

LOCAL NOTES.

Mrs. C. D. Weisz was on the sick list this week.

A. W. Pope was up to Caldwell's ranch this week.

Barney Lewis drove the stage to Prineville Wednesday.

B. C. Low is building a stable on the rear of his lot at Lytle.

Charles Wimer was over from Bull creek the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Park Doak were visitors at this place last Tuesday.

C. D. Weisz and family have moved into the rooms over Staats' store.

H. J. Palmer and John Ryan returned Wednesday from a trip up river.

The dance at Staats' last Saturday night was a most enjoyable affair.

Take your best girl to the Thanksgiving Ball at West's hall next Thursday evening.

Emmett Holman passed through town last Saturday on his way from Silver Lake to Prineville.

J. R. Low returned Wednesday from The Dalles where he has been sojourning for several months.

The Deschutes Reclamation & Irrigation Company has discontinued work on the ditch for this season.

The Baptist Union Sunday school is preparing to give an entertainment and have a Christmas ere.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Neil, of Prineville, were visitors in Deschutes during the past week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Staats.

C. W. Wimer, of Bull creek, was in town yesterday, having been subpoenaed as a juror in the case against Messrs. Wiest and Dorrance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young came down from their Rosland ranch last Saturday evening. Mr. Young returned Tuesday but Mrs. Young will spend the winter at this place.

Attorney G. W. Barnes came over from Prineville Wednesday to defend L. D. Wiest and S. H. Dorrance who were tried in Judge Brock's court for the crime of petty larceny.

W. L. Seymore and L. H. Brooks, of Spokane, came in on Monday night's stage and left Tuesday morning for Silver Lake where they have work to do in connection with timber lands.

Tommy Jones, who has had charge of Vandervert's upper stage station for the past year and a half, passed through town Tuesday on his way to Prineville where he goes to purchase furnishings for his new house.

Joseph Steidl left Monday morning for his home near Bemidji, Minn. As Mr. Steidl has timber interests in this vicinity and takes a keen interest in the development of Central Oregon, he ordered THE Echo sent to him.

C. L. Williams and T. H. Fenton, of Dexter, and Sam. S. Wardwell, of Silver Lake, stopped at this place last Saturday night while on their way to the valley. Mr. Wardwell will attend a business college at Portland during the winter.

A Grand Thanksgiving Ball will be given at West's hall on the night of Nov. 26th. Supper will be served at the Pilot Butte Inn. Tickets for dance and supper will be one dollar per couple. Arrangements are being made to have special music and a jolly good time is promised all who attend.

Daniel M. Chisamore was down from Rosland Tuesday.

R. R. Weeden, of Summer Lake, was in town last Saturday.

John Deemer and Joseph Steidl made proof on their timber claims last Saturday.

Ex-Congressman Moody was acquitted Thursday. Judge Bellinger, true to his judicial reputation, instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal before the case was thoroughly tried. Bellinger is a fine man.

Ask John Sizemore what he thinks about Squibbs Formula for colic cholera or diarrhoea. The writer found him flat on his back and after two doses of this celebrated medicine he was a well man. Spibb's Formula is for sale by W. H. Staats, Deschutes. 25c per bottle every dose is worth a dollar when your belly aches.

J. M. Crook, of Portland, was in town Tuesday having come in the night before from Prineville. He left Tuesday evening for Swalley's bridge where he will examine some land before returning home. Mr. Crook is at present promoting a number of real estate deals in Portland but will return to this place next spring and again take up the work of placing settlers on the Columbia Southern Irrigation Company's lands.

Special Agent Visits Deschutes.

Thos. B. Neuhausen, special agent of the Department of the interior, and Mrs. Neuhausen were in town over Tuesday and returned to Prineville Wednesday. While here Mr. Neuhausen took the testimony of several timber claimants and hastened back in order to be in Heppner on Friday—a rather strenuous engagement. Mr. Neuhausen is a young man of old Virginian descent and lives up to the best traditions of that stock, being a most courteous and approachable gentleman. He has just recently been assigned to The Dalles land district from the land office of Ashland, Wisconsin, and seems to be getting into the work with commendable energy. The government would do well to have in its service more men of Mr. Neuhausen's type; there would be less cry of fraud and less evasion of the law. Mr. Neuhausen will return to this place in a short time and we hope for a more extended visit.
