the Freshman class of the univerley speaks of two varieties of this bird sity without examination. This rec ognition of learning is indeed appreci- FOR SALE-Full blooded White Leg-Purple Finch in the Willamette region; tution of earning is indeed apprecihe is accused of sometimes eating cherry ated by the managers of our home

We are anxious for more room as there was plenty of bloom left for a full our fall goods are beginning to arrive crop. They are constant residents in and are making a big cut on all sizes of low shoes ladies, Misses and C. F. Mills & Co.

Dr. A. J. Fawcett, of Iowa City, Iowa together with his family, will soon be on their way to Ashland, where about the house, and will be quite reaching here probably about the 17th ready to enjoy a crumb of bread along of this month. Dr. Fawcett is a with the Juncos and Chickadees, and his Homeopath physician and has already rented office rooms in the Farlow-Table Committee—Anna Wagner, difficult of identification, as they are Illinois to put a box for a Blue-bird nest family will occupy the Farlow resi-Rhodes building on the plaza, the dence on Church street, while the Farlows are spending the winter in California.

CLASSIED ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR SALE-A No. 1 milk cow. T. A. Culbertson, 330 Liberty st., Ash-

FOR SALE-One five room house pantry and bath room, barn, wood house, poultry house and yard with one acre of level land set out to Ashland near Main st. For terms Garfield street.

This applies to all water users FOR SALE-At Private sale, house held goods, such as stoves, beds, chairs, dressers, sofa, table, fruit cans and other articles, also carpenter's tools, garden tools, and hose. Mu t be sold at once. E. M. Cunningham, 64 Street. 7-21-3 ing horse and one saddle horse. TO EXCHANGE Hay for an A No. 1 cow. For particulars address M. J.

Wolfe, 111 Third st. FOR TRADE-Good second hand piano. Will trade for a horse. C. F. Shepherd, 6.8 Boulevari. 5-11-4 FOR SALE-Second hand buggy, for sale. C. F. Shepherd, the piano

FOR SALE-Strawberry Plants; Clark's Seedling and Parson's Beau ties. Fine plants. Apply or address 494 Montana street.

complete to start on the road with. Write to Ajax, care Valley Record. Ashland, Ore., for particulars, tf WANTED-Team, wagon and harness for camping. Apply Record office. FOR SALE-7-room house, modern improvements. Lot 90x140 feet. Fruit and berries. A bargain. Terms. 461 Allison street.

horn cockerels. Apply to Mrs. F. W. Herrin, Ashland. Call up on RAMBOUILLET RAMS-We have a fine lot of rams, large heavy shearers of fine wool, raised on the range all the time, full blood and registered, for sale at fair prices. J. S. Herrin & Son, Ashland, Oregon.

LOST-A silver watch with open face and monogram on the other side and attached to a leather fob with Swastica charm on the end. Finderplease return to 111 Bush st., or the Ashland Commercial College and receive a reward.

WANTED-By man and wife, position on farm. No children. Address Edgar Julson, Medford, Ore.

FOR SALE—At a bargain, 2 1-2 or 5 1-2 acres, all in good cultivation, fruit trees, strawberries under city water, six-room house on part of land. Apply to C. D. Rifner, 520 Terrace St.

Upper Falls-East Fork of Canyon.