

LOCAL NOTES.

A. W. Pope has moved into his new house at Lytle.

C. B. Allen was a visitor in Deschutes last Monday.

W. H. Staats was a business visitor in Prineville this week.

Low's Cash Grocery will occupy the new building next week.

Miss Iva Donkel returned Monday from a visit at Prineville.

J. H. Haner was a visitor in Deschutes the first of the week.

The Minnesota Buffet is having a new floor and ceiling put in this week.

W. H. Donkel was down from the Meadows on business last Saturday.

J. R. Babcock has purchased a lot on First street at Lytle and moved into it Tuesday.

S. W. Yancey, the Prineville sheep man, was a guest at the Pilot Butte Inn Tuesday.

Remember that W. H. Staats will soon have a complete assortment of Fry's famous remedies.

C. E. Dawson, the hustling representative of Lang & Co., was transacting business with our merchants last Monday.

George Aune, of L'Anse, Mich., arrived in town last week and will spend some time visiting his parents who live near Wet Weather Springs.

We forgot to mention in last week's issue that the costs, amounting to nearly $13.00, in the case of Lawrence vs. Schlecht were assessed against Jimmie.

W. H. Staats will soon have a complete stock of Fry's household remedies. These medicines have a great reputation and you should not fail to try them when sick.

Dick Vandever passed through town Tuesday on his way to his ranch. Mr. Vandever is having his household effects moved to the county seat and will reside there this winter.

J. H. Cook and M. I. Thomas, of Willow City, and John and H. W. Taylor of Omenee, N. Dak., passed through town Thursday on their way to Silver Lake where they will make proof on timber claims.

Rev. O. W. Triplett preached at this place Sunday morning and in the evening delivered a forceful address on "Tongue." Mr. Triplett made a deep impression on his audience with his logical remarks.

Fred Snoderly, who has charge of Morrow & Keenan's sheep, passed through Deschutes Thursday on his return to the Willow creek ranch where he will winter the 2600 head that he is bringing back from California.

The Bulletin has stated that the editor of this paper was put under bonds to keep the peace which is another of its truthful(?) news items. The facts are that we were placed under bonds to appear in Justice Brock's court with A. H. Grant and W. H. Staats as sureties. Our contemporary would lead its readers to believe that Mr. Grant alone acted as our bondsman.

W. P. Vandever, of Lava, went to Prineville Friday.

There are now thirty pupils enrolled in the village school.

The Misses Iva and Bessie Donkel left for Prineville Thursday morning.

Park Nye, a rancher from Bear Creek, was a visitor in Deschutes this week.

C. M. Willey passed through town Thursday on his way to Prineville.

Uncle Jack Vandever is now a resident of Prineville. He accompanied Dick to his new home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Allen and daughter, Ethel, were registered at Hotel Staats Thursday night. They were on their way to Prineville.

H. A. Beck and family and Miss Lillian Knox, of Newsome creek, were in Bend Thursday night on their way home from the Little Meadows.

E. C. Murphy, of Ashwood, and Joe Kelsay, of Antelope, passed through town Monday on their way home with a band of six hundred thorough-bred rams belonging to T. S. Hamilton.

Milt Young has accepted a position with Steidl & Reed and is at present engaged in getting out window and door frames for Mr. Reed's house upon which work will soon be begun.

We call the attention of our readers to the half-page advertisement of the Lytle Townsite Co., on the last page of THE ECHO. A large number of lots have already been sold and the property is being rapidly improved.

W. T. Casey, the Powell Butte rancher, brought in a load of vegetables and fruit last week. Among other things, Mr. Casey displayed some apples weighing as high as twenty-three ounces, one of which he presented to the editor of THE ECHO.

C. A. Graves, George Springer and J. W. Elliott came over from Prineville Monday to complete their work relative to the proposed change in the county road. They finished the work Thursday. Creed Triplett and Barney Lewis assisted them.

John M. Tengman has purchased three lots on First street at Lytle and will immediately start to build a 16x40 stable and enclose the premises with a board fence. Mr. Tengman will run a feed yard and will be ready for business in about ten days. He will also be prepared to do teaming.

We forgot to mention last week that Mr. and Mrs. Millard Triplett were the parents of a new nine and one-half pound boy who put in his appearance at the Triplett home last Thursday night, October 8th. Since writing the above, Mr. and Mrs. Triplett's joy has turned to grief by the death of the little one which occurred Monday. Burial took place Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.
