

Post Cage Squad Lays Claim to Basketball Title

Riding the crest of an 11 game winning streak, Camp Abbot's Fighting Engineers now are prepared to lay claim to the state GI basketball title. Coach Leo Frizzo's post team throttled the Camp White 96th Division 33-32 Saturday and raced away from the Wooden Box quintet of Bend, 55-26 Tuesday. Both games were played at the All-Purpose recreation hall.

A 40 foot howitzer by Lt. Bob Demgen arched in dramatically with one minute and fifteen seconds left to break up the Camp White contest.

Abbot's unblemished record was in peril all the way until Demgen put in the clincher as White's "football-basketball" tactics forced a slowing down of the powerful Engineer offense.

Although never having more than a four point margin, the 96th Division invaders let most of the way in the roughest tussle of the local season. Division played without the services of their ace rebound man, Lt. Norm Butz, who was ill.

Lt. Rector, player-coach of the losers, was high-point man with 14 points. Sgt. Don Tucker paced Abbot with 11. Lt. Demgen had 8.

Playing sloppy ball on their own hook and encountering stubborn resistance, the post quintet woke up at the end of the first half of their game with Wooden Box to find themselves trailing, 16-15. The situation was more than righted in the next period as Abbot turned on the power—40 points to 15 points—to romp home with victory No. 11, 55-26.

It was also game No. 11 in which Tucker has scored at least 10. This time the Southwestern Kansas sharpshooter poured in 12. Long shot artist Demgen also racked up 12. Bog Douglas paced the Wooden Box five with 10. Pvt. Frank Heniges, ex-Pacific Coast Conference arbiter, refereed.

For the third time this season an Engineer road trip was cancelled when it was announced that tonight's game slated in Eugene between Sgt. Frizzo's top rung quintet and Oregon ASTU had been called off by ASTU officials.

DEATH IN AN OUTHOUSE

Using "booby traps," it's a simple matter for Engineer soldiers to convert Chic Sales's favorite edifice into a death chamber for an unsuspecting enemy with an urge to answer nature's call. The ERTC trainees pictured here are shown searching for traps hidden by other trainees previously. Once a trap has been discovered, disarming it is just a matter of following instructions.

Indianapolis (CNS)—An elderly man was peeling potatoes in the Salvation Army hotel when a state detective called and told him he was heir to $600 left by a relative. The recipient of this fortune immediately threw a potato at the cook.

RED CROSS AT WORK

devices and men learn to activate and de-activate them.

Three periods are devoted to them. The anti-tank men learn to lay mines in several positions, and, later, to lay hasty and deliberate mine fields. One group of men will lay a field and another de-activate it.

In addition, realistic training films prepared by the Signal Corps are shown from time to time. Here actual battle scenes are presented, and the men are able to fit their training into the picture of war conditions.

A special course prepared by the training division is at present being given to all overhead personnel to acquaint them with booby traps and mines as part of the processing program to prepare men for overseas service.

A-56 Takes Lead In Cage Tourney

The last of the undefeated fell Thursday night in the Post Basketball League as Service Company was toppled by Lt. Fredrico's compact A-56 quintet, 31-19. The victory elevated A-56 to a narrow half game lead and left six clubs—A-56, Casual Co., Civilian Personnel, Supply Co., Service Co., and B-56—all with one setback and all within a game and one half from the top. However, both A and B 56 leave the league this week to go on three week problems.

A-56 broke away from a 14-14 tie in the last ten minutes to subdue Service Co. The best passing team in the league, A-56, hit a flurry of shots in the closing moments to vault into first place. White with 12 and Bilyeu with 10 led A-56. Service player-coach Fred Higgenbotham garnered 10 of his team's 19.

Other scores this week included: Civ. Per. 39, B-58 35; Supply 31, MP Co. 28 (overtime); A-58 26, C-58 25; Casual Co. 44, A-58 20.

A-51 Sets Mark On Rifle Range

By Cpl. Dale A. Rector
Company A has done it again. The 51st Bn. completed firing for record last Saturday and when the final figures were tabulated Company A led the field. Attaining 100 per cent qualification is just the basis for the story. Nineteen men shot expert, 66 shot sharpshooter and 81 marksman.

Pvt. Ralph Long led the company with a score of 193, followed closely by Pvt. Alfred Taylor with 192 and Pvt. Julius Ulrich with 191.
