Roxy left for Willey's ranch Sunday.

Sylvester Staats has been sick this week.

Mrs. L. D. Wiest has been very sick again this week.

A. H. Kennedy was sick the fore part of the week.

Arnt Aune and family moved to their homestead Wednesday.

Wm. Staats received a large load of merchandise last Sunday.

Rev. O. W. Triplett will preach here the first Sunday in September.

Rev. Alter preached his farewell sermon at this place last Sunday.

P. B. Gile has moved into the house formerly occupied by the Boyds.

Nick Smith is suffering from a boil on his right hand caused by a bruise.

Mrs. John Steidl and son, Stephen have been on the sick list this week.

Michael Morrison has accepted a position with the Pilot Butte Development Company.

The boys at Montgomery's ranch succeeded in killing an old bear and a cub last Saturday.

The band boys of the Big Diamond quartet serenading last Saturday.

Wallace Hunter had a fall Wednesday by which he sustained injuries that laid him up for a few hours.

J. I. West and Dan Heising are cutting out stone for the chimney in the Bend Mercantile Company's building.

Ten thousand dollars is the sum being expended by the Multnomah boys to make Portland's big Fall Carnival a success.

WANTED—A first-class female cook at the Farewell Bend Hotel. Call on or address JOHN SIZEMORE, Proprietor.

Portland's big Fall Carnival, September 14 to 26 inclusive, is given this year under the auspices of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club.

Corrected plats of any township in The Dalles Land District will be furnished you by Hudson & Brownhill of The Dalles at fifty cents each.

Every day will be a special day at Portland's big Fall Carnival, September 14 to 26 inclusive, and it is safe to say that it will be largely attended from this section.

John Sizemore is making preparations to erect a 22x60 two-story building on his place up the river. His present plans are to stock it with hay and grain to supply travelers who pass through.

Low railroad rates have been granted by the roads centering in Portland for the big Carnival in that city, September 14 to 26 inclusive, and many from this place will take advantage of this opportunity to make the trip.

Hudson & Brownhill, of The Dalles, will furnish you with the latest corrected plats of any township in this district at fifty cents each. Write them or leave your order at George Schlecht's office, and it will receive prompt attention.

Broker's Concert Band will give a grand ball at J. I. West's hall on the evening of Sept. 5th. The proceeds of the ball will be used for the purchase of a bass drum. Everybody should attend as the boys promise to make it an enjoyable affair.

The Pilot Butte Development Company is engaged in building a tramway from the mill to the lumber yard over which the lumber will be trucked. This will do away with the hauling of lumber with teams and will reduce the cost of handling very much.

The moving picture and phonographic entertainment which was billed for Monday night had to be postponed until the next night owing to the picture machine not working right. The entertainment on Tuesday night proved to be quite entertaining as far as it went but the same difficulties came up and made it necessary for the manager to cut out some of the pictures. The phonographic selections were very good. Mr. Walters and son left Wednesday for Prineville where they will give their show.
