LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. Frank Hodson is quite sick with the measles.

Mike LePage made a business trip to the county seat this week.

The would-be fisherman are very much in evidence these balmy spring days.

W. H. Staats made a trip to Prineville this week, after supplies for his store.

Frank Huott, the veteran peddler, spent a day in Deschutes, this week.

The public school opened again here, last Monday after being closed one week, for fear of smallpox.

J. I. West, the jovial butcher of lower town, is very busy these days making garden for the P. B. D. Co.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Triplett of Deschutes, died at Prineville on Friday May 1, 1903.

Messrs C. A. Graves and R. G. Smith, left for the timber with a party of timber seekers on Tuesday.

Arthur Welty of Merrill, Wisconsin, was investigating future prospects of this section, this week.

Miss Laura Bandle and Miss M. B. Roberts are apprentices in the Echo office this week.

Miss Grace Merrill came over from Crooked river, on Tuesday, and has accepted a position at the Pilot Butte Inn.

The Reed & Steidl mill company started their logging teams on Wednesday, and expect to be running their mill in a few days.

Miss Elizabeth McCune, who has been staying at the Pilot Butte Inn for several months, left on Monday for her home in Portland.

Messrs Twohy and McKeown, of this city, are in Prineville this week interviewing the County Court on their application for liquor license.

Ed Smeltzer, a former resident of this place, left for Reno, Nevada, via: Prineville and Burns, Oregon, on Thursday last.

The County Court granted both of the petitions for liquor licenses as asked for by M. C. Awbrey, and Towhy & McKeown, of this city.

O. B. Riley, made a trip to the Frank Forrest place the first of the week and brought back a load of supplies, and a beef for the West Meat Market.

The report is current here that Miss Kate Helfrich of Prineville, died of smallpox, in Portland on May 6, but we could not obtain definite news before going to press.

The Sizemore hotel has moved across the street into the new building and is much more convenient and comfortable for the patrons than the old building.

Mrs. A. C. Palmer, who has been in the Portland Sanitarium, for about three months was so far recovered as to leave the Hospital on the 2nd, of the present month.

The Misses Blanche and Mollie, and Master George Reeder, children of L. L. Reeder of this place arrived here Monday from their home in North Carolina. They expect to make Oregon their future home.

White and Hill, the proprietors of the Deschutes Meat Market have made another improvement in their place of business by adding a new coat of building paper both inside and out of the building, which improves the apperance very much,

B. C. Low started for Shaniko the first of the week, accompanied by his Father, Mother and Sister who are returning to their home in Kansas, after an extended visit with Mr. Low and his family who live a few miles below this city.

Several families of emigrants have made temporary headquarters on the river about eight miles from this place and entirely out of reach of the travel on the public roads, their intention being to avoid any exposure to the smallpox.

A case of smallpox is reported from Silver Lake Oreg. It is said to be a man that went from Shaniko, and was herding sheep near Silver Lake. Later—The man died at the pest-house near Silver Lake, about 1 A. M. Wednesday, May 6th.

Messrs, F. R. Barbour and T. Lundquist, of Chicago, two young men who have purchased land of the C. S. I, Co., spent a few days in town this week. They seem very well pleased with Eastern Oregon, and are delighted with the climate.

Mr, C, Clark of Seattle, arrived here Sunday evening from The Dalles, by private conveyance, he made this trip to avoid the smallpox along the other route, and left for Reno City, Nevada, via. Silver Lake. It cost Mr. Clark over $60. to make the trip from The Dalles. This is only another illustration of the need of a railroad into central Oregon.

One day this week Percy Smith and Wm Baldwin "his uncle," were out fishing in a boat when it struck a snag and Percy was thrown into the swift water. Mr. Baldwin jumped in and pulled the boy out and then recovered the boat. No one was seriously hurt but the bath was rather a cold one, and Percy mourns the loss of a nice string of fish that he had caught.

Died—,Prineville, Oregon. May 2, 1903. John H. Claypool, at his home in this city, at 4. 15 P.M. on Saturday, of smallpox.

J. H. Claypool was born in Hendricks County, Indiana, June 1, 1838; came to Oregon in 1846, settled in Linn county; came to Crook county in 1881, and has resided here since that time, living in Prineville since 1888.

He leaves three children Fred C. Omar C. and Miss Ronda Claypool, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Another death from smallpox. Gus Reese, a young man about 24 years of age; who has been living with his Mother on a homestead on Paulina creek, near Lava, Oregon, and who is supposed to have contracted the disease from the same man that spread the disease from Prineville to Shaniko, died at his home at 1 A. M. last Saturday. John Sizemore and the young man's mother had been nursing him during his sickness, and on Friday there seemed some hope of recovery, but he suddenly grew worse, and only lived a few hours.

The young man was intelligent, industrious, and had made many friends. The bereaved Mother has the sympathy of the entire community in her great sorrow.
