

LOCAL NOTES.

The Roberts boys left for their homesteads Tuesday.

Joe Quinn was up from his sheep camp Thursday.

W. T. Casey was over from Powell Buttes last Monday.

W. H. Staats finished hauling his hay from the Tules last Saturday.

Professor Rowan was a business visitor in Prineville last Saturday and Sunday.

George Bates went up to his ranch Tuesday and returned next day with a load of hay.

Severt Debing was in Prineville the first of the week on business before the county court.

T. F. Talbot, of Silver Lake, passed through town yesterday on his way home from Portland.

Lot 1, block 15 in the Lytle townsite was this week sold to George Schlecht by the townsite company.

C. J. Sweet left Monday for his homestead. He will leave in a week or ten days for a short visit in Montana.

Chas. Brock returned from Prineville the first of the week with a stock of goods for Brock & West's saloon.

C. E. Morrill, W. M. Farming, Ed Boyd and Maxim LePage returned from a trip to the timber last Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Martin and F. W. Payne, of Silver Lake, passed through town last Sunday on their way to Portland.

James Macdonald, of Pendleton, and A. M. Scribner, of Spokane, passed through town yesterday on their way to Silver Lake.

Nels Rasmussen left Thursday for his homestead near Pringle Falls where he will spend the winter. Ole Erickson hauled his supplies up for him.

The Misses Araminta Rogers and Mary L. Craig and Samuel L. Craig, of Brookville, Penn., were in town Monday and Tuesday making proof on their timber claims.

W. H. Staats regaled his guests on wild ducks this week. He killed fourteen with seven shells in the course of an hour. Though he won't admit it, it seemed to be a case of duck suicide.

A. M. Drake returned from Portland last Saturday. He was accompanied by J. H. Drake, Jas. G. and A. L. Goodwillie, of Chicago, who have spent the past week looking over the country.

Theodore and Antone Aune, of Ashland, Wis., arrived in Deschutes last Monday and will spend some time visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnt Aune, who reside near Wet Weather springs.

The new Sabbath School will perfect its organization at the school house tomorrow afternoon. Forty-seven members are already enrolled and nearly twenty-five more will be added to the list. Everybody is invited to attend.

William Schlecht arrived at Deschutes Thursday evening from Klamath Falls. Mr. Schlecht will look over a tract of timber land in the southern part of the county and will then return to Klamath Falls where he is temporarily located as the representative of the Yawkey Lumber Company, of Hazelhurst, Wis. This company has already made large purchases of timber lands in Klamath county and continues to look around for investments in good yellow and sugar pine.

George Millican was a visitor in Deschutes the first of the week.

Peter Reitzendorfer has finished his house on the lot recently purchased by him from the Lytle Townsite Co.

J. H. Overturf came in from Silver Lake Tuesday and left on Wednesday morning's stage for Prineville.

H. H. Holland and C. E. Shepherd, of Portland, are spending a few days in this vicinity looking over timber lands.

J. H. Haner, who has spent several weeks in the timber at the head of the river, left Thursday morning for Prineville.

Maxim LePage returned Monday night from Prineville where he had spent several days visiting friends and transacting business.

The dance at Low's hall last Saturday night was a highly enjoyable affair. The attendance was the largest of the season.

Rev. O. W. Triplett preached at this place Sunday forenoon. He returned to Prineville in the afternoon, accompanied by his father.

S. A. Lester and J. L. Smith, of Antelope, were registered at the Pilot Butte Inn last Tuesday night. They were on their way to Silver Lake.

S. S. Parris, of Umatilla county, and E. M. Mortimore, of Madras, were visitors in Bend last Saturday. They were in search of strayed horses.

Thos. Tweet, father of Mrs. John Steidl, was a visitor at the Steidl home from Saturday until Wednesday when he returned to his home at The Dalles.

Nick Smith left Wednesday morning for The Dalles and Portland, where he will be busy attending to business matters for several weeks.

William and J. Wagner, of Moorehead, Minn., were visitors in town the first of the week. They were shown around Monday and Tuesday by H. W. Reed.

The Bend Mercantile Company is experiencing considerable trouble in having its freight hauled from Shaniko. Lack of teams in the freighting business is the cause.

Is the baby suffering with worms? Fry's Santonine Worm Powders are guaranteed to push them off the earth in a hurry, price 25 cents. For sale by W. H. Staats General Merchant, Deschutes.

From many parts of the country come expressions of surprise at the result of the trial of Tilman in South Carolina. If the Associated Press reports of the evidence are correct, it looks as if, to the minds of that jury, it is not much of a crime to shoot an editor.—Florence West.

C. E. Morrill and W. M. Farming left Sunday for Portland, from which place the former will leave for his home at Rhinelander, Wis. Mr. Morrill recently became interested in a Veneer factory in his home town and goes back to make the necessary arrangements for supplying that plant with stock.

The editor of THE ECHO met with an accident Thursday night while coming from the Triplett ranches which necessitated the shooting of the saddle horse which he had purchased at noon of the same day. In approaching the "Dutch John" place, the animal ran into the barbed wire fence which encloses the ranch and cut its fore legs in such a manner that it nearly bled to death before being shot. The editor had a very narrow escape, coming out of the accident with several severe bruises.
