

LOCAL NOTES.

J. N. Hunter was on the sick list the first of the week.

Michael Morrison and wife are visiting at The Dalles.

A move is on foot to take the band to Prineville for the races.

C. W. Willey and Isaac Donkel left for Mr. Wiley's home Sunday.

Wallace Donkel passed through town Monday on his way to Prineville.

H. J. Palmer and father were visitors in the city the first of the week.

Don't forget to attend the Hoyt Company's show at Grant's hall tonight.

F. A. Van Ostrand, of Mitchell, was registered at Pilot Butte Inn last Sunday.

T. F. Hamner and Chas. Enlow, of Hazeldale, were visitors in Deschutes last Monday.

Chas. and Wm. Hebert, of Eugene, passed through town Monday on their way to Burns.

C. R. Arnold left Wednesday for Prineville where he will place himself under a doctor's care.

Remember that W. H. Staats will soon have a complete assortment of Fry's famous remedies.

John Sizemore expects to leave next week for an extended business visit in the Willamette valley.

The New York Cash Store has received part of its stock of shoes which will be displayed at the opening.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of the New York Cash Store which appears in this issue of the Echo.

G. R. Roberts and daughter and Maxim LePage left Wednesday for Silver Lake where they will transact business before Commissioner Wardwell.

U. S. Cowles, a sheepman from Hay Creek, was in the city Tuesday night. His sheep are being driven back from Lake county where they have ranged the past summer.

H. W. Donkel returned Wednesday from Prineville where he had been several days on business in connection with his late father's estate. The county court made Mr. Donkel administrator of the estate.

J. V. Milligan, Presbyterian Sabbath school missionary for Oregon, arrived in Deschutes Tuesday night and left next morning for Dick Vandeventer's place. He will return today and conduct services at Grant's hall tomorrow morning and evening.

Mrs. A. H. Grant and Harry Broker accompanied by Mrs. Mary Hazen and daughter Annie went to Prineville Wednesday and returned next day. On account of the ill health of Mrs. Hazen, she and her mother will go to Lost Springs, Kansas, for the winter. Next spring they will return to their home in Indiana. The ladies will be missed by their friends on Garden Row, but it is hoped that the change will be beneficial to Miss Hazen's health.

Miss Blanch Kever is at home again after an absence of several weeks at the sawmill.

General Prine and his "bronco-busting" boys were in from their camp Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCulloch, of Prineville, were visitors at the Pilot Butte Inn last Sunday.

C. E. Dawson, representing Lang & Co. of Portland, was a business visitor here the first of the week.

Ben F. Awbrey, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in town today for a short visit with his uncle, M. C. Awbrey.

S. A. Lester, of Antelope, came in Sunday and proceeded next day to Silver Lake where he goes to look for a business opening.

Wm. Stewart, Maxim LePage and Theophile St. Michel returned Monday from a trip to 16-10 where they located themselves on homesteads.

Mrs. Mary Auderway has resigned her position as cook at the Pilot Butte Company's mill and will leave soon for her home in the Willamette valley.

Chas. Brock is rapidly pushing John Sizemore's building to completion. It is expected that the stock will be placed in the building by December 1st.

The Misses Annie M. and Elizabeth Lang left Wednesday for their home at The Dalles. They were accompanied as far as Prineville by Mrs. A. M. Drake and Dr. C. S. Edwards who returned home Thursday.

G. W. Wimer, of Bull creek, went to Prineville Wednesday. From there he goes to Post on business. Mr. Wimer recently came to this county from Southern Oregon and is very enthusiastic over the prospects for ranchers in the Bull creek country.

C. L. Truitt, of Cripple Creek, Col., passed through town Monday on his way to Rosland where his eight-months old daughter died at the home of his father-in-law, A. G. Taylor on August 23rd. Mr. Truitt has been in a remote mining camp in Grant county for some time and it was only a few days since that the news of his daughter's death reached him.

With the exception of a few numbers the Hoyt show company gave quite a creditable performance at Grant's hall Saturday night. Mr. Hoyt is a versatile gentleman, especially clever in the palming of coins and the magic art. Mr. Romain's blackface work was also good. Another performance will be given tonight with an entire change of program. Those who missed last week's show should not fail to attend.
