George Millican was over from his ranch Tuesday.

D. F. Steffa is visiting in Prineville this week.

W. A. Laidlaw returned to Portland Thursday.

R. B. Mutzig left for his home in Portland yesterday.

M. C. Awbrey went to Prineville on business Tuesday.

Barnie Lewis returned from the Meadows last Saturday.

Miss Jackie Brock returned from Lava last Sunday.

Wm. Brock spent the fore part of the week at Lava.

Carlyle Triplett returned from Prineville last Sunday.

Dick Vandervert spent Sunday afternoon in Deschutes.

Miss Mary Riley visited Marion Wiest at this place over Sunday.

Ralph Poindexter returned to his home in Prineville Wednesday.

B. F. Reilley, of Portland, arrived in Deschutes Thursday and will spend a week here.

Green Hampton, of Eugene, passed through Deschutes Thursday on his way to Paisley.

E. D. Hayes passed through Bend Tuesday on his way to his home in California.

Iva West and Mildred Baldwin left for Mabel Baldwin's ranch near Powell Buttes Wednesday.

G. C. Richardson left this week for Prineville where he has accepted a position in the county clerk's office.

T. H. Maloney, of Cloquet, and Patrick McClery, of Ereth, Minn., were registered at the Pilot Butte Inn Monday night.

A. M. Drake left for Prineville Tuesday morning. From there he goes to Portland where he will remain several weeks.

Mrs. A. M. Drake returned Wednesday from Prineville having accompanied Mr. Drake to the county seat the day before.

E. M. Leeper, of Goldendale, Wash., passed through our city Thursday on his way to California where he will spend the winter.

Edmund White, of Crookstone, Minn., is looking over some of his father's timber holdings near this place. Mr. White is an old friend of Maxim LePage.

W. E. Benson and Lester Menas, of Sweet Home, passed through here Tuesday on their way home from Summer Lake where they spent the summer in the hayfields.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Poindexter, Raph Poindexter and Rene West returned Tuesday from a two week's trip to Odell and Davis lakes. They report very poor success fishing and also extremely cold weather for so early in the season.

Glen Marsh and Richard King Jr. started Tuesday morning on a trip through the Willamette valley and Washington, their objective point being Bonner's Ferry in Northern Idaho. After looking over the latter state Mr. Marsh will return to his old home in Wisconsin. Mrs. Marsh will leave here in about two months to join him.

Major G. R. Chrisman, wife and son, Dr. L. W. Brown, and J. S. St-John of Eugene; Miss Onnie Markley, of New York; Leonard G. Brown of Salt Lake City, and H. D. Brock of Chicago, stopped at Deschutes Wednesday night on their way down from the lakes. They came in over the military road and are returning by the McKinzie route. Thus far they report a pleasant trip with fair success at hunting and fishing.

You get the best service by sending to Hudson & Brownhill for your corrected plats as you get the latest corrections of any township. This is impossible where you go to parties having duplicate government plats, as it would require a correction of all their plats from the land office every day. Besides the above firm charges you only fifty cents and guarantees to send it by return mail.
