

LOCAL ITEMS

Harry Hill reports a forest fire east of Lava.

The Deschutes Lumber Company is now sawing lumber for the local market.

L. D. Wiest suffered an attack of acute stomach trouble the first of the week.

The Bend Mercantile Company received a load of building material this week.

John Lewis, the freighter, came in with a load for Reed & Steidl Wednesday.

John White, of the Deschutes Meat Market, has been on the sick list this week.

Reed & Steidl have all kinds of sash, doors, building and roofing paper for sale.

Crook county's first crop of hay will be a good one if the fine weather continues for a week more.

Wm. Staats has a two thousand dollar stock of first-class groceries now on the way from Shaniko.

The painting of the Bend Mercantile Company's store is being rapidly done by the Triplett Bros.

Rev. O. W. Triplett will conduct services at the school house Sunday, Aug. 2nd. All are invited to attend.

W. B. Germain, representing Wadham & Kerr Bros. of Portland, visited our merchants Monday.

J. M. Lawrence has been appointed resident agent for the American Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

O. M. Resser, representing the Coblenz & Levy liquor house of Portland, was visiting the trade here the first of the week.

Read the new advertisement of the City Meat Market in this issue and call on West & Co., whenever in need of fresh meats, etc.

Mrs. Glen Marsh, who has had charge of the culinary department of the Staats hotel for some time, is sick at her home in Deschutes.

The new homestead residence of Mrs. E. R. Riley has been completed by Messrs. Triplett and Keever, and is now occupied by the Riley family.

The Pilot Butte Inn is undergoing some changes this week. The third floor has been partitioned off in rooms and the lower part of the house is being repaired.

The Pilot Butte Inn, Bend's popular hostelry, has an advertisement in this issue of THE ECHO. Under Mr. Lucas' management the Inn is becoming more popular every day.

A party consisting of John Bloss, Jack Geiger, E. F. Boggs and Archie Powell spent Thursday fishing up near the Dillon place. They brought home a string of about two hundred trout.

The house of Peter Zell, located on the river half a mile above the Sizemore place, burned last Saturday night. It was an old landmark and unoccupied at the time and the cause of the fire is unknown.

H. J. Palmer came in from Prineville Tuesday with a load of barbed wire which he took to his ranch the next day. He will enclose his ranch and other adjoining property with about two and a half miles of fence.

A. C. Lucas left Wednesday for Haycreek where he goes for his band of cattle among which are a number of fine milch cows that he can use to good advantage at the Pilot Butte Inn. He will return in about a week.

Mrs. A. M. Drake entertained a party of young folks at a picnic near Lava island falls Thursday. The jolly crowd was made up of the Misses Marion, Pauline and Margaret Wiest, Veda Dorrance, Marion Lawrence, Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Drake. Dr. Edwards and Monsieur Louie Frank acted as guides for the party and incidentally did a few stunts at fishing but with poor success.

T. W. Marshall of Portland, representing W. P. Fuller & Co., spent Monday in Bend interviewing the various merchants. Mr. Marshall also represents the Brayman Leather Company, Zan Bros., and Closett & Devers.

A. C. Palmer has disposed of his property interests at Prineville and with his family has moved to Portland where he will reside in the future. Palmer Brother's office is now located in No. 417, Oregonian building, the rooms formerly occupied by C. M. Idleman the attorney.

By parties interested, we are told that the Columbia Southern Trust Company has not abandoned the "Lytle" townsite, notwithstanding what Mr. Laidlaw has said regarding it. We have also learned from John Sizemore that he has given the Trust Company an option on his property.

The County Court allowed John Sizemore $90.00 for nurse hire during the smallpox epidemic. It takes good nerve as well as a good heart to render the services Mr. Sizemore did in a locality distant from medical assistance, and the allowance is very small in proportion to his deserts.

Booth & Cornett now have four lively teams at their new stable in Bend. They also have a three seated hack and several covered buggies for the convenience of their patrons. The firm has found business much better than at first anticipated and will soon add to the present equipment.
