O. J. Gray came in Prineville last Saturday.

Low's Grocery at Lytle is enjoying a healthy trade.

O. J. Gray and John Elder spent Sunday on the Tumelo.

Miss Jackie Brock is visiting friends in Prineville this week.

Dr. C. I. Edwards was called to Wallie Donkel's ranch Wednesday.

Low's store will receive a four-horse load of fresh groceries next week.

H. W. Reed will begin building a new residence at Lytle next week.

Wm. Staats brought in a load of merchandise from Prineville Sunday.

J. W. Shaw and W. H. Staats went to Prineville on business Tuesday.

Part of Engineer Wiest's crew is engaged on townsite work this week.

H. W. Broker and A. H. Kennedy spent Sunday fishing near Lava falls.

The Bend Mercantile Company will receive a large stock of goods this week.

Miss Marion Wiest accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake to Prineville Tuesday.

Maxim LePage is attending to the wants of customers at the Minnesota Buffet in the absence of J. W. Shaw.

E. M. Miller brought a load of vegetables in from Haystack for J. I. West last Sunday.

Try a can of Prize Baking Powder at Low's store and receive a handsome glass premium with it.

Dick Vandeventer passed through here Thursday on his return to his ranch where his father is very sick.

J. A. Ryan is engaged in looking over timber in this vicinity. He is making his headquarters at Hotel Staats.

Veda Dorance had the misfortune to cut her hand with barbed wire while playing near a fence Wednesday.

A son weighing nine pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Donkel Wednesday morning at their Meadows home.

The bridge at H. J. Palmer's place received the finishing touches last Saturday and Milt Young, the builder, is again with us.

The Triplett boys, their father and J. W. Keerer left Wednesday for the mountains where they will hunt bear and deer until today.

John Bloss and Wallace Hunter left Thursday morning for the Matoles where they will spend the winter on Mr. Bloss' homestead.

The Review office carries all kinds of legal blanks, and is the only place in Prineville that carries a complete and up-to-date stock.

Rev. O. W. Triplett will preach in the hall over the Bend Mercantile Company's store tomorrow.

All are invited. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

R. B. Muntzig looked over the Tumelo ditch this week.

Henry Smith and Ralph Sharp visited our city Wednesday.

WANTED—A bandmaster for each of the following places: Lytle, Bend, Deschutes and Widovale. Send applications, with references, to the Secretaries of the Boards of Trade at the above places.

Considerable activity is noticed in Lytle at present. Several houses are in course of construction and a new store building will soon go up. These improvements are all being made at the foot of Broadway.

It is reported that a party of Eugene people recently took 7442 trout out of Lake Odell during the period of a week. Here is a good chance for Recreation to dub a few more people "fish hogs."

C. M. Willey took a load of lumber to his ranch Wednesday. Mr. Willey is engaged in building a water wheel for irrigation purposes and will have about thirty acres in shape for cultivation by next spring.

Barlow Brother's circus stopped at Deschutes Sunday night, leaving next morning for Prineville where they showed Tuesday and Wednesday. While here they favored us with some very good band music.

John Steidl began the erection of a 24x24 five-room cottage at the foot of Broadway in Lytle Monday. When completed it will be occupied by Mr. Steidl's family and the house they now occupy will again be tenanted by Wm. Young's people.

M. L. Low will begin the erection of a new store building at the foot of Broadway in Lytle next week. The present quarters have been found inadequate to hold the stock necessary for the rapidly increasing trade. The building will be 20x30 and a hall will probably be made of the second floor.

The Walworth Company's moving picture show Tuesday night proved a fizzle, the lime light refusing to work. There was also a delay in getting the phonograph working at the close, the manager gave each of the audience a ticket and promised that his show would return within the next year or so.

Willie Vandeventer came down from Lava Wednesday to summon Dr. Edwards to Dick Vandeventer's place where old Mr. Vandeventer is very sick. Willie tried to get through to Prineville to notify his uncle Dick, who is over there on business, but could not make it on account of his pony being played out.
