

LOCAL NOTES.

George Bates is building a stable at his place in Lytle.

Mrs. A. M. Drake went to Prineville Tuesday morning.

John Elder took a trip up into the timber last Sunday.

Severt Debing has completed his saloon building at Sisemore's place.

John Ryan and H. J. Palmer returned from Prineville last Monday.

Brock & West are busily engaged in putting up their saloon building at Lytle.

James Black passed through town Tuesday on his way to his home up the river.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence and daughter accompanied Mrs. Drake to Prineville Tuesday.

Fifteen new cash subscriptions were added to The Echo's list at Prineville last week.

J. R. Rannels, of Cline Falls, brought in a load of potatoes for Steidl & Reed Thursday.

H. J. Palmer and father left Tuesday for Silver Lake where they will make proof on their timber claims.

West & Caldwell have been making a few alterations in the interior of their meat market and are now handling a large stock of meat and vegetables.

J. Harcrow, of Bull creek, was in Prineville the first of the week. Mr. Harcrow expects to visit his old home in Texas this winter and is therefore disposing of his live stock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dustan, of Clarkston, Wash., came in Tuesday night and spent the week looking over timber lands in this vicinity. John Bloss acted as their guide.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Weisz, Mrs. Lucy Rogers and J. F. Booge left for Prineville Tuesday. Mrs. Rogers will continue on to Chicago while the rest of the party will spend the week in Prineville attending the races.

W. H. Staats purchased 400 pounds of honey from D. F. Findley last Monday. Mr. Findley brought a wagon load of it all the way from California and has had very little trouble disposing of his stock.

TAKE Fry's White Pine Expectant, a certain specific for coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis. Try it, it is guaranteed; price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by W. H. Staats, Deschutes and Smith & Wilt, Sisters.

Chas. Stanborough left Wednesday morning for Portland to be present at the marriage of his sister which occurs Nov. 4th. Mr. Stanborough will be absent for about a month and will spend the greater part of his vacation in Portland.

Attorney J. F. Moore, of The Dalles, was a visitor in our city the first of the week. Mr. Moore was formerly a resident of Prineville and is thoroughly familiar with the resources of this country. He expressed much surprise at the change that had taken place along the Deschutes river since his last visit here some thirteen years ago.

Mrs. Glenni Marsh left Tuesday morning for her old home in Wisconsin, going by way of Spokane where she will meet her husband, who will accompany her. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh have been residents of Deschutes for the past eight months and during that time have made many warm friends who regret to see them leave.

G. W. Wimer was in from Bull creek Thursday.

John Bloss was over from his Matoles ranch this week.

Mrs. Millard Triplett is sick at the Triplett ranch up the river.

Harry Broker was a visitor in Prineville Tuesday and Wednesday.

Brock & West will open their saloon to the public on Monday, Nov. 2nd.

Frank Tewksbury and wife returned from a trip to The Dalles last Tuesday.

Chas. Brock went to Prineville Thursday after a stock of goods for Brock & West's new saloon.

The dance at Low's hall last Saturday was an enjoyable affair and a large crowd was in attendance.

B. C. Low came in today with a load of merchandise for Low's Cash Grocery and the New York Cash Store.

J. N. Moore and J. G. Gillaspay, of Grant county, passed through Deschutes Wednesday on their way to the valley with a band of horses.

A. C. Lucas took twenty-eight head of cattle to Triplett's pasture last Tuesday. He will go to Hay Creek soon to round up the rest of his stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trombeau, of Paisley, passed through town Wednesday on their way home from Medicine Hat, Canada, where they have been visiting.

The Misses Nola and Grace Keever, daughters of John Keever, arrived in Deschutes from Beakerville, North Carolina, Wednesday and will make their home here with their parents. The young ladies had been on the road twelve days.

W. H. Staats received a large addition to his stock of groceries the first of the week. Mr. Staats also received his stock of Fry's Family Medicines and is now prepared to supply a home remedy for all common diseases and ailments.

A large part of the Misses Stenberg and Bandle's stock reached here last week and as a consequence the ladies have been very busy. The amount of business done by the New York Cash Store has more than met the expectations of the proprietors.

C. E. Morrill, who spent some time here last spring looking over the timber situation and later left to investigate conditions in Southern Oregon and Northern California, has returned to Deschutes and taking with him two of our expert timber cruisers is now engaged in making extensive examinations of lands up the river.

The U. S. Internal Revenue man was in town this week and fined every saloon keeper in town, each $150, for running wholesale liquor houses. The saloon men have been borrowing liquor from one another, but one of them had liquor charged on his books against the others, hence the fine. Our new druggist was also fined for selling liquor without a license.—Prairie City Miner.

You get the best service by sending to Hudson & Brownbill for your corrected plats as you get the latest corrections of any township. This is impossible where you go to parties having duplicate government plats, as it would require a correction of all their plats from the land office every day. Besides the above firm charges you only fifty cents and guarantees to send it by return mail.
